Alerts, 8; Roges, 7.

After two men were out in the ninth the Roges were beaten yesterday on the Alerts grounds by the Alerts. The winners trailed in the rear from the first inning until the ninth when a home run, a two base hit and a single, aided by a muffed fly led the business.

The maroons showed improved form in field work, but were weak with the stick until the ninth. They were out-hit by the Alerts and in nearly every inning were left on base.

For the spectators, the game provided interest, because the score from the first until the ninth innings was close enough to keep them guessing as to the outcome. Besides the evenness of the score and some of the hitting not many features characterized the game.

Shannon and Burke were absent from the Alerts and Frank White and Burns from the Alerts. Burns and Murphy substituted for the former while Popp covered second and Andy Tufts was in left field for the Reds. Popp was uncertain regarding the infield keyholes, but he distinguished himself with the wagon tongue, making four singles, which drove in most of the runs for his team. It was Andy Tufts' first appearance this season in the Alerts and he showed he had jumped in and accepted all his chances in splendid style.

Shannon and Burns and Priests did the most execution. "Giant" made farewell by slapping out three drives for six bases. Burns hit his game along with two doubles and a single. Britt, for the Alerts, again bumped the sphere with falling effect, knocking out a home-run, two base hit and a single. The four bagger started the winning rally in the ninth. Priests, the man who talks so much, pleased for the Roges and had the better of his opponent, Southpaw "Gunner" White, who struck out more men than his opponents, but met disaster with the big hitless of the Northumberland. Both triers gave one base on balls, while Priests hit two men and White one.

In the ninth, when the Alerts took their turn at the bat they required two to even up and three to win. Tufts led off with an infield fly which Daley snuffed in his mitt. Britt raised the hopes of the team considerably when he sent the ball over the right field fence close to the foul line. Murphy was thrown out by Thomson. Malcolm fell over Whisley's grounder and the player was safe. W. White hit one which Cunningham made a hard effort to capture, but White, who had been hit by Popp, scored on the hit. Popp then rapped out his fourth hit and Whisley rapped out the sixth plate with the tying run. Mitchell sent a fly to right center which Kelly dropped. White and Popp rapped out the seventh but only the run of the former counts in the score.

The game opened with the Alerts at bat. O'Neil drew a base on balls, the only one White was able to score. Popp, the second and moved to third on Priests' single. He scored a moment later on Malcolm's out short to first. Priests scored on a hit by Cunningham. The Alerts failed to reach base.

In the second Thomson reached first on White's high throw to first. He was left on second, which he had to do, as he was hit by a high throw by Priests, an out and a muff by Malcolm gave the Roges another run. After the Roges went out in order in the fourth the Alerts tied the score on two base hit by Britt, a muff by Cunningham and a hit by Popp-Scores 2-0.

Singles by O'Neil and McLean scored for the Alerts in the fifth. In the second half the Alerts got three men on the base before a man was out. Whisley being hit, W. White drawing the only base on balls off Priests and Popp slapping out a single. Then, on Mitchell's fly to Kelly Whisley used judgment on third and sent the ball over the fence. The Alerts were in the game.

In the sixth, after two were out, Murphy singled. He was caught between first and second, but Britt's throw hit the runner, allowing him to reach second. As he started to steal third Daley caught, so Murphy continued his journey to the plate. The seventh inning was a struggle for the Alerts and one for their opponents. A single by Whisley, with bases full, netted the Alerts four, while for the Roges Priests made a double and McLean knocked out a three base hit. Priests struck out three Alerts in this inning and followed it up by making Mahton and A. White hit the side.

In the ninth the Roges rapped two two base hits and a single, but only scored one run.

Halifax, June 5—(Special)—The Standards again defeated the Revolution this afternoon. Besides catching and coaching being features, Flammore of Fredericton, played short for the Revolution, and put up a good game, accepting every chance. About 600 witnessed the match, which was exciting.

