

LONDON, Feb. 7.—At a great meeting at Birmingham, yesterday, John Bright made a speech. He pleaded the wrongs of Ireland in part extenuation of the late Fenian outrages, and begged for Church and Legislative reform. Mr. Bright said that there was nothing that the United States Government could do, if Ireland were a part and parcel of the United States, that England might not do also, if she would.

The strike of the Liverpool cabmen still continues, to the great inconvenience of the inhabitants of that city. The Pope having ordered the TE DEUM to be sung in all the Churches throughout Italy, in celebration of the papal victory at Montana, King Victor Emmanuel has prohibited the holding of any such services.

The King of Prussia has warmly welcomed the first Italian minister to the North German Confederation.

LONDON, Feb. 5th.—A man named Chatterton was shot in the streets to-day, and badly, if not fatally, wounded. The assassin was instantly arrested, and gave his name as Jen Meddles. From his declarations it seems that he mistook Chatterton for James Bird, who is an important witness for the Government, in the affair of the Clerkenwell Explosion, and who at the examination of the prisoners before the Police Court identified one of them as the man that fired the powder. It is said that Meddles is a hilt-witted fellow, and the belief is general that he is the tool of other parties who prompted him to the deed. The pistol shot took effect in the throat of Chatterton, where it made a very ugly wound. He still lives, but his recovery is doubtful.

CORK, Feb. 5.—Early this morning a considerable body of men, supposed to be Fenians, were discovered in the vicinity of Macroom Castle, about twenty miles west of this city. They appeared to be preparing to make an attack upon the Castle and the authorities of the town of Macroom were notified of the danger, and a strong force of police were forthwith ordered to the ground, and as soon as they appeared the Fenians dispersed in every direction.

We are credibly informed that quite a sufficiency of cash has been received for the relief of the poor fishermen—very large sums having been forwarded from Canada and other places.

NED NEVINS

The News-Boy, OR— STREET LIFE IN BOSTON. IS the title of a Book published in Boston by the Rev. Henry Morgan. It is a book of thrilling interest—highly descriptive of high life and low life in the city. It is not a romance, but a story of real life, and cannot fail to win the sympathy of the reader. In fact the author is an enthusiast in his self-imposed task of Christian reformer. It is a book that all may read with profit. Never since the days of the "Lamp Lighter," or of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has a book awakened such universal demands from all classes. In the language of the Boston Press—the old are delighted, the young completely carried away with the virtues, trials, sufferings, escapes and triumphs of the young hero. The book has 418 pages, is handsomely bound in cloth. Price $1.25. Send 5 cent Stamp for descriptive Circular. Address J. A. SOLEY, Truro, Conveyancing and General Agent for N. S. Feb 8

PIANOS! PIANOS!

M. R. E. C. SAFFERY, professor of Music, offers his services professionally, in the purchase and selection of new and second-hand Instruments. There is so great a difference even in New Pianos, in point of tone and touch, that parties would be consulting their own interest in availing themselves of his professional experience remembering, that without due discrimination and judgment, you often pay more for a worthless instrument than a superior one would amount to, verifying the old adage, "That you have paid too dear for your whistle"; therefore the fee of $4.00 is absolutely money saved. Communications post paid directed Mr. Saffery, Dartmouth, Halifax, will be attended to. nov 30 3m
