

THE STUBBORNNESS

of the MULE is proverbial. Though not proverbial it is a well-known fact that millions of housewives who have tried SUNLIGHT SOAP stubbornly refuse to use any other. These housewives, with

Prize Day at St. Bonaventure's.

The annual distribution of prizes to the pupils of St. Bonaventure's College took place at the Casino Theatre last evening before a large gathering of parents of the students and friends and supporters of the College. The affair was under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency the Governor who was present accompanied by Lady Davidson, and His Grace Archbishop Roche who was also present and was accompanied by Very Rev. J. McDermott, Adm., and several of the city clergy. Amongst those present were Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris, J. M. Kent, K.C., Hon. M. P. Cashin, J. D. Ryan, Messrs. T. J. Edens, M. W. Furlong, the Christian Brothers of Mount St. Francis, Mount Cashel and St. Bonaventure's and a large number of other prominent citizens.

The programme opened with the comic opera "The Irate of Penzance" in which the principal characters were Masters C. Fox, G. Jackman, J. Daly, J. Carver, E. Duchaine, G. McDonald, J. Farrell, W. Myler, W. Bertie, B. O'Donnell and W. McGrath. The performance was most creditable one and to Prof. Hutton, the director, much congratulation is due. The orchestra, Messrs. C. Hutton, A. Bailey and P. W. Bradshaw, rendered excellent music which added much to the success of the entertainment.

Following the opera Rev. Bro. Ryan, the Principal, read the report of the work done by the College during the past year, a report that was indeed gratifying. He reviewed the success of the College in the C. E. E. Examinations and also referred to the success of the St. Bon's Football team in the recent inter-collegiate series, having won the championship again this year. By virtue of winning the cup for three successive years this much coveted trophy now becomes the permanent property of the College. He then referred to the interest taken by the College in her ex-pupils and paid a worthy tribute to the 105 ex-students of St. Bonaventure's who have enlisted in the service of the Empire. "Two of our most brilliant ex-pupils," said Mr. Ryan, Buchanan Freebairn and John McDonnell have already paid the debt of honor and their memories will be ever kept green by the pupils and teachers of their Alma Mater. Rev. Bro. Ryan, on behalf of the College, then thanked His Excellency and Lady Davidson for honoring the occasion with their presence; His Grace the Archbishop, who had always shown a deep interest in his Alma Mater, and whom the College holds as her most distinguished son; to Mr. J. P. Kiely who had so generously placed the hall at their disposal free of charge, and to the orchestra, who besides assisting so ably at the performance, gave so much of their spare time during the rehearsals. He then invited His Excellency the Governor, His Grace the Archbishop, and the College Board of Directors to come on the platform for the distribution of prizes.

After distributing the prizes His Grace addressed the gathering, and paid a well deserved tribute to the work of the teachers and pupils of St. Bonaventure's. He congratulated the College on its high standard of efficiency, intellectually, as shown by the results of the recent examinations, morally, as shown by the excellent tone that always prevails at St. Bonaventure's, physically as shown by the successes in the athletic field, and socially, as shown by the general deportment of the pupils and the excellent entertainment just furnished. He also paid a high tribute to those of the ex-pupils who had enlisted in the service of the Empire and felt confident that they would give a good account of themselves on the battle-field.

His Excellency followed and in a lengthy address congratulated the teachers and pupils of the college and paid a high tribute to the work done by the Irish Christian Brothers in every land. In this noble organization, said His Excellency, we have men of culture and education who could easily make their mark in the various pathways of life, but instead choose to give their lives solely to the cause of education. He then congratulated the Brothers on their excellent methods of imparting knowledge, which methods were always productive of much success. In referring to the War he took occasion to congratulate the College on the number of her sons who had enlisted, and felt confident that all would acquire themselves with honour and credit to their Alma Mater.

Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris, President of St. Bon's Old Boys' Association, in congratulating the Brothers on their good work, said that he felt it an honour to be one of the early pupils of the College and would wish his Alma Mater a continuance of the successes which have distinguished her in the past.

Mr. J. M. Kent followed and in a pleasing speech endorsed all that the previous speakers had said with reference to the good work of the College. He congratulated the Principal, teachers and pupils of the institution and wished them a continuance of success.

