Hr. Grace Notes.

Several shebeen cases are being heard before Judge Oke at the District Court here to-day.

Dr. Charles Cron left last week for Belleoram, where he will remain a month or so attending to some mild cases of smallpox that lately developed there.

Workmen are now employed finishing the interior of the public building, Water Street. At night the building looks very well being lit up by electric lights. It will likely be completed in a few weeks.

At a meeting of the British Band, held last night, the officers for the present year were elected as follows:

Band Instructor—Mr. L. Whitman. President—Mr. Robert Brazil. Vice President—Mr. James Garland.

Secretary—Mr. Leonard Stirling. Treasurer—Mr. Lorenzo Sheppard.

Mr. Herbert Andrews, the retiring President, and a member of the band for the past thirty years, in withdrawing from active service assured the members that he still held a keen interest in the British Band, and that the members could depend on him to at all times do his utmost for the good of the Band. The Band will hold a dance in the Masonic Hall on Feb. 17th, which will no doubt be as enjoyable as former dancing assemblies held by the band.

The King Edward Branch of the British Society held its monthly meeting last night, and elected its officers. President Arthur Rogers read a telegram received on New Year's Day in reply to one sent to the Sister Branch at St. John's, as follows:

"President Arthur Rogers, "King Edward Branch, Harbor Grace:

"Albert Edward Branch N. B. Society cordially reciprocates greeting King Edward Branch, and sends best wishes for prosperous New Year."

"(Signed) "H. LUSCOMBE, "President."

After the general business had been gone through, the election of officers took place, resulting as follows:

Bro. Arthur Rogers, President, re-elected. Bro. Albert Parmiter, Vice-President, elected.

Bro. John Crocker, Treasurer, re-elected. Bro. Chesley Trapnell, Secretary, re-elected.

Committee—Bros. Frank Tetford, George Webber, Henley Martin, Albert Snow, Chas. Noseworthy, Albert Sellars, George Snow, Max Verge, James Curtis.

Bro. Graham Ash, Grand Marshal.

Bro. Levi Wells, Deputy Marshal.

Three new members signed the roll last night. The Branch is in a flourishing condition, and is paying sick benefits to, and the stewards are visiting the sick members. The year 1913 was a good one for the Juvenile Branch of the British Society, and may 1914 bring them very little sickness.

Some Vehicles.

I've seen the circus wagon pass, with state-horses hitched in line, all bright with shining paint and brass—it sent a thrill clear up my spine. I've seen the rich man's motor car, that cost him many thousand bones; it burned the road up near and far, and honked in loud Caruso tones. I've seen all things that go on wheels whatever be the motive power; and, viewing them, a fellow feels he's living in a modern hour. Of all the vehicles that roll along the pike from sun to sun, of all that stir me to the soul, the water wagon takes the bun. The water wagon has no gilt, nor is it hauled by circus span, and all its scats and springs are built upon a stern, old-fashioned plan; methinks its wheels are needing grease, and one can hear them squeal and grind; but those upon it ride to Peace, and leave the Land of Grief behind. Hang on, hang on, O thirty boys, be not dismayed by jests or sneers; you're headed now for saner joys than you have known in many years!

Not all the stories about the length of time an egg sojourns in the storage house are fairy tales. Here is a man in New York who purchased an egg last week and found a girl's name written on it. On writing to the young lady he learned that she had been married a few years, and that the signature on the egg was put there five years ago.
