SCROFULA in all its forms, and all foul humors of the blood, promptly yield to the purifying power of Burdock Blood Bitters. It moves all the secretions to a healthy action, and cures every form of Scrofula, from a common pimple to the worst ulcer.

B. B. B. stands for Burdock Blood Bitters; now what is the difference between B. B. B. and all other Bees? Give it up? I knew you would. The difference is, all other Bees are hum-bugs, and B. B. B. is not.

GLEANINGS.

WHEN I was a young man I was always in a hurry to hold the big end of the log and do all the lifting; now I am older, I seize hold of the small end and do all the grunting.—Josh Billings.

LIFE is as we take it,
And Heaven is where we make it,
And in ourselves the problem lies
Of solving all theologies.

A GOOD CEMENT FOR CHINA.—A thick paste of gum arabic water and plaster of paris will join the fractured edges so that in three days they can not be separated in the same place.

WHAT IS IT?

What is it helps digest my food
And makes my appetite so good,
That I feel just as a well man should?

Burdock Blood Bitters.

What is it that's worth more than gold,
Than all the wealth of Indies told,
That giveth health to young and old?

Burdock Blood Bitters.

What makes me smile when others frown,
My spirits always up—not down?
Because I purchase, when in town,

Burdock Blood Bitters.

So if you would healthy, happy be,
Beware of every doctor's fee,
Invest a dollar when you see

Burdock Blood Bitters.

NEXT time you hear a person declare that deaf is, or should be, pronounced "def," just ask him why sheaf or leaf isn't pronounced "shef" and "lef."

INGROWING NAILS.—Make a notch in the centre of the end of the nail in the shape of the letter V, and drop hot melted tallow around the ingrowing edge of the nail. This is a speedy cure for this distressing difficulty.

LIFE's bubbles
And troubles
Will never be o'er,
Till our boat
Is afloat
On the evergreen shore.

PROBABLY the meanest man on record keeps a boarding house in San Domingo. Last winter an earthquake turned the edifice clear upside down, and the very next morning he began charging the garret lodgers first floor prices.