The Centenary and Franklus played last night. The Franklus won 7-6. Five innings were played. For the Centenary, George

Malcolm pitched, Ery Fleming caught one

The Franklus had Johnny Cregan in the box for three innings, when he gave way to Dan Conroy. James Sague had both triers in good shape, besides lining out some good hits. He is a promising young player, whom the Roges or Alerts should keep an eye on.

The feature of the game was the deep foul fly catch of Carson of the Franklus on first, putting out his man, then getting back to the base in time to prevent another runner who had left the initial bag from obtaining possession of the vacated base. A very large number of spectators were present. Geo. McEwen umpired satisfactorily.

Independence a Past One. Boston, June 6—The Lawson yacht Independence today met with her first accident, a very serious jamming of the steering gear, but sufficient to stop the boat for an hour and a half of splendid sailing, during which she attained a speed of a tenth of a mile over three miles of 3 1/2 nautical miles an hour.

The accident led unexpectedly to a most thorough test of the yacht's rigging and her big mast and the result showed that it will be a pretty severe breeze which will break the Boston yacht. The big boom swung by a fifteen knot breeze swept over the stern. It was so sudden that none of the crew was able to prevent tacking and the mast had to stand the entire weight of the sail and boom as it fetched up. There was not a man on the boat but thought that the mast would fall.

Previous to the accident the yacht, under sail in a strong breeze, showed herself a wonderful boat, especially in her ability to run with sheets started. She also went very fast beating to windward and was thrown about by Captain Hoff in something under 18 seconds. Compared with the Constitution's time the wind apt sea were much the same and the yacht was under similar canvas, and it certainly seems as if the Independence had the greater speed, especially in a reach.

Braid is Champion. Gullane, Scotland, June 6—The play in the open golf championship yesterday practically left Harry Vardon and James Braid to fight for first place. Vardon drew with Taylor. In the third round Braid scored 74, making a total of 229. Vardon scored 79 making a total of 234, and Taylor 74 making a total of 206.

Braid was the winner with a total of 206. H. H. Hilton, the amateur champion, had a total score of 320.

MORAL FINANCING

"INTEREST" IS A RIGHTEOUS PAYMENT FOR THE USE OF MONEY

TEXT OF DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON

The Individual With the "One Talent"—A New View of an Old Question—How the Multiplication and Consolidation of Energy Does the Same Work as If the Sum Total Was Possessed by One or Few.

Washington, June 2.—This is a discourse by Dr. Talmage for those given to depreciate themselves and who have an idea that their best attempts amount to little or nothing; text, Matthew xxv, 15, "To another one."

Expect first from this parable of the talents the word "usury." It ought to have been translated "interest."

When one of them devotes all his ability to useful purposes, if we speak of it as something for gratitude to God. Meanwhile we have no time at all to consider what the right side of their "one talent," not realizing that ten people of one talent are quite as important as one man with ten talents. In the case of the talents, the opportunity is concentrated in a single personality, while in another it is divided among ten individuals.

Now, what we are to do in this sermon is to waken people of only one talent to appreciation of their gift. Only a few people have five talents or ten talents, or millions have one. My short text is like a galvanic shock. "To another one."

What is your one talent? Carry that look wherever you get. It must come from a cheerful heart. It is not that image smile which we sometimes see which is an irritant. It is not that bright that it illumines eye, cheek, nostril and mouth. Let ten men who are accusatory and who have certain hatred every day resolved upon a cheerful countenance as a result of a cheerful heart, and the influence of such a facial irradiation would be felt not only in that street, but throughout the town. Cheerfulness is catching. But a cheerful look is exceptional.

For the Championship. Gullane, Scotland, June 5—The struggle for the championship will probably lie between Vardon, Braid and Taylor. "Jack" White and J. Kinell are next.

soul with courage and your face with glorious sunrise. Your sins all forgiven, that makes you all right with the past, an eternal heaven promised to your soul, that makes you all right with the future.

Aggravate is your one talent that of wit or humor? Use it for God. Much of the world's wit is damaging. Much of satire has a sting in it. Much of caricature is malevolent. Much of smart retort is vitriolic. In order to say smart things how many will sacrifice the feelings of others!

world and rule it in a common sense and Christian way. There would be less to mind and startle, but more to give equipoise to church and state and world. "To another one."

