TO-DAY'S Messages.

BISHOP OF WORCESTER SPEAKS.

NEW YORK, To-day.
Speaking at a luncheon given in his honor here to-day by the Pilgrims of the States, the Right Rev. Hugh Wolcott Yeatman Biggs, Bishop of Worcester, England, asserted the role which the English people believe the most thoughtful Americans desire to play, that their nation shall be hailed by all the world, even by those who have been at war, as the herald of true peace and of the progress in which every nation, big or little, will have a place in God's sun. Later in his address the Bishop said, "I doubt whether the temper of the Allies would ever suffer any suggestion of peace intervention until the cause for which we are ready to give our all is accomplished. When peace comes, it would be indeed helpful if neutral countries lent a hand in the adjustment of all our furniture and the adjustment of these several conditions which will make for a lasting Commonwealth.
That is what we aim at; and we are tired of the word 'Empire.' I do not think we want any longer to talk of the British Empire; we want to talk of the British Brotherhood and the British Commonwealth."

FRENCH PROGRESS.

PARIS, To-day.
Additional progress was made during Monday by the French troops operating in the northern part of St.
Pierre-Vaast Wood, and more prisoners were also taken by them, according to an official issued last night.

SHACKLETON IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., To-day.
Sir Ernest Shackleton, Antarctic Explorer, arrived here yesterday whence he will take passage on Wednesday for Australia on his way south on the Polar expedition to rescue 10 of his men wrecked in the expedition in which Shackleton's Captain, Worrley, from New Zealand, was wrecked in the Polar ship Endurance.

WAR SUMMARY.

LONDON, To-day.
After a week or more of doubt concerning the operations in the Dobruza region in Roumania, where the forces of the Teutonic Allies had been marching almost unimpeded from the Black Sea to the Danube, comes the report that the Roumanians have now taken the offensive, probably with aid by the Russians, and compelled the Teutons to retreat at several points.
On the Transylvanian front, however, the Roumanians in the Jull Valley, who for some time have been holding the upper hand over the Austro-Germans, forcing them to give ground, have now been stopped and the Teu-tons have brought up reinforcements.
In the Fredral Pass region, after heavy fighting, the Roumanians also have met with a reverse, being compelled to retreat after long stubborn battles all along the battle line. In France between the Somme and Ancre Rivers the Germans are tenaciously disputing attempts by the British and French to gain further ground. Berlin says in Sunday's fighting over a front of twelve miles the French and British suffered heavy losses and won nothing except a local gain in St. Pierre-Vaast Wood. London admits the British were compelled to give back to the Germans the ground the British previously won at Butte de Warlencourt.
In St. Pierre-Vaast Wood, however, the French on Monday made further advance in the northern part of the Wood and captured additional prisoners, 600 of whom were taken in the fighting on Sunday and Monday.

ITALIANS HOLD THEIR GAINS.

ROME, To-day.
Reports are that the Austrians are bringing up heavy reinforcements on the battle front north of Trieste.
Here the Austrians apparently have taken the offensive but nowhere have they been able to regain any of their lost positions according to Rome.
Bombardments and small infantry attacks continue the feature of the fighting in the Macedonian front.

JOINS NATIONAL MOVEMENT.

PARIS, To-day.
A Havas despatch from Athens says that Colonel Colomenopoulos, Commanding the fifty-third Regiment at Volo, with numerous officers and virtually all the soldiers has joined the National movement. He will report to General Serrail, the French Commander of the Allied forces, and make an effort to regain the Greek forts which were turned over to the Bulgarians.

GERMAN STEAMER INTERRED IN HOLLAND.

LONDON, To-day.
A Renter despatch from Amsterdam says, the German steamer Atto, which has been lying in Antwerp Harbor since the outbreak of the war, arrived at Flushing, with the purpose of continuing the voyage to Rotterdam, today. A military guard has been placed aboard the Atto which probably will be interned.

OUR MEN ON FURLOUGH.

QUEBEC, To-day.
One hundred and odd men of all ranks of the Canadians due to receive their discharge or on furlough returned to Canada to-day on board the Canadian Pacific Ocean Service steamer Scandinavian. Seventeen members of the First Newfoundland Regiment, in charge of Sergeant Mercer, also returned on the Scandinavian, they are all on furlough.

DARING ITALIAN TORPEDO BOATS.

