

Mr. and Mrs. David Huisson pleasantly entertained a party of friends at their charming house on German street last Tuesday evening. Drive what was indulged in until midnight when dainty refreshments were served. The party was for the entertainment of Miss Ida Hudson who is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Hudson. The party was a very pretty hand-drawn sketch, while the second prize a bronze match safe fell to the lot of Mr. David Kennedy. Mrs. Rankins and Mr. Walter Godard derived considerable satisfaction from the fact that the consolation prizes were both useful and pretty, the former winning a bonbon dish and the latter a paper knife. Among those who were invited to enjoy Mr. and Mrs. Hudson's graceful hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Rankins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allwood, Mrs. Victor Gouland, Miss Hudson, Miss McQuarrie, Miss Godard, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Ella Henderson, Miss Ferguson, Miss March, Miss E. Hoot, Mr. Edmund, Mr. Barnes, Mr. E. Henry, Mr. Godard, Mr. D. Kennedy, Mr. Hawes, Mr. Underhill, Mr. Harty, Mr. Freese, Mr. Peters, Mr. Page, Mr. Will Hudson and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville James of Woodstock were in the city for a short time this week. Mr. F. W. Fendegast of Fredericton was here this week.

Miss McVicar of St. George was visiting city friends for a short time lately. Judge Forbes returned the first of the week from a short stay in the United States. Mr. E. C. Skinner of Providence R. I. was here for a few days lately.

Dr. F. E. Rice and Miss Rice of Digby have been visiting St. John this week. Mr. A. G. Fry of New York is here on a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Ellis returned Monday from a trip to Massachusetts. Rev. Wm. O'Leary of Kingsclear York Co was in the city this week en route home from Richibucto where he had been attending the funeral of Mrs. Henry O'Leary.

Mr. John Palmer of Fredericton spent Tuesday in the city. Mr. J. M. Johnson of Calais was here for a few hours the first of the week.

The Messrs. A. and J. Isaacs and Mrs. Silverstein left Monday for New York, called there by the death of their mother. Mr. F. W. Hunter of Halifax spent part of this week here.

St. Charles Tupper was here for a few hours Tuesday on his way to Nova Scotia. The entertainment in the St. John church on Tuesday evening was most successful and enjoyable. All those names appeared on the following programme doing themselves much credit: Pianoforte duet, Miss Armstrong and F. B. Ford; songs, A. E. Lindsay; violin solo, Miss Shreve; recitation, A. McGilley; solo, Mrs. Burnham; recitation, Miss Shreve; reading the rector's duet, Miss Armstrong, and Mr. Ford. At the conclusion of the above Box and Cox was given by a number of the boys.

Mrs. P. B. Archibald and Miss Archibald of Moncton were in the city this week. Miss Kate McParland has returned from a pleasant visit to Halifax relatives. Major Markham returned last Saturday from a trip to the upper provinces.

Capt. Charles Barnes and Mrs. Barnes returned last Friday from their wedding trip and Mrs. Barnes received her friends this week at 47 Hazen street, where the young couple will make their home for the present.

Mr. J. Arthur Kilpatrick of Shubenackie spent a short time in the city this week. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander W. Patterson of Halifax are spending their honeymoon in the city. Miss Rita Ross has returned to St. Stephen after a very pleasant visit to Mrs. Albert Lockhart.

Mrs. Frank Todd, Mrs. Irving Todd, and Mrs. Hazen Grimmer came down from St. Stephen last week to witness the parade. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Swenson, Mr. John A. Lewis, and Miss Sadie Lewis were a party of Bostonians who visited the city this week.

Mrs. L. E. Jones of Winthrop Mass spent a short time in the city recently. Dr. E. O. Steeves of Moncton paid a short visit to the city this week. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Drummond of Windsor N. S. are spending a few days in the city.

Mr. Robert Seely, Mrs. A. L. Goodwin and Miss Jean Seely were among the St. John people who attended Governor McLellan's reception last week. Miss Everett is visiting Truro N. S. friends.

Mrs. E. Sinclair and Miss Sinclair of Bridgetown, N. S. were in the city for a few days this week. Senator Baird of Perth centre was in the city for a short time this week. Miss Cross of New York is a guest of her brother Mr. W. C. Cross of Prince William street.

