Evening Telegram

W. J. HERDER, - - Proprietor W. F. LLOYD, - - - Editor.

Tuesday, March 14, 1911.

The Government Climbs Down.

On Friday we suggested that Royal Commission i.e., one appointed into the whole business and circumstances connected with the granting of licenses and making of deals in timber and pulp lands.

On Saturday the Chronicle took notice of this suggestion and stated that "The Telegram has, indeed, gone so every act of his administration infar as to urge last night that a Royal vestigated and the full light of day Commission be appointed to take evidence on oath into the whole matter.
