

HEADACHES

Were Caused By A Sour Disordered Stomach

Mr. James McLaughlin, Bracebridge, Ont., writes:—"In order to let you know what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me, I am writing you."

"About a year ago I was troubled a great deal with a very sour disordered stomach and had terrible headaches, that were so bad I could scarcely do my work."

"One day in telling a friend who had used your pills before how I felt, she told me to try them, which I did and to my great surprise after using one vial I was greatly relieved, and when the second one was finished I was totally cured, and have not been troubled since with either my stomach or the headaches, and I feel greatly indebted, first to the friend and secondly to Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for the great relief I derived from their use."

Price 25c. per vial or 5 vials for $1.00 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited Toronto, Ont.

YOUTHFUL LOGIC.

The teacher in elementary mathematics looked hopefully about the room. "Now, children," she said, "I wish you to think very carefully before you answer my next question."

The small pupils sat eagerly awaiting it, wide-eyed, and in some instances, open mouthed.

"Which would you rather have, three bags with two apples in each bag, or two bags with three apples in each bag?" asked the teacher.

"Three bags with two apples in each bag," said a boy in one of the last seats, while the class still doubted as to the best answer.

"Why, Paul?" asked the teacher. "Because there'd be one more bag to bust," announced the practical young mathematician.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

WIDOW'S PORTION.

What is a wife's share—being the second wife? There are three children by the first wife, and there is no will made. My husband always says that it's all right—it will be all right. But it's only just and right that I should know; and as I am working very hard, it's all the more necessary that I should know the truth.

Ans.—In the event of his dying without a will, you would be entitled to take one-third, absolutely, of his entire estate—real and personal—remaining after payment of debts and funeral and testamentary expenses.

MUSTARD.

My neighbor has mustard; and the neighbor next to him has it also. The water comes from these farms and runs on my farm, but could be easily taken down his side of the fence. About three years ago he plowed the field and made a furrow about six feet from the fence, and the water went by that furrow all right. He filled that furrow and never gave it another chance, but tries to run it in where it never came. The water came on my farm about five chains from the creek, and he has turned it on about eight chains from the creek now.

1. Must I take the water and mustard, or should he take the water and mustard?
2. Would the Engineer have anything to do with the case on account of the mustard? If he took the water that five chains it would then be at the creek.

Ans.—1. As between you, he ought to be the one to do so.
2. Not directly; but you could bring about the desired results by calling in the Engineer pursuant to the provisions of the Ditches and Watercourses Act.

FERTILIZING LAWN—INDIGESTION—LAMINITIS.

1. A friend of mine intended to water his lawns with the clear drainings from the barnyard. He keeps one horse and four cows. Would you please tell me if you think this is a wise plan, or is the material too strong?

2. I have a cow sick with indigestion. In the mornings she is always bloated and has no appetite. Would you please tell me the best thing to do for her?
3. Will you please tell me if you have heard of founder coming back on a horse at 25 years of age, and what is the best treatment for founder?

Ans.—1. The drainage from the barnyard is usually pretty well diluted with rain water, and if spread over the lawn in proper quantity should do no harm. It generally contains considerable plant food, and as a lawn, especially a newly-made one, must be rich in these materials, the barnyard seepage could be used to good advantage. It is scarcely likely that this material from so small an amount of manure as would be made by the number of stock mentioned would be strong enough to do any harm. Of course judgment must be used, and if the material appears to be too strong more water could be added or less of the material used.

2. Purge the cow with 2 lbs. Epsom salts and 1 ounce of ginger. Follow up with 2 drams each of nux vomica, gentian and ginger, and 1 dram of sulphate of iron three times daily. Feed lightly and often.

3. Founder or laminitis may appear in a horse at any age. It may be caused by concussion, excitement, over-exertion or indigestion. It is likely chronic, and it is doubtful whether you can effect a cure. Remove his shoes. Clip the hair off for about two inches high all around the hoof and blister with two drams each of benzoic acid, mercury and camphor, mixed with two ounces vaseline, and rub the blister well in. Tie so that it will not bite the parts. After 24 hours wash with the blister, and in 24 hours wash off and apply sweet oil. Keep him loose now and apply the sweet oil. This treatment may be repeated every month as long as the animal is in good rest. When commencing to move he will have his shoes with wide bars.
