

WHISKEY.—About five times as dear as it was, Thos. Mackay, Hamilton, 767.

WINDSOR, ONTARIO.—Evidence of the medical health officer of, 384.

WIRE WORKS AND WIRE WORKERS, in Hamilton.—See evidence of Samuel Greening, 840. The Barnum Wire and Iron Works Company of Windsor and their employees, see evidence of F. S. Evans, Windsor, 388, and H. Gnosill, Windsor, 427.

WOODWORKERS.—In Chatham, see evidence of G. S. Hope, 461, and H. A. Patterson, 486. Agricultural woodworkers in London, see evidence of John Davidson, 622. In St. Thomas, John Waddell, 532, 533.

WOOL AND WOOLGROWING.—Canadian and imported wools compared, A. French, Ottawa, 1145. Demand for, and price of, governed to some extent by the style of fabrics worn. Ontario farmers grow a better class of wool now than formerly, T. Galbraith, 193. Kinds of wool used in the Dundas Knitting Factory, S. Leonard, 859. Woollen manufacturers in London get their wool in the neighborhood principally, James O'Donnell, 663. Sufficient coarse wool grown in Canada to supply the home market and leave a surplus for export, 476. Quantity of wool grown in the County of Kent not one-fourth of what it was six years ago, T. H. Taylor, Chatham, 477. Most of the wool used by the Cornwall Manufacturing Company comes from Australia and South America; not much of it is Canadian wool, J. P. Watson, Cornwall, 1069.

WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES.—The North-West as a market for them. Canadian made fingering yarns vs. Berlin wools, T. H. Taylor, Chatham, 476. Cannot make fingering yarns in London, James O'Donnell, London, 663.

WOOLLEN MILLS AND EMPLOYEES THEREOF.—In Chatham, see evidence of T. H. Taylor, 475. In Cornwall, see evidence of J. P. Watson, 1068, and Thewlis Day, 1070. In London, see evidence of James O'Donnell, 663. In Ottawa, see evidence of A. French, 1144.

WORKING CLASSES.—Thinks they are in a better condition to-day than thirty years ago, E. Gurney, 299. The centralizing and monopolizing tendency of civilization detrimental to their interests. Reasons why their material condition has not improved in ratio with their intellectual condition. Their material condition more stringent than it was ten or fifteen years ago. Marked improvement in their intellectual condition, John Hewitt, Toronto, 300. Their material condition as good as it was fifteen years ago, A. W. Wright, Toronto, 323.

See also Condition of the Working Classes.

WORKINGMAN.—The term should be applied to all who do useful labor whether mental or manual, P. Thompson, Toronto, 99.

WRECKING LAWS.—Capt. T. Donnelly, Kingston, 991.