UNDER THE WAVES;

Or, Diving in Deep Waters.

"Mr. Ballantyne enlarges the already gigantic debt due to him by the young, by his 'Under the Waves,' a story meant to illustrate the practice and peril of diving in deep water, which it does in not only an interesting, but often in an amusing manner."—The Times.

With Illustrations. Crown 8vo, 5s.

RIVERS OF ICE;

A Tale Illustrative of Alpine Adventure and Glacier Action.

"A tale brimful of interest and stirring adventure."—Glasgow Herald.

With Illustrations. Crown 8vo, 5s.

THE PIRATE CITY;

An Algerine Tale.

"The story is told with Mr. Ballantyne's usual felicity, and, as it is plentifully sprinkled with horrors, no doubt it will be greatly enjoyed by some boys."—Athenæum.

With Illustrations. Crown 8vo, 5s.

BLACK IVORY;

A Tale of Adventure among the Slavers of East Africa.

"This is a captivating story, and likely to do good withal, with incident and information, the picturesque and the practical, adventure and pathetic appeals, skilfully mingled for a good purpose. We heartily recommend it."—Record.
"Boys will find the book about as delightful a story of adventure as any of them could possibly desire."—Scotsman.
