

Ottawa, September 16, 1920.

Reverend Sir,

In Mr. Scott's absence, I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th instant, regarding the liquor traffic at Cornwall Island.

I may say that just very recently the Department had detectives in that agency, but the reports of their investigations have not yet been received. It is a very difficult situation to control, as is evidenced in other sections of the Province of Ontario.

Your letter will be brought to Mr. Scott's attention upon his return to the city.

Your obedient servant,

Rev. E. Tennants,
Cornwall Island, Ont.

For Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
