ORPHAN'S HOME

The Toronto papers give a detailed account of the opening of the Foresters' Home for Children, on the Bay of Quinte. The affair was an elaborate and happy one and prominent Foresters were present from all over Ontario. Among the published list of guests, are the names of R. A. Harrington, P. H. C. R. and Geo. Wands, D. S. C. R. of this city, who were present at the opening and took part in the proceedings.

An address was presented to Dr. Oronhyatekia, the Supreme Chief Ranger of the order, through whose efforts the home was built, and speeches were made by Hon. E. G. Stevenson, Rev. Prof. Clark, Hon. J. Haggart, Hon. J. M. Gibson, Hon. J. R. Stratton, Hon. Dr. Montague and several others.

HONEST STUDENT

J. W. Plewes, principal of the Central school, to-day came across a wonderful case of honesty in a letter he received from a young scholar of Dover.

The student—it is not known whether it is a boy or a girl for the letter was unsigned—tried on the Public School Leaving examinations, which were held at the Central school, and when going home unintentionally took a pen which belonged to some one else. In the letter to Mr. Plewes was a five-cent piece, with an explanation of how the pen was taken. The student had noticed the mistake upon arriving home and had afterwards lost the pen, so the five cents was sent to make up the value of the pen.

This is one of the strongest cases of honesty that has come under my notice," said Mr. Plewes, "and I am sorry that the letter was not signed, for I would like to know this honest pupil."

RETURNS HOME

Fred C. Trudell, of the firm of The Two T's, has returned from a three weeks' business trip to New York. Mr. Trudell went first to Hamilton, where he was for two days making purchases. He then proceeded to New York, where he spent ten days looking over the latest styles and buying some nobby hats and furnishings, fancy shirts, neckwear, etc. He also visited Coney Island. On the return he met Mrs. Trudell in Toronto, and they went on a trip by boat to Montreal and Quebec. They reached there Friday evening. The trip to Montreal was a pleasant one excepting the rough weather on the way there. In speaking of his trip, Mr. Trudell said this morning:—

"I had a splendid time and I feel perfectly satisfied with my purchases. I had such a successful trip this time that I intend to take it every spring and fall. I saw styles in New York that I would never see had I not gone there to see them. We will have hats this year that are identically the same as those being sold on Brockway. In overcoats and suits I got some samples of the latest styles made by Steinblock and Company, of New York, who are recognized as the most up-to-date clothing manufacturers in the United States. I brought them to Hamilton and I am getting them copied by a firm there so that we will have them for sale, and all Canadian made. The price will not be much more than the Canadian styles and the suits will be much nicer."

"What do you think of New York?" Mr. Trudell was asked.
"New York is a wonderful city," replied he, "and everyone should see it. Coney Island is great and Dreamland in it is well named for it is simply a dream at night. The electrical display has got the Buffalo Exposition beaten to death. They claim that there are more electric lights between Dreamland and Loney Park than in the whole city of New York. It is simply one mass of light. I enjoyed every minute that I was away, and I am looking forward to the next trip."

TO KIDNAP PRIEST

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 28.—The priest of St. Nicholas's Croatian Church, Allegheny, is barricaded in his house under the belief that an attempt to kidnap him will be made. The situation is the culmination of several months of trouble in the church. A majority of the congregation, it seems, accuse the priest of mismanagement of the church's finances and demand his removal. Bishop Phelan refused to accede to the demand and ordered the church closed. No services have been held for eight weeks, and to-day, after concerted action, nearly 500 members of the congregation, headed by a brass band, formed in procession, intending to call on the bishop. The bishop, it is reported, received word of the visit and notified the police, with the result that twenty-five officers met the procession at the Pittsburg end of the bridge and turned the marchers back because no permission to parade in Pittsburg had been secured. The disappointed Croats returned to Allegheny and held an indignation meeting.

The priest received word after the meeting, through some source, that a resolution has been passed to get rid of him by force.

Those at the meeting said such a resolution was offered but failed to carry.
