Tullamore, March 7 .- Forster spoke to Tuilamore, March 7.—Forster spoke to a crowd here vesterday. He deplored the outrages in Ireland, and asked the people to help to stop them. He said, "God save Ireland from cruel, grasping landlords, tack rented tenants and midnight maraders." He also said the English people have no ill will towards Ireland. "We know you have been a badlygoverned country. The English Government of the bast did many cruel, unjust things to Ireland and allowed many to be done. We wish to undo that and make done. We wish to undo that and make you as prosperous, rich and powerful as ourselves." Forster said that suspects will be released as soon as the outrages cease. ### A Custom to be Abolished.

Parents complain of the exorbitant cost of supplying their children with books, says the Catholic Standard, and not a few of the persons who have attended Missions and been incited to great zeal and devotion, become disgusted when they find the vestibule of the church turned into a market place for speculating on their single. ket place for speculating on their pious desires to supply themselves with religious books, crucifixes and other articles of devotion. One of our clear-sighted Western Bishops, perceiving the injury thus done, not long ago prohibited this kind of specu-lation in his diocese, forbiding the sale of books in schools and Missions for the sake of making a pecuniary profit by them.

It was a wise and prudent measure, and if the custom were abolished everywhere the schools and the Missions would lose nothing by it in the end. end.

By advertisement it will be seen that Mr. Hanratty retires from the retail trade on Saturday, the 5th March, at 10 o'clock p.m. As we are satisfied that Mr. H. will give them dry goods at lower prices than can be had elsewhere. Price being no object the goods must be turned into cash at any sacrifice. This booming dry goods sale will only last Eight Days More. The many customers served this last four weeks at Hanratty's can testify to the immense sacrifice he is making to close out his stock. ### Ladie's and Children's Hosiery.

At the present time W. Green's stock of ladies' and children's hosiery is very complete, containing, as it does, all the leading style and novelties for the coming season. This establishment has always been noted for their complete and well-assorted stock in this department, and all will admit that it is the hesiery house of London. Mental that the state of the state it is the hosiery house of London. Mr. Green has also received a large stock of first choice Rouillon kid gloves in 3 4 and 6 buttons, while other houses haves abstituted an inferior article to take the place of this excellent glove. Mr. Green still keeps the first quality and selling them at the prices at which other stores sell the inferior ar ticle. His stock of real and imitation laces, embroideries, &c., is very complete and well worth an inspection. Intending purchasers of any of the above goods will save money