Mr. Edward Perry of Montreal is making a short visit to the city. Mr. Daniel McLaughlin of Winnipeg has been visiting St. John lately. Mr. T. A. Doherty of Toronto is spending a few days here.

Mr. Charles Patterson and Mr. L. E. Morton went to Quebec the first of the week. Miss McVicar of St. George is on a visit to city friends. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sewell of Kingston, Ont., are paying a short visit to St. John.

Lt. Colonel Mansell came down from the capital for a few days this week. Mr. William White of Hamilton, Ont., was in the city this week. Mr. Charles F. Murchie of Calais was here the first of the week.

Mr. J. A. S. Mott went to Fredericton on Monday evening. The friends of Mrs. Wm. Boyle of King street east, will be glad to know that she is recovering from her recent severe attack of grippe, although not able yet to be out of doors.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Stewart of Boston are spending a week or two in the city. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pond of the same city are also here on a short visit. Mrs. Williams of Moncton was in the city for a short time this week.

Mr. J. H. Page of Fort Kent was here this week en route to Washington, D. C. Mr. Thomas L. Patterson of Montreal was in the city for a few days this week. Mr. B. White of London, England, is paying a short visit to the city.

W. J. Kilroy of St. Catharines, Ont., is in the city for a few days. The announcement of the death of Mr. Robert Crutshank on Sunday was received with sincere regret by the friends of the family who have the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement. The funeral which took place on Wednesday afternoon was very largely attended.

Mr. James R. Ayer of Sackville was in the city the first of the week. Dr. O. F. Best of Clinton, Me. was among the city's recent visitors. Mr. W. A. Cuthers of Yarmouth, N. S. is here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Andrews of Halifax, are spending a few days in the city. Mr. John J. Fenwick of Quebec is here for a few days stay. Mr. L. W. Cox of Truro spent part of this week in the city.

Mr. Thomas Kilham of Yarmouth has been paying a brief visit to the city recently. Mr. J. E. Goucher of Kentville, N. S. is here for a few days. Mr. C. B. Cumpston of Montreal spent Wednesday in the city.

Mr. James B. Daley returned last Saturday from a trip to Montreal. Mr. S. G. Vroom of St. Stephen is in the city for the last day or two. Mr. Charles B. Raworth of Halifax is in the city for a few days.

Mr. C. N. Clarke came down from Fredericton for a few hours on Wednesday. Mr. James Irving of Shediac was here for a part of this week. Mr. W. R. Ayer of Portland Me., who has been visiting the city has returned home.

Mr. Ollie Irvine left this week for a visit to friends in Boston. Mr. S. D. Scott has been confined to his residence this week with a severe cold. Mr. Charles Stevenson and Mr. J. H. Kimball of Montreal were here for a day or two this week.

Mr. Walter Golding is seriously ill at his father's residence on Seville street. Much sympathy is expressed by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ryan in the death of their baby boy Francis, who died after a few hours illness. Miss Emma Watson returned this week from a visit to Boston.

The whist club of which she is a member, met on Monday night at Miss John Kennedy's residence. The death occurred this week of Miss Kate Burke who about a year ago contracted a severe cold which ended in death. Miss Burke will be greatly missed by her family and a large circle of young friends by whom she was much beloved. She was an accomplished, talented young lady and was the leading solo singer in St. Peter's choir. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

Judge Huntington was here Thursday on his way to Dorchester. Mrs. Feabody of Amherst is in the city for a brief visit. Miss Maud Wythe of Liverpool England arrived this week on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. DeWolfe Spurr.

Mr. Meredith Bountrai of Montreal is in the city on a visit. Miss Lock entertained a few friends at her home on Wentworth street one evening recently, whilst and dancing being the principal amusements provided, and a dainty supper closing a very pleasant evening.

Among those present were the Messrs. E. J. Charles, Miss Marion Ross, Miss G. E. Foster, Miss L. Duffield, Miss E. Allison, Miss G. Wetmore, Miss Ross, Miss Allison, Mr. D. W. Wetmore, Mr. Chalmers, Mr. Ellis, Mr. Davis, Mr. Wetmore, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Rodney, Mr. Williams, Mr. Richford and others.

