Pins Union Jack on Her Dress as Huns Shot Her

London, Oct. 22.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the "Daily Express" sends a story concerning the case of Miss Edith Cavell, in which he says, he has secured from an intimate friend of the British nurse. The despatch follows:—

"She had long been suspected by the Germans, but always refused to leave, as long as there was a single wounded man left in Brussels, saying that duty compelled her to remain where there was suffering. It is believed that before her arrest she was spied on. Little is known of her trial, but it is reported that when the President of the Court asked if she wished to add anything to her defence, or to sign a request for the German Emperor's pardon, she merely shrugged her shoulders and walked out.

"She was as brave before the German rifles as she had been before the Court Martial and refused to have her eyes bandaged. She pinned a small Union Jack on her dress."

In Prison Five Years Then Found Innocent

Kansas City, Oct. 16.—Groos S. Edison of St. Louis, a book agent, has been released from the United States Penitentiary at Leavenworth, where he served five years for a crime he did not commit.

Edison was arrested in St. Louis in February, 1911. He had in his possession a $20 banknote issued in 1837 on a Savannah, Ga., bank. He was convicted in the United States District Court of passing counterfeit money and sentenced to eight years in prison on four counts.

A habeas corpus proceeding to get him out of the penitentiary on technical grounds was brought recently by a Leavenworth attorney, L. S. Harvey. Deputy United States District Attorney, examined the indictment on which Edison was convicted.

He learned Edison was accused of counterfeiting a Georgia State bank bill which was issued in 1837, when State banks were permitted to issue banknotes. It was not the money of the United States Government at all, and therefore was not a crime against the Federal laws.

Harvey placed the case before Judge John C. Pollock and he ordered the immediate release of the prisoner.

Why I Vote for Prohibition

I. As a Citizen. The drink traffic is an evil that cannot be defended. It is directly opposed to the social, economic and moral welfare of the country.

1. It destroys the manhood of the country—the best asset of any land. He goes into the "gin-mill" a bright honest boy, a sober, promising young man—he comes out a "bum," a loafer, a good-for-nothing. Are such citizens helpful or desirable in any country?

2. It produces crime. At Portage la Prairie in Western Canada during the months of June, July and August, 1914, under license, there were 75 police cases. In June, July and August, 1915, when the bars were closed, there were 9 police cases.

North Dakota is a Prohibition State with a population of 575,000. It has 175 in the State prison. Montana is "wet," and with a population of 375,000 has 900 in the State prison. Newfoundland has 800 in the Penitentiary and jails. The united testimony of the judges and magistrates is that at least two-thirds of these are there through drink, i.e., 885 out of the 800. Should any citizen support such a hotbed of crime?

3. It produces poverty. Large sums of money are paid annually from the public taxes to relieve drinkers, families. Private charity relieves many more. A large proportion of the inmates of the Poor House are the victims of Drink. It produces slums, filthy alleys, miserable, ill-clad wives and children. Shall I support such a poverty-breeder?

4. It produces insanity. It is an undeniable fact that it destroys the brain cells, and frequently ends in insanity. Shall I support a traffic that deprives my fellow of God's greatest gift and makes him a public charge and burden?

5. It burdens the taxpayer. It has been repeatedly and conclusively proved that the cost of the results of strong drink far exceeds the revenue it produces. Is it right to permit a traffic that manufactures paupers, criminals, insane, etc., and then tax sober, virtuous and industrious people to keep them? Moreover, if the revenue argument be true it means this—The more drink the more poverty; the more drink the more revenue; therefore the more poverty the more revenue—which is absurd.

2. For the sake of the Boys and Girls. The average revenue from liquor during the past six years has been $302,000 per year. If we have only 1000 drunkards in the country, it means that we are selling our manhood body and soul to the liquor dealers for $302.00 apiece. "I have a boy of my own for whom the liquor traffic is reaching, and whom, and other parents' boys, it must have for the money it pays to the revenue, and being unwilling to sell my own boy, I am not selfish enough to vote to sell other people's children at this or any other price." If a hawk had killed 40 chickens, what would the farmers do? License it? Not Shoot it. III. As a Christian.

1. The Liquor traffic is the greatest single enemy of the Church and Kingdom of Christ. This is the universal testimony of Christian workers.

2. I am my "brother's keeper." I owe it as a duty to the weaker fellow to remove from his pathway the temptation he is powerless to resist.

4. Because Prohibition has proved the most effective method of dealing with the traffic. Precept has failed, example has failed, moral suasion has failed, license has failed, local option has only been partially successful. Prohibition has proved such a success that 19 States of the United States have gone dry; Russia has banished liquor and thrived amazingly; Iceland has Prohibition; Sweden voted 1,184,286 for Prohibition, 16,715 against; while in Canada, Prince Edward Island and Alberta have prohibitory laws, and Saskatchewan has closed the bars.

5. Because in this moral question there can be no neutrality. He that does not vote for Prohibition, helps and supports liquor just as really as if he voted against Prohibition. To-day we are partners of the Liquor traffic, and jointly responsible for all the evils it causes, for we license it and take the revenue from it to help pay our taxes. But many are unwilling partners. On November 4th we have the chance of dissolving the iniquitous and disgraceful partnership. Any man who votes "No," or is indifferent will no longer be the unwilling but the willing active partner in every future evil result that it may cause. Can you dare be the willing partner of such an unholy business?

VOTER.

The King's Appeal

London, Oct. 22.—King George has issued the following appeal: "To my people. At this grave moment of struggle between my people and the highly organized enemy who has transgressed the laws of nations and changed the ordinance that binds civilized Europe together. I appeal to you. I rejoice in my Empire's effort, I feel pride in the voluntary response from all my subjects all over the world who have sacrificed home, fortune, and life itself, in order that another may not inherit the free empire, which their ancestors and mine have built. I ask you to make good these sacrifices. The end is not in sight. More men, and yet more are wanted to keep my armies in the field, and through them secure a victory and enduring peace. I ask you most of all classes to come forward voluntarily and take your share in these fights. In freely responding to my appeal you will be giving your support to our brothers who for long months have nobly upheld Britain's past traditions and the glory of her arms."

Ringling Words

London, Oct. 21.—The execution of Miss Cavell was characterized as a crime that dwains even that of the Lusitania, by the Bishop of London, preaching in St. Martin's Church to day. "Always up to now," said the Bishop, "Christianity has enlightened the horrors of war, but it is not so with our enemy of to-day, whose latest crime is murder in cold blood of a poor, defenceless English girl." The Bishop remarked that Admiral Nelson would not have resorted to diplomatic inquiries in such a case,—he would have made his inquiries with the thunder of the guns of the fleet. Continuing, the Bishop said: "The spirit of Nelson is dead in the young man of the present day if he does not want to know the reason why this crime was committed."

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Flower, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Flower, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consulting) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
