The ladies of the Baptist congregation at Up. Canard gave a very enjoyable Gauden Party on Friday, July 5th, at Mr. Edward Eaton's. The Canning band was in attendance and rendered pleasing music at intervals through the evening. Tea was served in the dining room from 5.30 to 8.30 and ice cream, confectionery of all kinds, fruit and iced drinks were obtainable from booths prettily arranged in corners of the lawn. As it grew dark Japanese lanterns were lighted all over the grounds and they, together with the lights from the house and veranda, gave a very pretty effect. The funds obtained are to be used in helping to pay the debt incurred by remodeling the church.