(Prose is for sale in Fredericton by W. L. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.) Mrs. A. The Parliament building presented a scene of dazzling brilliancy on the occasion of the "Musical" the first public function given by the honor the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. McLaughlin on Friday evening. The Governor and Mrs. McLaughlin received their guests in the Legislative assembly chamber and were assisted in receiving by Lieut. Col. Gordon A. D. C. and Mrs. Gordon; nearly four hundred guests were present and so the doors of the house and the galleries; through the doors of the house and the galleries; from the galleries the scene of the house was magnificently gorgeous, the elegant and rich robes of the ladies together with the gay uniforms of the military made a pretty foreground.

Unbroken Made, St. George, Repaired. Dwell, 17 Waterline.

to the more sombre black dress suits of the gentleman. The halls and stairways leading to the Legislative library, where supper was served from nine to eleven, were tastefully decorated with bunting, the supper table was in the form of a T and ran the whole length of the library and was a dainty and pretty with its beautiful decorations of smilax and ferns, cut and potted flowers. In the centre of the long table was a four tier table mound made of roses and carnations and on each end was the sprig of fruit and flowers, in the east window of the room was a fine display of beautiful plants consisting of palms, rubus, ferns, araucaria, hyacinths etc., all the decorations being the work of Miss Schleyer. The band of the R. E. C. L. was stationed in the speakers gallery and at intervals during the evening played some very fine selections. The young ladies' orchestra also gave some choice selections from the floors of the house. Vocal solos were also given by Mrs. C. H. B. Fisher, Mrs. O. S. Crockett, Mrs. W. T. H. Fenety, Miss Alma Gibson and Prof. Bristow all of which were loudly applauded.

Mrs. McLaughlin who has a very pleasing manner, was tastefully gowned in garnet brocade satin with white lace. Mrs. W. D. Gordon made a very distinguished appearance and wore primrose yellow silk with chignon and diamonds.

Mrs. Burdell wife of the speaker, wore black silk and lace. Mrs. Mitchell wife of the attorney general, black and white lace and diamonds. Mrs. Emmerson wife of the chief commissioner, black velvet cut square, pink trimmings and diamonds.

Mrs. McCann, Woodstock, black silk and white chignon. Mrs. Kilham, green corded silk, decolette with jewel trimming, chignon and diamonds. Mrs. J. O'Brien, cream cord silk and pearls.

Mrs. L. F. Terris, black satin with bodice of pink cord silk, with chignon and pearl trimmings; diamond ornaments. Mrs. C. L. Smith, black silk and white lace. Mrs. A. S. White, black silk and lace.

Mrs. H. H. Plus, black silk, white chignon and white carnations. Mrs. Geo. Allen, green brocade satin and pearls. Mrs. G. N. Babbitt, black satin, cut square, and white carnations. Miss Babbitt, white India silk with pink embroidered chignon and pink ribbons.

Miss Maggie Babbitt, cream cashmere and white lace. Mrs. Bailey, black satin and lace, crimson carnations. Mrs. Bailey, pink silk. Mrs. George Byles, black silk, leather trimming. Miss Maude Beckwith, a very handsome costume of powder blue and amber silk and hand bouquet carnations.

Miss E. H. Beckwith, pink silk and pink carnations. Miss Lillian Beckwith, cream satin and white lace. Mrs. H. V. Bridges, white satin, on train, with chignon and lace, and diamonds. Miss Jeannette Beverly, white brocade satin, lace and hand bouquet of roses and hyacinths.

Mrs. F. St. J. Bliss, black and heliotrope silk with lace. Mrs. J. H. Barry, cream cord silk and lace. Miss Byrne, blue cashmere and white lace. Mrs. Barry, organdy muslin. Mrs. Barry, crimson crepe. Miss Crockett, pink silk and lace. Miss Crockett, black silk and lace. Mrs. Coakley, black silk, with heliotrope and black lace.

Miss Carman, heliotrope silk and white lace. Mrs. O. B. Crockett, pink silk with jewel trimmings and diamond ornaments. Mrs. W. C. Crockett, black velvet and lace. Mrs. H. C. Crockett, black silk, and white lace natural flowers. Mrs. F. S. Crockett, white cord silk on train lace and pearls.

