HOW CANADIANS SHALL VOTE

Arranging Methods for Ballot Casting.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

The Elections Act is Still a Subject for Revision -- Some Minor Changes Have Been Made in the Original Draft--Canal and Railway Estimates.

Ottawa, July 2.—With the exception of a short time devoted to the passing of a couple of private bills, the House of Comions devoted all day to the discussion of the dominion election act. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in answer to a question from Mr. Puttee, said that the alien labor law was put in force in the Welland district against workmen coming in from the United States. The premier could not say to what country these workingmen

In committee on the dominion election act a uscussion took place on clause 64, which provides that where no list of voters is required or provided and when a voter "found" qualified he shall be entitled

Exception was taken to the word "found" as giving too much power to the returning officers, who would be judges as to the qualification of voters and finally Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick agreed to finally Hon.

Clause 80 was amended so as to make the count in full view of those present and that spoiled ballots be placed in an envelope and put out of the way before the count is begun. The penalty for offences at the poll did not provide a minimum penalty in case the offender was a returning officer. The law was amended by Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick to make it read to a fine of not less than $300 and not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for tion of officers in Winnipeg than else-where. This clause was struck out and where. This clause was struck out and the same pay, namely $4 for a deputy returning officers, $2 for poll clerk and $1 for a constable, was made general.

All of the bill was adopted except the clause regarding the ballot and provision for the soldiers in South Africa voting.

The committee rose and reported progress and the house went into supply on the canal estimates shortly after 9 p. m.

After the canal main estimates were After the canal main estimates were passed, Intercolonial items were reached.

Mr. McDougall (Cape Breton) once more complained of the lack of siding accommodation for himself and also of not getting satisfactory rates.

Mr. McLennan (Inverness) did not see what the minister of railways could do in this matter unless he gave the whole road to Mr. McDougall. As a matter of fact there was no discrimination against Mr. McDougall and he had no justifiable com-
