Net gain during year, 2,200, the largest increase since the organization of the association. In submitting this annual statement I desire to congratulate the officers and members on the prosperous condition of the association in all respects. Since January 1st all other mutual co-operative associations doing business in this state have had an increased death rate, requiring at least 15 assessments to date, to pay their liabilities, while our death rate has materially decreased, requiring only 11 ties, while our death rate has ially decreased, requiring only 11 ments. This is largely due to the ent medical certificate, and the ientious care of our local and vising medical examiners to adsupervising medical examiners to admit none but those who are physically qualified. According to the annual report of the Superintendent of Insurance of this state, the C. M. B. A., is the best mutual benefit association in the United States, on account of the economical management of its business, and also on account of its just graded scale of assessments, members paying according to their age when admitted, etc. All that is necessary to make it the safest and cheapest co-operative life insurance assowhich will no doubt be created at next session of Supreme Council. Let us by united and harmonious efforts con-tinue the good work. time the good work, and be able to report a membership of at least 15,000 a year hence. All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Members of Branch No. 13, Stratford, at their last regular meeting, Wednesday evening last, had a pleasant surprise for their recording secretary, Mr. D. J. O'Connor, in the shape of a large silver water pitcher, tray and goblets, which they presented to him on the occasion of his marriage. The presentation was made in a few well-chosen words by Rev. Father McGee, and very feelingly responded to by the recipient. Mr. O'Connor has, since the organization of this Branch, been one of its most active and zealous members, devoting a very large portion of his time to the successful working of the branch. After the meeting Mr. O'Connor invited the members to his house where a few very pleasant hours were spent, after which they retired, having wished Mr. O'Connor and his amiable bride long life and prosperity.

The quarrel, which has lasted now seven hundred years, will last until the day of judgment unless it is settled in accordance with justice, and with the desires and rights of Iriahmen.

A nationalist convention for nominating candidates for Parliament from County Cork assembled at Cork to-day. Parnell, Dillon and John O'Connor and 500 delegates were present. An enthusiastic reception was given the party leaders. Owing to strong difference of opinion prevailing among the delegates respecting the claims of the various gentlemen mentioned, Parnell selected candidates for six of the divisions, leaving the convention to select se Correspondence of the Catholic Record.

FROM HAMILTON.

A large and influential meeting of Irishmen and others in sympathy with the cause of Ireland, assembled in Larkin Hall, Hamilton, on the evening of Monday, 5th inst., for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Irish National League.

Mr. John P. Sutton, of Quebec, who has been deputed to organize branches in Canada, delivered an address which met with an enthusiastic reception. Mr. C. Donovan occupied the chair. Mr. J. O'Nell acted as secretary. The chairman after a few preliminary remarks relative to the object of the meeting, introduced Mr. Sutton, who was greeted with applause. On the platform were Messra. Donovan, M. Malone, E. Williams and P. Harte.

The chairman in introducing the lecturer said the great principle about to be advocated would appeal to the sympathies of every patriotic Irishman—Ireland for the Irish.

Mr. Sutton was greated with an enthu-

the Iriah.

Mr. Sutton was greeted with an enthusiastic reception. He is a deliberate and fluent speaker, void of gesticulation or any strained effort. In our last issue we published a full report of his address.

The following resolutions were then carried unanimously and enthusiastically:

Moved by Martin Malone, seconded by E. Williams:

E. Williams:

Whereas, by an act passed in the British Parliament in the 23rd year of George III., it was solemnly declared by the British government that the claims of Ireland to sovereign legislative rights were, in the words of the act, "established and ascertained for ever, and shall at no time hereafter be questioned or questionable;

Therefore, be it resolved that me it is the same in the same

Therefore, be it resolved, that we, citizens of Hamilton, Irish, and of Irish descent, do protest that the legislative union of Great Britain and Ireland, never having received the sanction of the Irish people, is a gross breach of solemnly pledged faith, and contrary to justice; and that, therefore, we do heartily sympathise with the Irish people in their legitimate efforts to recover that legislative independence of which they have been unjustly deprived. prived.
Moved by P. Harte, seconded by George

Moved by P. Harte, seconded by George Mulligan:

Whereas, we entirely approve of the legitimate and constitutional policy pursued by the Irish people, under the leadership of Mr. Parnell, in their efforts to ameliorate their condition and recover their legislative rights; and whereas, the Irish National League of America is pledged to support that policy:

Be it resolved, that we, the Irishmen of Hamilton, do now form a branch of the Irish National League in this city, and that all Irishmen and friends of Ireland recardless of creed he invited to and that all Irishmen and friends of Ireland, regardless of creed, be invited to enroll themselves therein.