Miss Clark, black silk and lace. Miss Cuthler, Amherst, crimson net over crimson silk. Mrs. Chastant, black velvet and lace. Miss Crockett, blue green silk and violets. Miss Kathleen Crockett, red cashmere with white lace corsage bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Stephen Dixon, white silk and lace. Mrs. Davidson, red brocade bengaline. Mrs. Downing, cream cord silk and lace. Mrs. Geo. Y. Dibble, black velvet and white lace.

Mrs. Dever, black velvet cut square, and lace trimmings. Mrs. Miles Dixon, black velvet and white lace. Miss Demphy, blue green cashmere and cream lace. Mrs. W. T. H. Fenety, black silk with bodice of blue silk and white lace. Mrs. C. H. B. Fisher, black lace over heliotrope silk. Mrs. J. D. Freeman, black silk with bodice of cream wide silk.

Mrs. W. Fiewelling, buff pongee and lace. Mrs. Walter Fisher, pink silk and cream lace and pearls. Miss Gregory, yellow silk and white chignon trimmings. Mrs. G. G. G. white satin under gold striped gown, hand bouquet of flowers. Mrs. D. F. George, heliotrope silk and black velvet. Miss Lily Ghaser, pink silk. Miss Alma Gibson, yellow silk with pearl and chignon trimmings.

Bicycles Free.....

SAVE YOUR WELCOME SOAP WRAPPERS.

WE WILL GIVE FOUR BICYCLES—two for Nova Scotia and two for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island—(Lady or Gentlemen's Wheels, at option of the winners), for the largest number of WELCOME SOAP WRAPPERS sent in up to and including May 31st, 1897.

The Bicycles are the celebrated "Red Bird" (new 1897 model), costing $100.00 each, regarded as the standard high grade wheel of Canada.

Cut out the yellow square in centre of the wrapper and send it in with your name and address as collected, or keep together and send in all at once at May 31st next. Results will be published and wheels awarded without delay. Wrappers taken from dealers' unsold stock will not be counted. Our employees and their family connections are barred.

WELCOME SOAP CO., ST. JOHN, N. B.

If you prize a good thing

Get a WILLETT WASHER.

The Work Is Easy. The Result Is Sure.

It is as necessary as a wringer. Thousands in use all over the land. All giving perfect satisfaction. Call and see if you are interested.

EMERSON & FISHER.

P. S.—Constantly on hand, Wringers in many patterns and prices, Tubs, Pails, Clothes Lines, Tub Stands, etc., all at right prices.

New Fancy=Work Book

For 1896. Just out. Gives explicit instructions for embroidering tea cloths, centrepieces and doilies in all the latest and most popular designs, including Rose, Jewel, Delft, Wild Flower and Fruit patterns. It tells just what shades of silk to use for each design, as well as complete directions for working. Also, rules for knitting Baby's Shirts and Caps and crocheting Baby Bonnets. 96 pages, over 60 illustrations. Sent to any address for 10 cents in stamps. Mention "1896 Corticelli Home Needlework".

BRAINERD & ARMSTRONG'S

Dolley and Centrepiece Book just published, the most up to date book on the subject, sent to any address for 10 cents in stamps.

Corticelli Silk Co., Ltd.,

63 Richelieu Street, ST. JOHN'S, P. Q.

Wet Weather Dry Goods...

Not ordinary damp, clammy, shapeless waterproof goods. Light, porous, stylish dress fabric—perfectly shower proof, dust proof.

Cravenette

combines comfort and style, good appearance and long wear. Fashionable for the street, serviceable for the country. Six shades, Navy, Myrtle, Brown, Grey, Castor and Black. Ask your dry goods dealer for CRAVENETTE.

ESTABLISHED 1815

Watson's Dundee Whisky

"Sound quality, thoroughly matured and free from deleterious ingredients."

—Testimony of the Dundee Public Analyst

THE DAINTEST BLEND IN THE WORLD

CHARD JACKSON & CO. Agents, Montreal

Windsor Salt

Purest and Best for Table and Dairy. No adulterations. Never cakes.