

The Socialists.

Mr. Cameron, who nominated the So-sialist candidate, declared that the So-cialist party went into the fight expect-ing defeat, but every defeat, he declar-ed, was only an incentive to greater things, and no discouragement to social-

Mr. Armstrong, the candidate, made Mr. Armstrong, the candidate, made a bitter attack on capitalism, and appealed for an overthrow of the wage system. Regarding the Hydro-Power proposition Socialists, he said, favored municipal ownership, but not in this way, for the rich would get the benefit of the cheaper power, and the whole public had to pay for it:

COL. HENDRIE SPEAKS.

Col. HENDRIE SPEARS. Col. Hendrie began speaking at ten minutes past 1 o'clock, and was given a fair reception. It gave him the greatest pleasure, he said, to appear before the electors and ask for the support of the Government, which had fulfilled its pledges. In the kindliest way he wished to re-In the kindhest way he wished to re-fer to a statement made by his opponent, who started out by asking that there be no personalities. Some statements were made on a platform here, however, said the colonel, which he could not over-

One of these was the statement Mr. Wradrope made that the Whitney Gov-ernment had done nothing for primary education. He declared Whitney had in-creased the grants for the benefit of the common schools over $329,000, compared with the expenditure made by the Ross Government.

ol. Hendrie attempted a defence of Col. Hendrie attempted a defence of the Normal College steal by saying that a non-partisan commission had reported in favor of centralization. The whole Normal School, he said, consisted of one principal, and they borrowed teachers from the schools, to the detriment of the public schools, to educate teachers. He referred to the new Normal School heing built in West Hamilton, at a cost of $00,000, and three times the amount of money would be spent in maintaining money would be spent in maintaining as compared with the college in East milton

Regarding the dismissal of officials, said: "Sir Oliver Mowat said that carry out the license law you must ve officials in sympathy with the overnment. We found few in sympa-y. In many cases license inspectors

NOT IMPOSTERS. One day last week an item appeared in the city papers to the effect that two Nisters of Charity were not collecting for any purpose of the Catholic Church in this city. The two sisters called at the Times this morning and showed their credentials, a letter from Bishop Sal-ford, of Manchester. England, endorsed by Archbishop Farley and several bishops of the United States. They came bishops of the United States. They came to this country to raise funds for a hos-pital for working girls, in Manchester, but, not getting the sanction of Bishop Dowling, did not canvass in Hamilton or vicinity. They are guests of a personal friend. Miss Sullivan, 279 King street east, and have received subscriptions to their fund, unsolicited, from a few friends. They do not desire to raise mency here in opposition to the wishes of the bishop, but they feel that Ham-flton people should know that they are working in a worthy cause and are not imposters.

MUKE SMALLPOX. The health authorities have another case of smallpox and a suspected case on their hands. Five or six days ago a young woman employed as a do-mestic took sick and, after being close-by observed several days was removed to the Isolation hospital on Saturday morning. That day a rash appeared on a young lady who had been in the same place, and this morning she was also taken to the Isolation camp, al-though her own physician does not consider it smallpox.
