LONDON, June 25.
An Exchange Telegraph Company's despatch from Shanghai, says that the town of Kalgan, 325 miles northwest of Peking, was sacked last night. The foreigners in the city were not harmed. There are no details as to the looting of the city, nor as to the fate of the Chinese troops stationed there.

LONDON, June 25.
Letters of a very intimate character written by Queen Victoria to the Duchess of Gordon, will be sold at Sotheby's on July 21st. In one letter dated 1842, when King Edward was a baby of two months; and his sister a year older. Queen Victoria wrote, "Our little girl is now at a very amusing and interesting age and is very lively and intelligent. Boy is a fine strong child, though not as pretty as his sister was at his age."

LONDON, June 25.
American fire-arms, ammunition and heireses were the subject of some amusing banter to-day, between the rival Irish factions in the House of Commons. Premier Asquith was asked to take special steps to prevent arms entering Ireland from the States in response to an appeal from John F. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists to Michael J. Ryan, President of the United Irish League, Philadelphia, for aid to the Nationalist Volunteers in Ireland. Lloyd George, who replied in behalf of the Premier, declined to make any representation on the subject to the American Government. Arthur Lynch, Nationalist, then tried to carry the war into the Unionist camp by inviting Lloyd George to ascertain how much money American heireses had furnished to foment civil war in Ireland, but hilarious shouts from the Opposition of "Where is Harcourt?" reminded him that there were American heireses in both camps. Robert Vernon Harcourt, the Radical member, is a son of Lady Harcourt, daughter of John Motley, former United States Minister in London.

The House of Features

Big Line of Pictures—Bob Leonard, Max Aster, Pauline Bush and Louise Fazenda.

The Crescent Picture Palace should be crowded to the doors to-night, as one of the classiest programmes seen for some time will be presented. The feature subject is Red Margaret, the Moonshiner, a splendid Gold Seal two-reel subject featuring Pauline Bush, a drama that is very interesting and splendidly acted. The Fourth Proposal with Bob Leonard, and The Joy Riders, with Max Aster and Louise Fazenda, are two of the best comedies we have seen for some time. Miss Louise Arkandy, vocalist, will be heard in the classy novelty song, "I Love the Moonlight." The illustrations for this song are extra good, and the bill on the whole is a very attractive one.

On Monday and Tuesday, a great 2-reel feature "The Dread Inheritance" with J. Warren Kerrigan.

Coming, Robinson Crusoe in three reels.

Big Saturday matinee to-morrow afternoon; extra picture.
