"Whatsoever thou takest in hand, remember the end." Remember the great end of all things, remember death and judgment; remember eternity; remember that what you now do will make a difference to you for ever. Have these been your sayings to yourself to-day, or yesterday, or the day before that? Have you ever made it a rule to have such thoughts?—Vible.

The golden jubilee of the anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. B. F. Brown, rector of the Church of the Holy Cross, Sanford, Fla., was recently appropriately celebrated by religious observances. At a reception which was given by the women of the congregation the men of the congregation presented Mr. Brown with a purse of gold, and the Bishop and other members of the Cathedral staff gave him a handsome pectoral cross, suitably inscribed. Mr. Brown was for over nine years in the Methodist ministry, but on Trinity Sunday, 1860, he was ordained to the diaconate in Grace Church, Baltimore, by the Bishop of Maryland. In the past 24 years he has been in Florida, and for many years during that period he was Archdeacon of the East Coast.

The corner-stone of the new St. Thomas' Church, which is to cost, when completed, $3,000,000, and which is to be the most costly church for its size ever built in the United States, was duly laid on the afternoon of Tuesday, Nov. 21st, by the Bishop of New York. The Bishop-Suffragan and the Rev. Dr. Stires, the rector of the parish, were present, and assisted at the service.

The daughter of the Dean of St. Paul's was baptized in the afternoon of St. Andrew's Day at St. Paul's Cathedral. Canon Newbolt officiated, and the names given to the child were Margaret Paula—Margaret because her father was Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity at Cambridge and Paula because of his connection with the Cathedral.
