PROMISSORY NOTE GIVEN FOR AN OLD DEBT.—A debtor entered into a composition with his creditors, and about a year afterwards, wishing to obtain a line of credit from one of his composition creditors, he voluntarily gave him his note for $100, for which he received no new consideration. In an action in Quebec, founded upon the new note, it has been held that the natural obligation still existing on the part of the debtor to pay the balance on the old debt was a good and valid consideration for the note, and the amount of it was therefore recoverable in an action at law. Bédard vs. Chaput, 15 Quebec Sup. Ct. 572.
