

Official Opening of New "Lean-To" at No. 5 I. T. S. on Nov. 26

Group-Captain G. N. Irwin, Officer in Charge of Administration, No. 1 Training Command, is shown above officially opening the new "Lean-To" at No. 5 Initial Training School, Belleville. Also shown in the picture are Squadron Leader S. Factor, Squadron Leader T. H. Barton, both of No. 1 Training Command, and Wing Commander A. J. Snetsinger, Commanding Officer of No. 5 I.T.S. The new "Lean-To" is attached to the big drill hall and is one of the best in Canada, with the furnishings alone costing more than $5,000. It includes a canteen, lounge, library, and offices for auxiliary officers. Following the opening, a dance was held at which hundreds of Belleville citizens attended.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Morch of Belleville, are shown here surrounded by airmen of No. 5 I.T.S., as they purchase soft drinks when the new canteen bar was opened.

Ontario Intelligencer photo
27 November 1943.