

The High Cost of Living

Canada is a land of countless fertile acres, and yet there is much complaint over The High Cost of Living.

Potatoes are being imported into Canada from Ireland! Meat, butter and eggs, are at top-notch prices. Many efforts are being made to ascertain the cause of these ascending prices.

But the potato is not a perfect food for man—neither are eggs, butter or meat. The only complete, perfect food for man is the whole wheat grain. It contains all the material needed for building and nourishing the perfect human body. It is brought to its highest perfection as a food in Thoroughgoing Court.—A rural magistrate, listening to the testimony of the witness, interrupted him, saying: "You said that you made a personal examination of the premises. What did you find?"

"Oh, nothing of consequence," replied the witness; "a beggarly account of empty boxes," as Shakespeare says.

"Never mind what Shakespeare said about it," said the magistrate; "he will be summoned to testify for himself if he knows anything about the case."—Delineator.

He Bit.—"What did you do with all the get-rich-quick money you landed?" asked Mr. Flamm.

"Lost it," replied Mr. Flimm. "A fellow invented a get-rich-quicker scheme and lured me into it."—Washington Star.

Made Sainly.—A certain New Brunswick clergyman had occasion to visit the Provincial Lunatic Asylum in the city of St. John. Passing through one of the wards, he was accosted by a patient, an individual who could hardly lay claim to any but the most mundane cast of countenance, who gravely said to him, "I am St. Peter."

The reverend visitor expressed his gratification at meeting so famous a character, and passed on presently into another ward.

On returning, a few minutes later, he was again stopped by his piously-inclined friend, who surprised him by remarking: "I am St. Paul."

"But," exclaimed the clergyman, "you told me a minute ago that you were St. Peter."

"Ah, yes," explained the man, "but that was by my first wife."—The Argonaut.
