DAILY DIARY

OF No. 2 S.F.T.S., R.C.A.F., Uplands, Ontario.

(UNIT OR FORMATION)

PLACE	DATE	TIME	SUMMARY OF EVENTS	REFERENCE TO APPENDICES
Uplands, Ontario	November 1st 1944		Partly cloudy, hazy; flying washed in at 0800 hours and out at 1800 hours. Graduation dinner for members of Course 105 was held in the Officers' Mess in the evening, followed by the Wings Dance in the Recreation Hall for the graduates and their friends.
	November 2nd 1944		Overcast, hazy, wind; flying washed in at 0800 hours and out at 1730 hours. A revival movie, "Yankee Doodle Dandy", was shown to a large audience in the Recreation Hall in the evening.
	November 3rd 1944		Overcast, hazy; one hour dual and five hours sole flying. Course 105 Wings Parade held today was a most impressive ceremony. Group Captain Kingsland addressed and presented Wings to the graduates. (See Appendix "A".) Amongst the graduates were four officers who had already completed one tour of operations as Air Gunners. Before the Wings Presentation, Group Captain Kingsland entertained at luncheon in the Officers' Mess in honour of Air Vice Marshal A. Raymond, Air Officer Commanding. G/C Wood of AFHQ/DPC, Mr. T.P. Gorman, Colonel R.F. Parkinson, and G/C Ridley, UKALM, were among the distinguished guests at the ceremony.
	November 4th 1944		Overcast, rain showers. Flying fit for 2½ hours dual and 4½ hours sole.
	November 5th 1944		Overcast; four hours dual, three hours sole. Sunday flying commenced today. An R.C. Church Service was held in the early morning and one at 1700 hours. The Protestant service was held at 1300 hours, thus enabling all personnel on the Unit to attend their respective services.
	November 6th 1944		Overcast during morning, cloudy to overcast during evening. Course 122 commenced flying training with intake of sixty-six students, all R.C.A.F. Several W.D.'s sold peppies on the Station to all personnel, who responded magnificently. Everyone on the Unit is now wearing a poppy.
	November 7th 1944		Cloudy to overcast. 8½ hours sole flying. Regular weekly meeting of Section Commanders held in the Commanding Officer's office. The Entertainment Committee was directed to make final arrangements for the Station Show, scheduled for Tuesday next.