Moved by James O'Brien, seconded by Wm. McDonald:

Whereas, it is contrary to good government that the legislative representation of a country should be in the hands of one class of the people; and because the system of unpaid representatives directly leads to such a result, and is at the same time contrary to the principles governing this Dominion, and since there are no public funds in Ireland from which her representatives can be paid, there are no public funds in Ireland from which her representatives can be paid, and the people already burdened with heavy voluntary imposts, are unable to remunerate them as they deserve, and in order that the best and truest men of Ireland be secured as her representatives in parliament, be it resolved, that we, the Irishmen of Hamilton, do hereby pledge ourselves to contribute according to our means for the support of the parliamentary fund now inaugurated by the Irish National League of America.

Mr. E. Williams, in moving a vote of thanks to the lecturer, expressed himself in sympathy with the cause. It was seconded by Mr. A. P. Roach. A call was then made on those present to come for-seconded by Mr. A. P. Rosch. A call was then made on those present to come forward and contribute to the parliamentary fund, which was heartily responded to, the sum realized being $100. After a cordial and unanimous vote of thanks to the chairman the meeting adjourned until Friday evening next, to meet in the hall of the E. B. A., to organize a branch of the Irish National League.

Pursuant to adjournment another meeting was held on the evening named. There was a good attendance and the greatest of enthusiasm was manifested. The following officers were elected: President, Ex-Alderman C. Donovan; lst Vice-President, J. Byrne; 2nd do., D. McBride; 3rd do., M. Kennedy; J. O'Neil, Secretary; W. McDonald, Treasurer; Executive Committee, Michael Kennedy, Henry Arland, D. Mulcahy, John Ronan, John O'Hara, W. Lyons and Thomas Mullens. After the objects of the meeting were explained and extracts from the constitution read a call was made for the ment of members, when a rush was made for the Secretary's desk, a large number coutributing their fee, which was $1 each. Some few who were not present at the last meeting in Larkin Hall contributed toward the Parliamentary Fund as well. Pursuant to adjournment another meet

ST. ANN'S BAZAAR.

A most successful bezaar in aid of the funds of St. Ann's Parish closed on Friday evening, the 9th inst. During ten previous evenings the large hall of the Sistems' school, McCord street, was crowded to the utmost, and the different departments were always well patronized. Five large tables, on which were many costly and useful articles, were presided over by the following ladies: let, Misses Quinlam and Gareau; Lottery, Mrs. Rodgers; 3rd, Mrs. Leaby and Drew; Children of Mary, Miss Brennan; 5th, Mrs. Brennan; Mrs. Brennan had also charge of the Refreshment table and was ably assisted by Mrs. R. McShane, Misses Mary Donovan and Dobeny. On Mrs. Brennan's table a beautiful picture of Bishop O'Farrell, of Trenton, N.J., the gitt of Mr. James Sadlier, deserves special mention.

A magnificent hand-painted banner was competed for by St. Ann's Temperance, St. Ann's Young Men, and the Irish Catholic Beneft Societies. It was won by St. Ann's Young Men, they having emisted the assistance of a number of charming young ladies whose appeals could not be resisted. Over three hundred dollars was realized by this competition.

Each evening the proceedings were enlivened by different tableaux, "The Maid of Erin," "Busy Bee," etc., which were admired by all who had the pleasure of witnessing them. The Rev. Redempterist Fathers have reason to feel proud of the success of the bazaar, as it is an evidence that the parishioners of St. Ann's are more than pleased with their efforts. Since their advent to St. Ann's they have established the society of the Holy Family which is doing a vast amount of good in the parish. On each Sunday of the month one of the four sections of which it is composed receive Holy Communion in a body and have also a religious meeting in the afternoon. A mission is now being preached and the church is filled at all of the exercises.

THE FUNERAL RITES PERFORMED OVER

New York, Oct. 15.—The funeral of Cardinal McCloskey took place this morning. The doors of the Cathedral were opened at 8.43, and the waiting throng invited to enter. As the hour for beginning the service was reached the crush without the Cathedral became greater. The streets for several squares in every direction were blocked with carriages and masses of people. The dead body of the Cardinal had, during the night, been placed in a mahogany coffin. Ravy drapery of purple velvet, bordered with bullion fringe, hung about the coffin. hods of gold, extending the entire length of the coffin, ornamented its sides. A polden crozier, the symbol of a Bishop's suthority, rested by the side of the Cardinal. The body had been placed so that the head was raised above the level of subority, rested by the side of the Cardial. The body had been placed so that the head was raised above the level of the coffin, and was easily seen from below. Ihity wax candles threw a soft mellow light over the bier. 5,000 persons were gathered within the walls of the cathedral aftere ten o'clock. While the throng was waiting the opening of the solemn maniem services the Papal Zouaves manched down the centre aisle and took to positions about the catafalque. A mement later the doors of the sacristy was flung open and a long procession of the robed priests and acolytes filed down the steps to the seats directly in front of high altar. The priests chanted