PROHIBITION LAW WENT IN FORCE

ON P. E. ISLAND WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Premier Says Money Will Be Spent to Enforce It—St. John Commercial Traveller Treated in Apparently Strange Way.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 5—(Special)—Prohibition became law this morning.

Some of the liquor men are selling their old, others will not take money and others are selling.

Premier Farquharson says the government is going to enforce the law. "We have machinery for the purpose ready for the work," said he. "It would only be childish if we pass law and make no effort to enforce it at all. The law will be enforced. It may take a good deal of money before we are through, but if we can prove, and we think we can in time, that our law is good, our money will be well spent."

George Hastings Palmer, representing W. H. Scovil & Co., St. John, manufacturer's agents, landed in Summerside on the 21st of May and duly presented himself to the officer appointed by the government for collecting the commercial travellers' tax, James C. Wright, presenting Messrs. Scovil's certificate to do business on the island.

This certificate bears date October 6th, 1900, and is good for one year. Wright at once endorsed the certificate as ending.

Palmer to go on with his work, armed with authority.

Mr. Palmer proceeded to transact business at Summerside, Alberton, Tignish and other places and on Thursday morning 30th May, came to Charlottetown, registering at the Davies Hotel.

Saturday morning, June 1, Inspector Campbell came into the sample room where Palmer was at work and demanded to see his license. The document was produced. Campbell said the license was no good and Palmer must pay $30 and take out another or be liable to a fine of $200. This Palmer refused to do as he had the license already.

Campbell said he would make him pay and went out. Half an hour afterwards Palmer was arrested by the sheriff and taken to the provincial building. The premier being absent, Palmer was given the alternative of going to jail or furnishing bonds for $40, that being the amount of the license fee, $20 and costs. The necessary sureties were found and Palmer escaped being locked up. He has placed the matter in the hands of W. S. Stewart in order to obtain such redress as may be obtainable.

SENSATIONAL STORY OF STRATHCONA'S HORSE.

Toronto, June 5—(Special)—The Telegram's special cable from London says: The Cape Town correspondent of the London Express relates a rather startling story about Strathcona's Horse. As the story goes, a patrol of the Strathcona's, being fired upon from a farm house where the Union Jack and white flag were flying, searched and found two Boers hidden in a disused well.

The Strathconas decided to hang them, but the pair were hung up to a near by beam. A staff officer happened to ride upon the scene and ordered the men cut down, but the Strathconas refused. The officer, furious with rage attempted to cut the rope, but a voice said: "Look here, boys, the men are for three to swing on that beam!"

The officer turned, but he was brought face to face with 20 stern, rough faces, and left the horse.

Colonial Secretary Chamberlain has cabled stating that no further troops from Canada will be required for South Africa.

This is in reply to an offer to send a regiment of cavalry, if required. This is now decided with thanks to the Canadian government.

Treton, June 4—Some Boers who were captured by intelligence officer near Pieterburg, Transvaal, were found to have a thousand rounds of ammunition stored in a cave. They state that the northern part of the Transvaal are suffering considerably from fever. They have no doctors and many are dying.

Best marksmen continue to make trouble for the British. They generally avoid a battle, but wait for favorable opportunities to attack small parties by ambush, and inasmuch as they are badly off for clothing and boots they use all their skill to kill in order to strip the dead.

London, June 6—It is understood that Lord Kitchener has not asked for reinforcements.

TRADE ON THE BORDER.

U. S. Officials Investigating Bonding of Merchandise.

Pittsburgh, N. Y., June 6—A trip to investigate the bonding of merchandise in the coastwise trade along the Canadian frontier is in progress, the party being railroad men, customs officials and others.

The party will spend tonight at Long Lake, about 100 miles west of Ottawa and tomorrow night will reach Plover Sound on Lake Huron, where they will take a steamer for Duluth. It is believed that as a result of the trip means will be found to facilitate the bonding of goods in transit by water and rail and that such trade with our country and Canada will be encouraged.
