

June Weddings

Ferris-Smith.

Tuesday, June 22.
St. Luke's church, North End, was the scene of a pretty nuptial event yesterday morning when the Rev. R. F. McKim, joined in marriage Miss Alice Smith, daughter of George Smith, of the North End police division, and George M. Ferris, a popular member of the post office staff here. The wedding was witnessed by a gathering of relatives and friends. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ferris left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and other New England centres.

Many valuable wedding remembrances were received, including a handsome silver service from the associates of the groom in the post office. This presentation was made on Saturday afternoon by Postmaster Sears. Miss Alice Smith, who is a member of the staff of the post office, will be the best wishes of many friends in their married life.

O'Leary-Quinlan.

Tuesday, June 22.
The wedding of Ernest O'Leary of Golden Grove to Miss Gertrude Quinlan of this city was solemnized with nuptial hymns at 8 o'clock yesterday morning by Father Donohue in St. John the Baptist church, Miss Lena O'Leary, sister of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaid, and Edward Quinlan, brother of the bride, was the groom's best man. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of guests. After the ceremony the wedding party were entertained at breakfast before Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary left on the A. R. steamer for the "Annapolis" valley, where they will spend a week. On their return they will live in Union street. Many presents were received, including a set of dinner and tea dishes from the fellow employees of the bridegroom at the staff of the Commercial Union Bank, and a set of gold from his employer, H. J. Sheehan.

Oulton-Emery.

Wednesday, June 23.
A pretty wedding took place yesterday at the home of the bride, 48 Regent street, when George King Oulton, of the staff of J. M. Robinson & Sons, bankers, and Miss Mary Emery were united in marriage by Rev. Victor Jarvis. The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate relatives and friends. Following the ceremony luncheon was served at the house, and later Mr. and Mrs. Oulton left on a honeymoon trip by auto through the provinces. They will make their home in the country for the summer, taking up their residence in the city in the fall. Among those present at the wedding was Mrs. Oulton, mother of the groom, from Dorchester.

Sutherland-Vernon.

A quiet wedding took place at Minnie (N. B.) on Tuesday, June 15, when Grace Campbell, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Vernon was married to Roderick H. Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland, of River John (N. B.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. M. Baird, of Dorchester (N. B.), in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the bride. Going away the bride wore a sand-colored suit, with pink-flecked hat to match. The happy couple will visit Upper Canadian cities before their return to Nova Scotia. The bride's father is well known in St. John, and Sutherland is a member of the firm of Mitchell & Sutherland, well known railway contractors.

Morrow-Belding; Belding-Gallo.

A nuptial event of much popular interest took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Main street Baptist church, officiated at a double wedding. Miss Eva Gallop became the bride of Albert Belding of the Public Works, Department, City Hall, and his cousin, Miss Mabel Claire Belding, united in marriage to Elbert Victor Morrow, accountant with Scott Brothers, Limited, King street. The church was prettily decorated with purple and white flowers in honor of the interesting ceremony, which was witnessed by a very large gathering of relatives and friends.

The scene was most attractive. The bride parties entered the church to the strains of the organ. On the left, Miss Belding, organist. Miss Belding, becomingly gowned in a traveling costume of blue with white hat trimmed in pink, was given in marriage by her father, Rev. Dr. Hutchinson. Gallop was given away by her father, P. P. Gallop, and was nicely attired in a blue traveling costume, with white leghorn hat, trimmed in old rose. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. The young people were unattended. Albert E. Tolson and H. Lester Smith acted as ushers. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Belding and Mr. and Mrs. Morrow went by automobile to Public Landing and today will start on a two weeks' yachting cruise to Grand Lake, carrying out, going home-staying they will reside in St. James street. All four enjoy the very best wishes of a host of friends for future happiness.

Quilty-Burns.

Thursday, June 24.
A very pretty wedding took place at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, when Alice Burns was united in marriage to Bernard J. Quilty, in the Church of the Assumption. Nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. J. J. O'Donovan. James Q. Robertson was master of the groom. The bride looked charming in a silk dress of battiswhite grey, wore a black hat, and carried a white prayer book. After the ceremony, the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's brother, E. J. McGeachie, Market Place, Carleton, where a dainty repast was served. The newly-wedded pair left on the Boston train for a honeymoon trip to Lake Maggiore. Numerous and beautiful presents, bore eloquent testimony of the general esteem in which the bride and groom were held. On their return from the honeymoon trip, they will reside in Carleton. The groom's present to the bride was a pearl pin, and to the groomsmen he gave a pair of gold cuff links.

