BRITISH CABINET

And Considered the New Situation in Crete

The British Premier Sent Out a Lot of Which are Not Known Sir William Vernon Harcourt Asked Questions But Got No Satisfaction Greece Continues War Preparations Vigorously-Italian Warship Fired on Christians-Suspense in All Countries.

London, March. 9.-An extra meeting of the Cabinet to consider the new Cretan situation arising from Greece's practical refusal to accede to the demands of the powers was held this evening in one of the private rooms of the House of Commons. After the meeting Prime Minister Salisbury went to the Foreign Office, where he was visited by Count Deym, the Austrian Ambassador. Later Lord Salisbury sent telegraphic messages to the other capitals and to Admiral Sir Michael Culme-Seymour. / commander-in-chief of the British Mediterranean squadron.

As the House of Commons was on the point of adjourning this evening. Sir William Vernon Harcourt, the leader of the Liberal party, arose, and while disavowing any desire to embarrass the Government in the negotiations necessarily arising from Greece's reply, he said he desired an assurance that the British forces should not be employed against Greece before Par-Eament was given a chance to express its judgment on the matter. Sir William said he believed that a situation had arisen in which an amicable settlement of the question was possible. He was confident that the Government would do its best to be surely such a gettlement. He did not base his request on constitutional rights hust on a quest on constitutional right, but on a policy of the highest description, really involving the issues of peace or war.

Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, the Government leader, in reply to Sir William, said the course demanded by the Opposition was extremely inexpedient and absolutely course. position was extremely inexpedient and absolutely contrary to precedent. The Government, he added, could not be guided by the practice of France, to which Sir William had referred. He recalled the bombardment of Alexandria in 1882, and the blockade of Greece in 1886, when Sir William was a member of the Government. He tould not believe that any stronger action, and heped that nothing as strong. tion, and hoped that nothing as strong was now likely, but in neither case to which he referred had any notice been given to Parliament beforehand. The Government was most anxiously desirous of an amicable settlement.

The latest despatches from Athens say that the lever of excit ment is abiling and the city is becoming quiet-er. The Greek Government have reato believe that the moderate tone son to believe that the modera's tone of Greece's note to the powers will be approved by the Governments at Paris, and London and oblige the powers to pause. Germany and Russia, in the epinion of the Greek Government, will not act alone and a halt on the part of the powers is believed to be assured. Another despatch from Athens says that every—available—steamship in Greek waters has been chartered for the purpose of conveying war material. the purpose of conveying war material to Thessaly. The reserves, who have been summoned to arms, by the Government, are arriving by thousands amid the cheers of the populace and are being hurried to the front.

> Ordered to Leave. Canea, March 9 .- Admiral Canevaro, Canea, March B.—Admiral Canevaro, commanding the united fleet of the powers has notified the Greeks here, including the Greek Vice-Consul, that they must leave the island at once. It is reported that the siege of Kandamos has been raised, and that the Mussulmans who were beleaguered there, have moved to places of safety. The have moved to places of safety. The insurgents made an attack up n the Turkish position at Akroti yesterday, but were stoutly resisted by the Turks and finally repulsed. The insurgents were reinforced during the night, and renewed their attack upon the place to day.

Canea, March 9.—Advices from Hirapetra, on the south coast of the Island of Crete, say that Mussulmans in possession of that town were summoned to surrender by the Christian insurgents, who were investing the town, and that the Mussulmans rfused to do so. The insurgents then fired a volley into the fort, which was held by the Moslems, whereupon an Italian cruiser lying off the town fired upon the insurgents, compelling them to retire. These of companies had on Dec. of the considerable amount of $321,730,-11 in force, an increase of $8,472,930 over the amount of insurance in force at the close of 1806. The pre-miums of the year totaled $10,09,006 an lacreage of $304,722 over the business of the previous year. Of the total, no less than $6,075,995 was taken in by Canadian companies, which is about 60 per cent. Claims were paid during the year to the amount of $4,706,157, an increase of $956,114. Canadian companie alone paid out $2.128,561. There are now loc,148 life insurance policies in force in Canadian companies, out of a total of 261,259 policies in force throughout the Dominion in various companies.

Besides the line companies' business. a large amount of insurance is held in the various societies doing insurance on the assessment plan. The members on the assessment plan. The members of these societies paid assessments last year to the amount of $1,641,686, and the societies paid out $1,154,392 in claims. The net amount of insurance in force in the several societies is $132,890,399. Of this sum $61,603,000 is held in the LO.F., which received $624,497 last year in assessments, and paid out $440,020 in claims; and $17,050,500 in the C. M.B.A., which received $187,965 in assessments and paid out $168,150 in sessments and paid out $168,150 in claims.

