THE LAST FAREWELL

(Lines suggested by the picture accompanying the Christmas number of the Toronto Globe.)

There are many graves in Africa,
But our heart goes out to one.
Where they laid the dead of our land
When Paardeberg's fight was done; O! the wire-flashed news from Brittain.

How it thrilled us with the cost Of all that this grave in Africa
Had for us won and lost.

Won for the Land of the Maple
The victor's laurel crown.
Won for Queen and empire
Now prestige and renown:

Won for us all a story
To nerve each steady hand.
Should the distant years bring battle
To our own dear cherished land.

Lost to us glad home comings
Of the brave lads gone so far,
To fight our England's battles
'Neath Africa's southern star:

Lost to some homes a brother—
A son—or perhaps a lover—God pity them all! In this grave so small

Lies buried each hope forever.
Hats off to the heroes fallen.
The pride of our northern race;
They died with the right foot forward

And the foeman face to face;
And now in one grave together
They sleep till the war is past And Canadians over the water Shall bring them home at last.

Hats off to the boys surviving
A health to one and all;
Blood of our blood, they nobly stood Each at his country's call:

And the years shall roll on the story
Till history's page is done,
The story of Paardeberg's battle
And the way the field was won.

J. F. Delaney.

She Fleant Well

Last summer a woman shipped her husband's remains and a dog over a Dominion RAILWAY. At a station she appeared at the door of the baggage car to see how they were getting along.

How does he seem to be doing? she asked with a sniff.

Who, the corpse? inquired the baggage master kindly.

No, the dog.

Oh, he's comfortable, replied the baggage man.

Anybody been sitting down on him?

Who, the dog?

No, the corpse.

Certainly not, answered the baggage man.

Does it seem cool enough in there for him?

For who, the corpse?

No, the dog.

I think so, grinned the baggage master.

Does the jolting appear to affect him any?

Affect who, the dog.

No, the corpse.

I don't believe it does.

You'll keep an eye on him won't you? she asked wiping a tear away.

No, the dog.

And having secured the baggage man's promise, she went back to her coach, apparently contented.

Catarrhazone An Efficient Asthma Remedy

Inverkip, Ont.—"Catarrhazone is certainly a very efficient remedy for Asthma. I have derived great relief from its use. A neighbor also, to whom I gave a trial has been benefited to a similar extent." Mrs. Ed.
Callan.

No greater boon has been extended to sufferers from Asthma. Catarrhazone is as certain to cure as anything in this world can be certain. Its effect is immediate and its prolonged use results in a radical cure. Several hundred testimonials from sufferers of this malady, enables us to make this strong claim. A trial will certify this.

Sold by all druggists or sent postpaid to any address in Canada or United States on receipt of $1.00. N. C. Pol-

La Grippe Victims

ARE LEFT WEAK, SUFFERING AND DESPONDENT

A Nova Scotian Who Was Attacked Almost Gave Up Hope of Recovery—His Experience of Value to Others.

From the Enterprise, Bridgewater, N.S.

Mr. C. E. Johnson is about 28 years old, a gold miner by occupation, is well known about the mining camps in these parts and is thoroughly possessed in his business. Not long since Mr. Johnson chanced to be in Porter's drug store, in Bridgewater, when a case of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills was being opened, and he remarked to the clerk: I saw the name when a dozen boxes of those pills were of more value to me than the best gold mine in the country. A reporter of the Enterprise happened to hear Mr.
Johnson's rather startling remark and asked him why he spoke so highly of the pills. Mr. Johnson's statement was as follows: About four years ago I was attacked with la grippe which kept me from work about three weeks. I did not have it very hard apparently, but it left me weak all the same. And now, after losing three weeks I concluded to go to work again. The same time I was working in was making a good deal of water and I got wet the first day.
That night the old trouble came back, with the addition of a severe cold.
I managed to get rid of the cold, but the whole force of the disease settled in my stomach, kidneys and joints, and boils broke out on my body and limbs. My back was so weak I could scarcely stand alone, while food in every form distressed me, and I became so nervous that any unusual noise would overcome me. I tried several sorts of medicines, but none seemed to do any good. I next went to a doctor. His medicine helped me at first, but after a short time lost its effect. He then changed the medicine, but with no better result. About this time a clergyman who called at the house advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got a box and used them, but they did not materially benefit me. I had not been some weeks idle and was feeling desperate.
A friend strongly advised me to go to a hospital for treatment, and I had just about decided to do so when an acquaintance, learning I had taken but one box of the pills suggested that I should try three boxes more before giving them up. The matter of money decided me on trying the pills again.
I got three boxes and when used I was quite a bit improved. Could eat light nutritious food, slept better, and felt noticeably stronger. But I was still an unwell man. As the pills were doing a good work, however, I sent for eight more boxes. I continued using them till all were gone.
When I felt that I was restored to health. All my stomach trouble had disappeared, I was fully as fleshy as before the first attack of la grippe, my nerves were solid as ever, and I knew that work would give strength to my muscles. So after about six months, I went to work again and have not had a sick day since. One dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life and gave me better health since than I had before, and that is why I said they were worth more to me than any gold mine, for all that a man has he will give for his life.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease.
They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. If your dealer does not keep them, they will be sent post paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Last year at this season there were twelve or fifteen Prince Edward Island schooners laid up at Halifax with cargoes of potatoes to be opened up in the spring. This year there are only three or four such vessels, so that when the demand comes in the spring there is likely to be a shortage and the chances are that prices will then be higher. In the meantime potatoes are unchanged and nominal. The last figures mentioned were 23 and 30c for P. E. Island stock and 35 and 40c for Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

THE BOYS WE NEED

Here's to the boy who's not afraid
To do his share of work;
Who never is by tail dismayed,
And never tries to shirk.

The boy whose heart is brave to meet All lions in the way;
Who's not discouraged by defeat,
But tries another day.

The boy who always means to do
The very best he can;
Who always keeps the right in view,
And aims to be a man.

Such boys as those will grow to be The men whose hands will guide The future of our land; and we Shall speak their names with pride.

All honor to the boy who is A man at heart, I say;
Whose legend on his shield is this:
"Right always wins the day."
