NAZIMOVA FOND OF MUSIC

Russian Actress Has Beautiful Home in California—Plays the Violin—Usually Wears Black.

The incomparable Nazimova in her latest screen production, "The Brat," delighted and thrilled the crowded houses at the Imperial Theatre yesterday. The picture, which is an adaptation by Nazimova and Charles Bryant, who is also her leading man, of the successful stage comedy drama written and starred in by Maude Allan, was cleverly put into scenario form by Jane Mathias. It proved a genuine novelty and presented the versatile and amusing Nazimova in a role of the greatest range and intense human appeal.

Oddly enough, "The Brat" is the first of Nazimova's stage or screen impersonations that presents her as an American girl. Her great fame hitherto has been derived from portrayals of Latin and other European types; but as an American girl—and a pitiful wail of humanity at that—she discloses a new remarkable ability as the female virtuoso of the emotions.

The story narrates the whimsical romance of "the brat," a nameless child of the charity institutions who drifts into the chorus of a cheap musical show, is insulted and then hailed to the Night Court on a trumped-up charge. There an author who is seated on the bench with the judge sees in her just the "type" he has been seeking as the heroine of a new novel he is to write.

MacMillan Forrester, the author, takes the bedraggled child-woman to his home, shocking his aristocratic mother and arousing the angry resentment of Angela, the blue-blooded fiancée. From studying his protegee, the writer's interest grows deeper, while she worships him and seeks constantly to show her gratitude.

The novel's brother is a ne-er-do-well. It was he who insulted "the brat" and had her haled to the Night Court. He later confronts her in his home. They are, of course, enemies, but the girl shows her noble qualities by intervening when the weak brother is about to commit a crime. After many trials she triumphs, and the ending is both happy and unexpected.

Nazimova's acting is superb, and her adroit characterization is heightened by the generally humorous quality of the subtitles which convey "the brat's" old collection of slang phrases and whimsical philosophy.

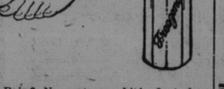

Mr. Bryant does excellent work as the absent-minded author and a splendid bit of character is contributed by Frank Currier as the Bishop. Others in the notable cast are Darrell Ross, Henry Kolker, Amy Veness, Bonnie Hill, Millie Davenport and Ethelbert Knott.

The wealth of lavish settings enhances the production. These were designed by M. P. Sturtevant, Herbert Blache directed the distinguished Russian star under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger, director-general.

The Imperial also showed another splendid Burton Holmes traveltogue, while the election returns were given completely before and after the intermission. Same show today.

LIFT CORNS OFF IT DOESN'T HURT

With fingers! Corns lift off and costs only few cents

Pain? No, not one bit! Just drop a little Frezzone on that touchy corn, instantly it stops aching, then you lift this bothersome corn right off. Yes, magic! Costs only a few cents.

How Old Are You By Your Hair?

You may be thirty in years, but if you are bald-headed, gray, or your hair is dry, brittle, scraggly and ugly-looking, people will surely take you to be many years older.

When your hair becomes faded, dry, streaked and scraggly, when it falls out badly and new hair does not grow, the roots should be immediately vitafied and properly nourished. To do this quickly, safely and at little expense, there is nothing so effective as Parisian sage (liquid form) which you can get at all good drug and toilet counters.

It's guaranteed to abolish all dandruff—stop scalp itch and falling hair and promote a new growth of money returned. It's in great demand by discriminating women because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous, easy to arrange attractively and appear much heavier than it really is.

A massage with Parisian sage is a real delight—easy to use, not sticky, and delicately perfumed—an anti-static liquid free from dangerous ingredients and guaranteed not to change the natural color of the hair. If you want good looking hair and plenty of it by all means use Parisian sage—a little attention now helps insure beautiful hair for years to come.

RHEUMATISM FOR OVER 16 YEARS

No Return of the Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives."

103 Church St., Montreal.
"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists, took medicines, used lotions; but nothing did me good. Then I began to use 'Fruit-a-tives,' and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually 'Fruit-a-tives' overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

Much Interest Taken In Contest

Prizes Awarded Last Evening at Centenary for Contestants in Musical and Elocutionary Programme—Auspices of Young People's Society.

A contest which attracted a great deal of interest was held last evening in Centenary Church by the Young People's Society. During the winter a number of elocutionary contests have been held and it was suggested that a special amateur contest should be arranged including both readings and piano solos. Prizes were offered to readers and musicians, the condition being that for the former, selection should be made from Canadian poets.

A large audience gathered and the programme was listened to with the closest attention. The prize winners in the elocution contest were Miss Annie Tait, Miss Louise Seely and Miss Mary Marney. In the musical contest, while all did well, Miss Hilda Brittain was awarded the prize the judges mentioning her arpeggio work and the color and assurance of her playing.

