LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Dominion Parliament was prorogued on Saturday, the 19th inst.

The Herald is for sale at the store lately occupied by Mr. T. O'Connell, Queen Street.

In the present demand and high prices for horses continue the Island will be denuded of its best stock.

We have received the Dominion Dry Goods Report for April. It is published in Montreal, and contains a large and varied amount of information for the trade.

We are not yet quite so far advanced as Halifax in some things. The waiting carts about round the streets of that city last week, but when the beautiful dust arrives in Charlottetown, will we have a watering cart?

The Northern Light, having been delayed at Georgetown for nearly a week, awaiting a favorable wind, left for Pictou yesterday morning. She reached Pictou Island, and is unable to proceed further on account of ice.

On the 1st of April Mr. M. J. O'Connell left London for Central City, Colorado, there to push his fortunes. Mr. O'Connell is sober, capable, and energetic, and is bound to get on. We unite with his many other friends in wishing him success.

It is this week's issue appear two original poems, one by Mr. A. W. Crockett, formerly of the staff of the Herald, but now on the New York Morning Journal, and the other by Mr. James J. Roche, of the Boston Pilot, son of Mr. Roche, the Provincial Librarian.

During the past week Rev. Father Carroll has been conducting a retreat for the young and unmarried men of St. Dunstan's congregation. Services were held morning and evening, at each of which a very instructive sermon was preached. On Saturday evening Father Carroll, in his closing sermon, spoke of each of which a very instructive sermon was preached.

The Steamer Soudan, which was wrecked in the harbor on Saturday evening, is being repaired, repaired and fitted out for sea. Mr. F. G. Crockett, the contractor, has had the Soudan cleaned and painted; she commenced to run yesterday. Some additional work has been done on the Heather Lido. The ladies' cabin has been newly fitted up, and several improvements made in the saloon on the lower deck with a view to the convenience and safety of the passengers.