The singing of the National Anthem brought the enjoyable evening to a close.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it." "That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists."

Strongest Liniment in 100 Years Best for Either Man or Beast

Nothing for Family Use Can Compare With It.

RUB ON NERVILINE.

When you have been exposed to wet and cold and your muscles are full of pain, nerves are jumping with neuralgia, then you should have ready at hand a bottle of Nerviline. It robs pain of its terrors, gives relief to all suffering, brings ease and comfort wherever used.

No care or expense has been spared to secure for Nerviline the purest and best materials. It is prepared with a single aim; to restore the sick to health. This cannot be said of the preparation that an unscrupulous dealer may ask you to accept instead of Nerviline, so we warn you it is the extra profit made on inferior goods that tempts the substitutor. Of him beware.

Get Nerviline when you ask for it, then you are sure of a remedy that will cure all aches, strains, swellings, and the pains of rheumatism, neuralgia and lumbago.

In the last hundred years no liniment has been produced that can compare with Nerviline in strength, in penetrating power, or in curative ability.

For nearly forty years it has been Canada's household remedy, and mothers will do well to follow the advice of Mrs. Jessie Beggs, of Stella P. O., Ont., who says:

"Very frequently there are ailments in the family that can be cut short if Nerviline is handy. When my children come in from play, with a cough or a bad cold, I rub them well with Nerviline, and they are well almost at once. Nerviline is fine for earache, toothache, chest colds, lumbago, stiffness, rheumatism or neuralgia. In fact there is scarcely a pain or ache in man or beast it won't cure quickly."

The large 50c. family size bottle is the most economical; trial size 25c. at all dealers.

WALT MARSH

It's well to be sunny and frisky and gay, if one has some money in brine put away; if we have the plunder where thieves cannot steal, it's surely no wonder if chippier we feel. But some folks don't borrow an ounce weight of care, they heed not to-morrow, when shelves may be bare. And, not a thought giving to what may befall, "We'll live while we're living," they cheerily call; "eat, drink, and be merry, to-morrow we die, and death with his wherry will soon paddle by." And then when to-morrow comes trading along, all loaded with sorrow and things going wrong, the roysterers grumble and murmur and yelp, and send out a humble petition for help. "Oh, come, come a-flying"—you've heard their old tunes—"our children are crying for codfish and prunes! Be good to us, neighbors, we need food and coal, and you, by your labors, have piled up a roll! With hunger we sicken, we languish and die!—Oh bring us fried chicken and pretzels and pie!" Each winter the thriftless send up the old wail, the heedless, the shiftless, the fellows who fail.

Here and There.

WEATHER.—It is calm and dull along the line of railway to-day with the temperature ranging from 33 to 42 above.

NAVAL RESERVISTS.—Eight recruits for the navy were enrolled at the Calypso during the week, the following five having enlisted yesterday: John Smith, Flower's Cove; Albert R. Keats, Newman's Cove, B.B.; Justin S. Bartlett, Amharst Cove, B.B.; Maxwell Blanford, Jersey Slide, Placentia; and William H. Harding, Sound Island, P.B.

Conscription Is Not Being Dodged

Old Country Emigration Figures Conclusive Evidence Allegations are Fiction.

London, October 27.—In consequence of the prominence given allegations that the young men of Britain were emigrating in order to avoid military service, Captain Amery asked the President of the Board of Trade in the House of Commons whether he would state how many men between 18 and 45 had, in fact, gone from the United Kingdom during the twelve months ended September 30.

Mr. Runciman replied that during that period the number of males of British nationality of twelve years of age and over who had left for permanent residence in non-European countries was 36,594, as compared with 101,682 in the previous twelve months. Those between 18 and 45 did not exceed 31,000, compared with 86,000 in the previous twelve months. During the past three months the number of emigrants over 12 years had been 2,802 in July, 2,196 in August and 2,913 in September.

Commissioner Lamb, of the Salvation Army, also sends a crushing reply to these allegations. "During the past twelve months," he writes, "we have arranged for the transfer of only 33 single men, nearly all of them to the Dominions. Formerly we have directed the emigration of 50 many as 10,000 people in one season, of whom the proportion of single men would be about 45 per cent. Since the outbreak of war the services of our staff have been diverted into other channels, such as Imperial and social work."