President Whitney of the Dominion Coal Company, is here anxiously watching fariff matters. It is significant that he should be in town when tariff revision is under consideration. tariff revision is under consideration, as it was in council to day. Mr. Whitnew and his colleagues are anxious as to the probable decision of the Government in respect to the duties now imposed by Canada upon imports of piposed by Canada upon imports of piposed. posed by Canada upon imports of htuminous coals. In view of the United States, and the cheapness of the soft coal products of that country, a relaxation of the present Canadian duty of 60 cents per ton, it is said, would strike a serious blow at the Nova Scotia coal industry. It is learned that the great railway corporations are strongly urging a further reduction in the Canadian duty on bituminous Hon. L. H. Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was interviewed by your correspondent to-night in regard to the order-in-Council bringing into force on the lakes the "international rules of the road at sea," agreed to by the maritime powers. The Minister said that the explanation of the apparent anomaly to which attention was drawn yesterday, was simply this: That according to statute it was imperative that the maritime regulations brought into force as regards Canadran waters should be made to apply to "all" the waters of Canada, to inland navigable waters as well as to territorial waters accessible to seagoing vessels. Thus the Imperial Government, having requested the promulgation in Canada of the international rules of the road at sea, the Dominion was bound to make their application ceneral to all our territorial waters. According to this the matter of a uniform system on the great makes is a matter for subsequent arrangement. matter for subsequent arrangement.

As more than four-fifths of the lake shipping is benned in the United States, vessels of the latter flag carrying fully fifty per cent. even of the internations fifty per cent. even of the international freight traffic, it is easily apparent that Canadian vessel masters will be bound for the sake of safety to conform to the American code. In the face of these facts, how silly appears the proposition put forward in the semi-official press that if the American whitemeaters do not conform to these semi-official press that if the American shipmasters do not conform to these rules "the dangers and difficulties consequent upon the existence of different rules of the road will be their fault and not ours." It is well known that the American Inland Marine Associations have steadfastly maintained that the code of sea signals is altogether inapplicable to lake navigation.

It was agreed that Mr. Champagne should be the Liberal candidate, but it is not announced what promises Major received. Mr. Laurier will speak at a meeting in Hull in favor of Mr. Champagne. As a consequence of to-dav's conference the Liberals will not hold a convention. It is not yet settled who the Conservative candidate will be, except that the strongest of several good men, including Messrs. J. M. A FEARFUL EXPERIENCE. Two Men Out of Three Blown to Sea on an Ice Floe Perished-The One Saved Was in an Awful State.

Halifax, N. S., March 9,-Arsen Turbide, sistant keeper of Bird Rock came here this afternoon, and he reports that on Priday afternoon he and his two assistants, Damien Cormier, aged 64, and Charlie Turbide, aged 17, left the Rock to capture some seals that were within 100 yards of the shore ice. The wind was moderate from the northwest. After they got on the ice it began running and the wind increased. It was impossible for them to get back and they drifted in a southeasterly direction. From trying so hard to regain the Rock they fell in the water several times and got their clothes all wet. Charlie Turbide perished about 2 o'clock. Saturday morning, and Cormier perished a little after daylight. He (Turbide) left them on the ice under the upturned flat, and with a heavy heart tried to make land, which he could see. After walking by day, and trying to keep himself from freezing by night, he landed at Low Land Cave, about eight miles west of here, last night, and was taken care of by people who found him and brought him to the telegraph office to-day. His feet are badly frozen, and he is suffering with snow-blindness. He says ture some seals that were within 100 yards suffering with snow-blindness. For ten years I suffered untold agonies from that dread disease Eczema, my lower limbs most of the time being so swollen and broken out that I could hardly go about. I had to wear slippers so that I could move about at all. My ther, a physician of thirty years' practice brother, a physician of thirty years practice and extensive experience, had tried in vain to effect a cure and signally failed. I tried other physicians of spiendid ability with like results, and had reached that point where I became absolutely disheartened, and in fact had lost all hope, when a friend (after long and continued persuasion) succeeded in inducing me to at least give CUTICURA RENE-DISS a trial. I shall never regret that I did so, and until my dying day I shall sing the praises of them. I used two cakes of CUTICURA (ointment), and it resulted in an absolute and permanent cure.