ROME, To-day.
An official regarding the activity by the Italian forces was issued to-day:
"Italian torpedo boat daringly penetrated the anchorage of the Austrian fleet at Pola and ineffectively fired two torpedoes at a large warship and returned unscathed, after making a comprehensive reconnaissance under the guns of the fortress. The Italian torpedo boats sank a large enemy steamer moored under the shelter of the defences of Durazzo in Albania on the night of Nov. 6th. Pola is the great naval port arsenal of Austria on the extremity of the Peninsula of Trie-stria on the Adriatic, south of Trieste.

THE LANSO INCIDENT.

LONDON, To-day.
The morning papers give great prominence to the report that the steamer Lanso, sunk by a German submarine, was an American ship.
Lloyds report that the vessel was no longer of American registry and has not been published here. The Lanso was halted in the darkness 25 miles off the Portuguese coast by a German submarine on Nov. 2nd. The chief officer, who is a Chinaman, took the crew aboard the submarine, which sank the Lanso by a bomb placed in the engine room. The members of the crew say that while they were aboard the submarine a British steamer was unsuccessfully attacked.

DUEL FATAL TO BOTH.

ROME, To-day.
An Austrian submarine and an Italian destroyer were sunk in a duel on the night of Oct. 18th, according to an official statement. The submarine had attacked a transport which escaped.

THE CAPTAIN'S NARRATIVE.

LONDON, To-day.
A Daily Chronicle despatch from Barry, Wales, says the officers and crew of the United States steamer Lanso were landed by the Norwegian vessel Tromp at Barry on Saturday night. The Lanso was bound from Manilla to Havre with a cargo of rice.
Captain Mainland, the commander; G. Godinez, chief officer, and William Minson, chief engineer, of the Lanso were seen by me and told me the story of their adventures on the evening of October 28. Said Captain Mainland: We were passing St. Vincent on the Portuguese coast when we encountered a German submarine. When we sighted her she was engaged in sinking a Norwegian vessel. She afterwards endeavoured to sink an English ship but was driven off by the guns of the latter. We slackened speed in order to sink the Norwegian vessel.
The submarine fired 3 warning shots across our bow. This we understood as a signal that they wanted us to stand by and communicate with them.
The chief officer and 4 of the crew rowed over in one of the boats and went aboard the submarine. The commander of the submarine, who spoke excellent English, said he had orders to sink all ships of whatever Nationality carrying contraband for the Allies. He regretted that he was compelled to do this, but he informed us his orders were imperative. He sent an officer and four sailors on the submarine, who ordered us to get into the ship's boats and go aboard the submarine. Then he placed a bomb in the engine room of my ship.
A terrible explosion followed after we left ship, I didn't see her sinking. The Germans took away every article of value belonging to the ship, including the picture of my wife. They carried off the sextant and barometers. The submarine cruised about some time and finally the Commander put us aboard the Norwegian steamer Tromp, which brought us to Barry. We saw no more of the German vessel after we left."

CONSCRIPTION RETURNS IN AUSTRALIA.

MONTREAL, To-day.
The 'Star' has received the following special cable: Sydney, Australia, Nov. 7.—The latest returns from the referendum conscription reduce the majority for the anti to 88,000.
There are still over a hundred thousand votes to be counted. The coal miners have demanded a bank to the bank clause in their working agreement; the employers have offered a compromise, which the men have refused to accept. Practically every coal mine in Australia is idle and a prolonged strike seems probable. All available coal stocks have been seized by the Government.

LARGE VOTE IN ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, To-day.
By far the largest vote in the history of Illinois elections is expected to be cast to-day by reason of the fact that women for the first time will vote for the President and Vice-President. The promise of fair weather throughout the State was also counted on by party managers to aid in bringing about a heavy vote.

SILVER FOR GERMANY.

NEW LONDON, Conn., To-day.
Six and a half tons of silver bullion from the mint at San Francisco, valued at $150,000, was unloaded here today at the railway station and transferred to the German merchant submarine Deutschland for shipment across the ocean.

Train Notes.

Sunday's outgoing express arrived at Port aux Basques at 6.45 p.m. yesterday.
The local from Carbonear reached the city at 12.20 p.m. to-day.
The mail and freight left Port aux Basques shortly after noon to-day.

Here and There.

WEATHER REPORT.—The weather across country is light northeast wind and dull, snowing in places; temperature 24 to 45 above.

SUSU ON DOCK.—The S.S. Susu went on the dry dock this morning to undergo some slight repairs and will be painted outside and in.