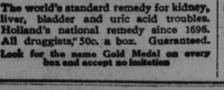

Judges for the elocution contest were Charles Clarke of Sussex and Chief Justice McKeown. In the musical contest the judges were Mrs. J. Campbell, Miss Louise Anderson and Thomas Guy.

Thomas Guy and Chief Justice McKeown presented the prizes congratulating the winners upon the excellence of their performance and the talent displayed. The prizes were donated by B. Bloomfield Jordan and H. V. MacKinnon. Mrs. J. B. Mahoney was convener of the program. J. Lawrence Hennigar presided, and Rev. H. A. Goodwin at the close of the program made a few remarks telling of the enjoyable meetings held during the winter season.

While the judges were making their decision Charles Clarke gave two fine readings from William

WATCH YOUR GUMS—BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Pyorrhoea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyorrhoea poisons generated at their base—poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills.

To avoid Pyorrhoea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhoea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

When the Nerves Give Out

Perhaps you have never fully realized the immense influence of the nervous system for pain, and suffering when exhausted or for health and happiness when properly nourished. Starved nerves produce brain fog, headaches, sleeplessness, indigestion, and weakened functions of all the vital organs. In healthful condition, the nervous system supplies the energy to run and control the whole machinery of the body.

The helpless, pitiable condition, mentally and physically, of the sufferer from extreme nervous exhaustion is the warning which tells us the importance of maintaining at all times the vigor of the nervous system.

As a restorative for the nerves there is no food so popular and so satisfactory as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The proof of this statement is found in such letters as are quoted below.

Headache	Twitching Nerves	Prostration	Indigestion
Mrs. R. H. Code, 108 John St., East, Smith Falls, Ont. writes:—"For the last few years I had been suffering from headaches and sleeplessness, and could feel that I was in a nervous, run-down condition. The children at times would cause me a great deal of trouble, and sometimes if they were noisy, it would seem as though I could not stand it. For a long time it was impossible for me to go to church or anywhere there was a crowd, because I would get almost blind and feel very dizzy, caused by weakness of the nerves. Some months ago through reading your Almanac, I was induced to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I secured some and found that in a very short time I was being benefited, so I continued the treatment. Now I feel fine, can go to church or in a crowd anywhere without any difficulty. I can highly recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone suffering from nervousness, sleeplessness or run-down condition."	Mrs. Amy Cooper, Carnegie St., Ingersoll, Ont. writes:—"Some three years ago, my daughter, who was then about thirteen years of age, seemed nervous and run-down. I gave her some medicine, but she did not get entirely well. Later, she got worse, the nervousness taking the form of a twitching and shaking of the arms, limbs and even her face at times. Sometimes these attacks would be so severe she could hardly hold her knife and fork while eating. I tried some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for her, but was so anxious about her that I did not give it a chance to do any good, but took her to the doctor. He gave her some pills, and some time later, as I did not see much difference in her condition, I said I thought the Nerve Food would do her more good, so I started her using it again. After using a few boxes, she was completely cured of her nervous trouble. She has grown, gained much in weight, and is looking fine and healthy. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for what it has done for us."	Mrs. Thomas Williamson, Picton, Ont. writes:—"For the last twenty years I have had trouble with my nerves. I suffered from sleeplessness, and of course my system was often in a run-down condition from nervousness. At different times when I would have severe attacks, I was under the Doctor's care, but this only gave me temporary relief. Twice I was to a Sanitarium in Toronto, where I secured some relief at the time. This past summer, I suffered from another nervous breakdown, and it was then that I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I took a treatment of this medicine, and can now get up in the morning and do my work, which was something I could not do previously, because I used to get strangely confused. My appetite is good, and I can sleep well, too. Generally speaking, I am so much better that I am proud of my improvement. I cannot speak too highly of the splendid results I have secured through the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."	Mr. Judson H. Morse, Lequille, N. S. writes:—"I am glad to be able to say a few words in recommendation of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, because I have found it so very good for me and others. I came by my nervous trouble much by inheritance, and through my work. In '86 I was a nervous wreck, but the Doctor and time put me on my feet again, so I got along quite well until five years ago. I got a gripe and put a friend offered me some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food pills to try, and I found them to help me at once; so I have taken a number of boxes since that time and still find them good. Mother is in her 90th year, and has suffered a lot with neuralgia of the stomach and bowels, and was in a very bad state last summer, but I prevailed upon her to try the Nerve Food and it helped her even in her advanced years. The Doctor called my trouble Nervous Dyspepsia. I know of many who have taken the Nerve Food with good results. Mother thinks your treatment excellent also."
