SATURDAY.

After reading of minutes on Saturday the Warden read letter from Coun. Price, Ludlow, to the effect that his absence was mainly owing to the fact that it was understood the Council was to meet on the third Tuesday in January. He knew nothing of the change until very lately.

Coun. Hutchison said the absence could have reached the Council as soon as his letter, and moved that the case lie over with that of the other councillor for Ludlow, for further consideration. Carried. Commissioner Higgan, Blackville, appeared before the Council to explain why his returns had not been sent in. He was such as counting amounting to such as passed (39 Vic.
