U. S. Fisheries.

Interesting information regarding the fisheries of the United States has been gathered and collected by the U. S. Census Bureau.

"Cod ranked third in value of the fishery products in 1908, reaching $2,903,000, of which the Atlantic furnished 93 per cent., and the Pacific Coast 7 per cent."

The value of the crab fishery in 1908 was the largest on record and was worth $938,000.

Flourishers, excluding turbot, were valued at $588,000. 1908 holds the record for quantity.

"The catch of hake, often called 'boneless fish' was in value $464,000 in 1908, a record year. Massachusetts and Maine furnished all but 1 per cent of the total.

In 1908 the main catch of halibut was taken on Pacific Coast, principally from Washington. The Atlantic catch has greatly decreased in quantity.

"The herring catch in 1908 amounted in value to $796,000, a considerable increase over previous years, 96 per cent was taken by Maine and Massachusetts fishermen.

Lake herring or cisco were worth $989,000 in 1908 and came principally from Lake Michigan and Lake Erie. Lake trout, principally from Lake Superior, fetched $800,000.

The lobster fishery was worth $1,931,000. Maine furnished 66 per cent. of this. Mackerel fetched $848,000, of which Massachusetts reported 90 per cent.

Mullet was worth $908,000, Florida contributing 70 per cent.

Mussels form an important fishery, mostly the fresh water variety which are taken primarily for the shells and pearls. The salt water variety were worth $12,000, but the fresh water variety ran up to $682,000.

The oyster fishery ranks an easy first and was worth $15,713,000 in 1908.

Pollock brought $408,000. The sounds are made into glue, the livers into oil and the tongues are sold fresh.

Salmon was valued at $14,018,000. Nearly $11,000,000 came from Alaska and the rest from the Pacific coast of the States.

Shad fetched over $2,000,000. Shrimps $494,000. Snappers $651,000. Weakfish $1,775,000. Sturgeon, $228,000. Whaling $497,000. Whitefish $524,000.

A Filthy Place.

The immediate attention of the Health Inspector is drawn to the insanitary condition of the public lavatory in Woods dock. No words in the English language are strong enough to describe the filth of this place. There are about 100 men working fitting out fishing boats close to this standing menace to health, and about 50 feet west Clouston's fresh fish factory is in operation. This place should be attended to immediately.

Suicides by Hanging.

Mr. Hutchings, K.C., had a telegram from Judge Oke, of Harbor Grace, transmitted through the G. Sullivan, last evening to the effect that Russian pedlar named Aaron Siddell, aged 23 years, had been found hanging in a stable at Upper Island Cove yesterday morning. The circumstances point to suicide. A doctor examined the body and pronounced death due to strangulation. There were no external marks on the body. He had ninety odd dollars in cash on him, and this sum with his effects is in the hands of the police. Messrs. I. F. Perlin & Co. received a telegram from Harbor Grace this morning in connection with the suicide from the police authorities there, asking for his advice about the disposal of the body. Siddell boarded at the house of Mr. Clarke and went to bed Saturday night in his usual good condition. Sunday morning not finding him in his room, Mr. Clarke and his family went to the stable and found him suspended, dead. A piece of horse's trace had been tied around his neck. He was about 22 years of age and Mr. Perlin thinks he was born in Russia. He arrived in the country about two years ago, and was in the city about six weeks ago. Mr. Perlin said that he was a very quiet young fellow and had no financial troubles. He is at a loss to understand why he should do this rash act. The Messrs. Cohen on Bell Island are friends of his and came from the same town in Russia. It is likely that they will take charge of the body.

The Scars of Life.

The choicest garb, the sweetest grace. Are oft to strangers shown; The careless mien, the frowning face. Are given to our own.

We flatter those we scarcely know; We please the fleeting guest; And deal full many a thoughtless blow To those who love us best.

Love does not grow on every tree, Nor true hearts yearly bloom; And deal full many a thoughtless blow To those who only see This cut across the tomb!

But, soon or late, the fact grows plain To all through sorrows test; The only folks who gives us pain Are those we love the best.

The Late Alfred

J. Tuckwell.

George Prowse, the Judge's eldest son, who was summoned to Winnipeg about the Banatone School, to which he has been appointed Headmaster, and also about the Provincial Board for the examination of teachers, for which he is a member, sends a long obituary notice of Alfred J. Tuckwell, a younger son of Rev. Henry Tuckwell, master of Bishop Field's School, St. John's, and Curate of the Cathedral. With the exception of Archdeacon Bridge Tuckwell, was the most popular and beloved minister in St. John's—a splendid teacher and preacher and very musical. Tuckwell left St. John's in 1853.

Native of England.

Alfred John Tuckwell was born in England on September 11, 1854. His father was the Rev. Henry Tuckwell, who for many years was the Church of England clergyman at St. John's, Newfoundland. There is still treasured in the family a silver plate which was presented to Rev. Henry Tuckwell by his parishioners in testimony of their appreciation of his faithful ministrations, on the occasion of his leaving St. John's for England in 1853.

The clipping from the Manitoba Free Press is too long for insertion. Alfred J. Tuckwell was for 23 years very successful as the master of a private boarding school with one hundred pupils. He was famous as a musician, a great cricketer and golfer, and exceeding popular with all classes in Winnipeg.—Com. St. John's, June 12, '11.

On Saturday last, at Fandy Point, Bay St. George, Mary, daughter of Agnes and the late Joseph Barter, aged 19 years.

Passed away at 88 Pleasant Street this morning, Gertrude L. Parsons, beloved child of Geo. B. and Ediza Parsons, aged 4 years and 2 months.—Safe in the arms of Jesus.

Funeral to-morrow, Tuesday, at 2.30 p.m.

Passed peacefully away Sunday morning, at 5 o'clock, Claire Eugenie, aged 7 years and 4 months, darling child of S. P. and Mrs. Whitley. Funeral to-morrow, Tuesday, at 2.30 p.m., from her late residence, 130 Bond Street.
