HOW ST. PATRICK'S DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED

Tomorrow, March 17th, and the feast of Ireland's apostle and patron saint, St. Patrick, will be observed the world over by Irishmen and the sons of Ireland. Coming as it does on Sunday this year, the day will be observed with special religious services, which will no doubt be largely attended.

In this city the preparations for the observance of St. Patrick's Day are on an extensive scale, and the day will be a memorable one for Irishmen. The special feature of the day will be the religious services which will be held in all the Catholic churches of the city. At the cathedral at 11 o'clock His Lordship Bishop Casey will celebrate pontifical mass. At this mass a sermon on St. Patrick will be delivered by Rev. A. W. Meahan, rector of the cathedral. In the other churches of the city special sermons will also be given.

In the afternoon the parade of the different Catholic societies and services at the cathedral will be the feature of the observance. Inasmuch as the feast comes this year on Sunday the parade tomorrow promises to outdo that of other years. All the Catholic societies will be represented in the procession. The details of the parade have all been worked out, and it is anticipated that the turnout will be one of the largest seen in years. The replies received from the several societies indicate that each will be well represented. It is estimated that in the vicinity of 700 men from the societies will be in line.

The parade will make King street east the starting point. The different societies will march in a body from their halls to the place of formation. At 2:15 o'clock ranks will be formed. Major Thomas Kichham, of the Hibernian Knights will act as grand marshal, and will be assisted by Sgt. Maj. J. McCarthy. The order of parade will be as follows:

- Detachment of Police.
- City Cornet Band.
- Hibernian Knights.
- Division No. 1, A. O. H.
- Division No. 5 (Fairville) A. O. H.
- A. O. H. Cadets.
- Irish Literary and Benevolent Society.
- 62nd Regimental Band.
- C. M. B. A., Branch 134
- C. M. B. A. Branch 134 (Fairville)
- C. M. B. A. Branch 133 (Carleton)
- Artillery Band.
- C. M. B. A. Branch 482 (North End).
- St. Peter's Y. M. A.
- Father Mathew Association.
- Y. M. S. Joseph.

The procession after leaving King street east, will proceed to the cathedral via Sydney and Waterloo streets. At the Cathedral His Lordship Bishop Casey will officiate at vespers and benediction. A special sermon appropriate to the occasion will be delivered by Rev. Edward Conway of the Cathedral parish.

Following the service the societies will march by way of Richmond, Brussels, Union, Charlotte, King, Dock, Mill, Main, through St. Peter's church grounds where the parade will be reviewed by the Redemptorist Fathers, thence back to the south side of King Square where disbandment will take place.

The C.M.B.A., 134, will observe the occasion in their rooms, Union street, tomorrow evening. The lecture of the Sunday series will deal with Ireland, and amusements programme will be given consisting of Irish music.

Monday will, in a sense, be a continuation of the celebration of the feast. The annual entertainments in aid of the orphans in the Catholic charity institutions will be held. These entertainments are always features of the day's festivity, and for Monday excellent entertainments, dramatic and musical have been prepared. The entertainment in the Opera House, which is given by different societies in turn, will be under the auspices of the Father Mathew Association this year. The dramatic offering for the evening will be "Robert Emmet," a stirring tale of Ireland in the olden days. Two performances will be given, afternoon and evening. The cast of characters for the play is: Robert Emmet Steve Hurley O'Leary L. Moneghan

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: disease germs and destroy them. Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Watergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription. This penetrates to the surface and destroys the germs. Then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D. D. D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now. We can tell you all about D. D. D. Prescription and how it cures eczema, or you can get a free trial bottle by writing D. D. D. Prescription, 49 Colborne St., Toronto. Chas. A. Brown, Druggist.