Simmons-Foley.

The marriage of Miss Kathleen Foley, of Dorchester (Mass.), formerly of St. John (N. B.), to John Simmons, of Rosedale, took place yesterday morning at nuptial mass at St. Peter's church, Dorchester, after which a wedding breakfast was served to over 100 guests, including some from New York and St. John, at the residence of the bride's parents, which was tastefully decorated with potted palms and cut flowers for the occasion. Miss Foley wore a wedding gown of white satin and a long court train, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and lily of the valley. The young people were unattended. Albert E. Tolson and H. Lester Smith acted as ushers. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Simmons went by automobile to Public Landing and today will start on a two weeks' yachting cruise to Grand Lake, carrying out, going home-staying they will reside in St. James street. All four enjoy the very best wishes of a host of friends for future happiness.

Belyea-Watson.

Thursday, June 24.
Edmund Herman Belyea and Miss Hattie Pearl Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Watson, Durham street, were united in marriage last night at the home of the bride's parents. It was a quiet ceremony, only the relatives and close friends being present. Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Belyea will make their home in Adelaide street.

Fowler-Reese.

Thursday, June 24.
The marriage of Miss H. Fowler, of Young's Cove (N. B.), to Miss Elsie M. Reese, daughter of Wellington Reese, Cumberland Head, was solemnized last night at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Dr. W. E. MacIntyre, 340 Main street. The bride was handsomely attired in a tailored suit of navy blue, and wore a hat of navy blue and white. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will leave today for Young's Cove, where they will in future make their home.

Cox-McGinley.

Thursday, June 24.
A pretty home wedding was solemnized at 4:30 yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. McGinley, Melburg street, when her daughter, Miss Anna Beatrice, became the bride of Arthur Cox. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Victor Jarvis, curate of St. John's (Stone) church, in the presence of members of the family and immediate friends. The bride, who was given away by her brother, A. E. McGinley, was gowned in white broadcloth with rose point lace, with conventional bridal veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley, as maid of honor, was becomingly attired in white marquisette over yellow silk and carried a bouquet of marguerites. Mr. and Mrs. Cox left on the Quebec express en route to Prince Edward Island, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 76 Melburg street. A large number of handsome presents in cut glass and silver testified to the popularity of the young couple.

Young-Mawhinney.

Chance Harbor, N. B. An interesting nuptial event took place at Chance Harbor yesterday, when Miss Mabel J., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mawhinney, was united in marriage to David Bennett, of Danvers (Mass.). Rev. J. D. Wetmore officiated at the ceremony, which was performed on the lawn of the bride's home, prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride wore a gown of white embroidered net over satin with pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and maiden hair. Little Miss Irma Mawhinney, daughter of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The wedding mass was played by Mrs. Robert T. Mawhinney. Mr. and Mrs. Young will spend some time at Newport (N. B.), the groom's former home, before proceeding to Danvers, where they will reside. Some valuable remembrances were received by the bride as a token of esteem in which she was held and the good wishes of their many friends. They will follow them for a happy wedded life.

Charles McCutcheon.

(Nanaimo, B. C., Daily Herald, June 12.)
One of Nanaimo's oldest and best known residents passed away yesterday in the person of Charles McCutcheon. The late Mr. McCutcheon was born on Feb. 18, 1832, in York county, New Brunswick. At the age of 18 he joined the L.O.L. No. 8, Magnay, York county (N. B.), continuing to reside in that city until 1876, when he came to B. C. He lived in Comox until 1878, when he arrived in Nanaimo, being employed for several years as carpenter with the New Vancouver Coal Company (now the Western Fuel Company). Two years later he entered the construction business, his first contract being to build one of the large barns for Mr. Dunsmuir on the old South Wellington farm. He continued at this business up to twenty years ago, when he started up his present grocery business.

On leaving New Brunswick he carried discharge papers showing the highest honors in Orangeism, including the Royal Purple, Royal Blue, Royal Arch Mark, and Royal Scarlet Man, the lodge motto being "In God we trust, be just and fear not." He has also reached high honors in the local lodge, being past master of the lodge, No. 1619.

During his residence in Nanaimo for the past forty years Mr. McCutcheon has held high honors, having been sidearm for two years in the '80s, at which time the slogan was "McCutcheon and a steel bridge over the Millstream."
