MILITARY MATTERS

SUBMARINE CHASERS

A great many suggestions have been made for overcoming the German submarine. A number of these have been put to use with the result that the war zone declared last February by Germany and extending about England, has been kept pretty free of the German pests. It is a long time now since any report of a German submarine attack in that zone. The tables have been reversed and the submarines have been driven out, sunk or captured, and one of the most effective means used has been the high speed motor boat equipped with small bore canon. England uses them by the hundred. One of the fastest and best types of speedy motor boats is the sea sled invented by a Canadian in Nova Scotia. It is built to glide over the surface instead of plowing through the water. From the side or front it has somewhat the look of a huge sled or "cheese-box." Its sides are perfectly straight, vertical. There is a large substantially V shaped channel extending from front to rear, the deepest and widest part being at the front and the shallowest and narrowest part being a little short of the stern. In fact, it looks very much as though the inventor had taken a large skiff, cut it in half lengthwise, folded it inside out along the line of cut so that the two runways would touch and had then boarded over the top to make a flat deck and boarded the open sides vertically, leaving the V at the bow. The water and air rushing into the V as the boat is driven ahead lift it and, at the same time, steady it, the harder it is driven, the more it is lifted out of the water and the easier becomes the drive. At its high speeds it just skims along the surface. Its attainable speed is very high. It has recently been adopted by the U. S. Navy for fast patrol work.

It is one of the many valuable inventions usable for many peaceful purposes as well as for war.

Another Instance -of- PROMPTNESS

Here is another instance of satisfaction given a mail order customer of The Advocate Job Department, which is only one of many received from time to time at this office. Promptness and good work are the secrets of the success of The Advocate's Job Department; and the following letter, as a voucher, shows that even in "rush" orders careful attention is not eliminated. This letter was received from a Toronto gentleman, and was written from Windsor, Nova Scotia. We have since been advised by the writer that a large number of replies to the circular in question had been received very shortly after its circulation. Following is the letter:

Windsor, Nova Scotia.
December 7, 1915.

Miramichi Publishing Co., Limited.
Newcastle, N. B.

Dear Sirs:

I wish to express my appreciation of the manner in which you filled my last order for printing. As this was "rush" order, I was prepared to make allowances for imperfections in the job, but I must say that if days instead of only a few hours had been devoted to the job, it could not have been executed in a more pleasing and satisfying style. In my opinion the circular alluded to is a well-nigh—if, indeed it is not altogether—a perfect piece of printing. Anyway it suits me perfectly. An office that can turn out such excellent printing as I consider this circular to be should be able to please anybody.

Yours very truly,
(Name withheld.)

The writer of the above letter, who has done considerable business in the lower provinces, has had several pieces of work done by The Advocate, and has given entire satisfaction in all cases. It can, and will, do the same for you. You may be satisfied with the work you are receiving now, but you may be better satisfied after you have seen the class of work turned out by The Advocate. Samples of stock and prices printed will be mailed upon request. Write today.

THE UNION ADVOCATE ADVERTISING DON'T PAY

Some merchants who do not advertise will tell you. They place their opinion above the opinion of the many thousands who do advertise because they KNOW that it pays. The trouble is those merchants do not know how to advertise RIGHT. They do not give their advt. the proper attention—they do not change often enough, and hardly know what to write when they do change them, and then blame the paper because their business does not increase. An infant will not thrive on ten bottles of poor milk in a year, nor will an advertisement increase a man's business with only ten changes in a year.

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT

Look at the matter as a Business Proposition. Figure up what your business will allow you to spend, and then find out, AND MAKE CERTAIN, where you can get the best results for the amount you spend. Give your advt. the same careful attention you give to buying and there will be a pleasant surprise in store for you at the end of the year.

So far as circulation is concerned, The Advocate is in the lead. There is not a corner in Northumberland County in which The Advocate does not circulate. As a matter of news—it leads, others follow. It gives the biggest dollar's worth of news of any other paper in the county. It gives the news first, while it is fresh. We receive weekly, letters, kind, thoughtful letters, commending us upon our work. Hundreds of new names have been added to our lists within the past few months. We expect these new subscribers will bring many more new ones.

Just think, Mr. Advertiser, what this enormous increase in our circulation means to you! You are not in business for your health—you are spending money in advertising for the purpose of getting increased business. As a business proposition, it is up to you to use the paper with the largest bona-fide paid up subscription list, and that paper in Northumberland County is THE UNION ADVOCATE.
