will reduce somewhat the balance of deby on the new church. NEW YEAR'S DAX.—On the evening of this day the Methodists of the village will make their usual banquet spread in the Temperance hall adjoining the church. No new departure in way of programme will take place. Ministers of different denom-inations in the neighborhood are an nounced on the posters. Besides these the Bev. Smythe of Harriston is expected to be present. The church choir have added to their numbers for the occasion, and the Reveral solos. Those wishing to spend a pleasant and profitable time ought to drop in and spend the evening. ACCUENTS.—Two of the residents of the result of the election. WEDDING BELLS.—A very pleasant event occurred here on Wednesday, 23rd inst., in the marriage of Miss Dolly, youngest daughter of the late Charges Schaumberg, to Mr. Simon Gingerech, of Michigan, formerly of Waterloo. While we regree their departure at an early date to Michi-gan, their many friends in Puslinch and Waterloo join in sincerely wishing the young couple every joy and happiness in their new home. Accurexrs.-Two of the residents of Marybero' have been placed hors de combat through the fractiousness of their respective horses. Very recently John beimage, a young man of the village, was driving in a cutter. The beast seemed to see treacherous and dangerous enemies in every innocent stump and woodpile along the highway, and superstitionally avoided them. He finally gaves os sudden a curve towards the ditch that the occupant was thrown mercileesly out, but, notwith-standing his awkward position, the young man held tenacionally to the reins and non brought the animal to subjection. He did not realize the nature of his injury until be reached home, and the reaction followed the ercitement of the moment. The physicion, Dr. Dow, upon examin-ation, found that the form of the thigh was unfortunately seriously trampled by them. Several ribs were broken and one ear mangled. This is as and mahap to the old gentleman. Xans Eve.-A sparkling entertainment was given on that evesing in the Tem.

Law the old Adage, which declares it number of events of the old Adage, which declares it number to swap horase while crossing a stream.... In Nichol, Reeve Wisaler and Deputy Reeve Cumingham were re-elected by acclamation. A vacan-oy having been caused in the list of coun-cillors by the retirement of Mr. Clark, who for some years has been a municipal representative of the people, nominations were made which will necessitate a con-test. The following gentlemen are in the ided, two of them being old conneillors:--Mesars. James Alken, John Cordiner,Jas. Lindsay, John Falconer and Wm. Allar dice....In Filkington, Mr. Chas. Nicklin was re-elected deputy reeve without op-position, and the old conneillors, Mesars. Wm. Waddick, Joseph French and Wm. Thacker, were re-elected. For the reeve-ship Mr. Thos Marshall, present reeve, and Mr. Vm. Gordon, ext-reeve, were nomin-ated. In the opinion of probabity a large majority of the electors, there was no ap-parent necessity for a change, and their friends had discussed the matter in a risendly spirit, Mr. Gordon determined to rotiro. Mr. Marshall is therefore re-elect-ed as reeve for Filkington. Townsum or Nicito.- The detailed financial statement of the township of Nichol shows that the receipts for 1991

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT.-On the morn-ing of Thursday last, Christmas Eve, Mr. Jas. Cowie of Nichol, felt some pain and n a short time was a corpse. Deceased had for years suffered from the effects of rheumatism and a consequent weakness of the heart. It was to an attack of this character that he succumbed so speedly and unexpectedly. Mr. Cowie was a mative of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, as were so many of the early settlers of Nichol, and came to this section when he was fourteen years of age. From his boyhood he was noted been the proprietor of one of thefinest and been the proprietor of one of thefinest and best cultivated estates in the county. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and cor-nected with Chalmers church, Elora. In Reformer, and could always be depended upon to cast his yote in behalf of the party with which he had been as long identified. He did not takethat active part in public fains for which he was so well qualified, but was devoted to agricultural pursuits and in the chirdly of his home and the general appearance of his farm showed how much can be done in this forning as a neighbor and friend was evinced by intelligent and ploding in-dustry.
