FOR DYSEPISIA,
Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
Is an effective remedy, as numerous testimonials conclusively prove. "For two years
I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and liver complaint. I doctored a long time and the medicine prescribed did not benefit me, only aggravated the disease.
An apothecary advised me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and was cured at a cost of 65 cents. Since that time it has been my family medicine, and sickness has become a stranger to our household. I believe it to be the best medicine on earth."
—P. McVinty, Hackman, 29 Sumner st., Lowell, Mass.

FOR DEBILITY,
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Is a certain cure, when the complaint originates in impoverished blood. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally so reduced that I was unable to work. Notwithstanding that I did for the complaint helped me
so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength.
I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases."—C. Erick, 14 E.

General News.

SIR JOHN IS DEAD
He died, as dies a monarch, in dominions of his own;
He died, as dies a peasant, men's opinions were his throne;
He died, as dies a statesman, wrapt in fame, immortal abroad;
He died, as dies a genius, of which the world is proud.
He died, as died the heroes—like a Nelson
on the deck;
He died, as dies a soldier—like a Wolfe
before Quebec;
He died, and died victorious, he fought
his last campaign;
He died, as dies a Premier, his hand
yet held the rein;
He died, as dies a chieftain, a leader and a man;
He died, as dies chivalry—in armor in the van;
He died, as dies contentment,—not possessing wealth or gold;
He died, as dies a shepherd, in the shelter of his fold.
He died, as dies a patriot, a great Canadian son;
He died, but never, on his country's honor lost;
He died, but never, on his country's
hope and years;
He died, as dies a husband, midst the love that he voted by tears;
He died, as dies the dutiful, father and the friend;
He died, as dies the beautiful, more lovely near his end; He died, as dies the morning, when the sunlight greets the sun;
He died, as dies the sunlight, when the twilight hour is come;
He died, as dies the twilight, when the night sleeps on the west;
He died, as dies the fragrance of the blossoms on the breeze.

monials conclusively prove. "For two years
I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia
and liver complaint. I doctored a long time and the medicine prescribed did not
benefit me, only aggravated the disease.
An apothecary advised me to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and was cured at a cost of 65 cents. Since that time it has been my family medicine, and sickness has become a stranger to our household. I believe it to be the best medicine on earth."

FOR DEBILITY,
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Is a certain cure, when the complaint originates in impoverished blood. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, becoming finally
so reduced that I was unable to work. Notwithstanding that I did for the complaint helped me
so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles
of which restored me to health and strength.
I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases."—C. Erick, 14 E.
Main st., Chillsisic, Ohio.

FOR ERUPTIONS

the blood, such as boils, eruptions, pimples, blotches, salt-rheum, scald-head, scrofulous