SHOOTING COMPETITION.—At their Armoury on next Friday night, there will be held an inter-section shooting competition between the members of the Newfoundland Highlanders for the Paterson Cup.

LOADS PULP AND PAPER.—The S.S. Pere Marquette, which has just come off the dry dock, is now ready to sail for Botwood where she will load pulp and paper for New York for the A. N. D. Co., returning to Botwood with a load of coal.

BIG RECRUITING PARADE TO-NIGHT.—The big military and naval recruiting parade will leave the Court House Square at 7.30 p.m., and headed by the C. L. B. Band will proceed west on Water Street to Steer's Cove, and from thence back to Bowring's Cove, where Lieut. Hicks, a veteran just returned from active service, will address the gathering. Leaving there the party will march to the C. L. B.
Armoury. On Wednesday night the S. A. Band will turn out with the boys; on Thursday the T. A. Band and on Friday the C. C. C. Other speakers will address the meetings on the last three nights mentioned.

CHANGING HANDS.—The Norwegian steamer Jacobsen, which was engaged running in the coal trade between Sydney and this port, has been sold to another Norwegian concern and, we hear, at a handsome figure.
Her old age notwithstanding, the Jacobsen, with her consort the Njord, now in port here getting a new tall shaft, prosecuted the seal-fishery for her late owners in the Gulf the last two seasons at a loss. She is now at Sydney and soon will proceed to Norwegian waters, where, it is said, she will be used in connection with the fisheries there. Some of the crew of the Jacobsen were St. John's men, and they arrived here on the Sable L. last night.

Harden For a Plan to Fix War's Blame.
Editor of Die Zukunft Approves Viscount Grey's Suggestion for Tribunal—Calls People Guiltless—He Sees Nations as Friends, with Mutual Agreements on Armaments.

Berne, Oct. 29.—The whole of the current number of Die Zukunft is occupied by an article written by Maximilian Harden, who entitles it "Preliminary Examination" (Voruntersuchung). The article was obviously suggested by Viscount Grey's recent speech and its object seems to be to inculcate the idea which Harden has already mooted that Germany stands to gain rather than to lose by inquiring seriously whether the time has not arrived for a change in its war policy and a modification of its war aims.
Harden describes Grey as being bowed and chastened by sorrow, occasioned by the war, and says the soul of this man is in mourning and the descent to official language is an unpleasant duty for him. Harden says he can quite understand that the British Foreign Minister has little to say on the war itself, and although he reproduces a telegraph summary of Grey's statements showing that Germany is responsible for the outbreak of the war, he considers that Grey's proposal to submit the question as to who is to blame for originating the war to an independent and impartial tribunal to be the most important feature of the speech. In saying this Harden overstrains the foreign Secretary's remark that he would like nothing better than to see the statements that Russian mobilization was an aggressive and not defensive measure, &c., investigated before any independent and impartial tribunal. Harden writes:

"Listen! It is a statesman who speaks and not a cancelled youngster.
If we turn a deaf ear or ridicule to the offer we shall soon hear that Germany's bad conscience has made us afraid to stand before a judge, that Germany's rapacity dreads that a just judgment will pull down the barriers.
If blindness started the world conflagration and mistrust let loose the furies, the verdict of a tribunal must end the mad outbreak.
The guilt can be clearly proved and only on the head of any ruling persons and not in the wish or desire of the people who were started one morning by the news that danger threatened the home, hearth and family and who have since then succumbed to the frenzy of war. In that case let the Ministers fight out the feud as the three Horati and Curiatii settled the quarrel between Rome and Alba Longa. Let your manhood return from the bloody field to peace and let them deliberate first with the old men of their old people and then with the trusted representatives of their enemies of yesterday as to how the awful howl of nations can be alleviated and how the deep wound on the breast of mankind can be healed." Harden believes that an understanding concerning preparedness for defense and concerning constitutional questions would be easily possible after the horrors already experienced, and he also believes that the people would soon resume their normal conditions. He says that many people are pointing to the Pope as being an independent and impartial tribunal, to whom Viscount Grey would be willing to entrust the office of arbitrator.

Your Boys and Girls.
Many mothers are at a loss when they hear of a new baby among their acquaintances, as to what to give for a little gift. Such a present need not cost much and will be sure to be greatly received by the mother.
Here's just the thing. Procure a fine small guest towel and work across one end, in the center, the word "Baby" in pale blue on pink. The script letters joined are prettier than the printed ones. By placing the script letters in the proper order to spell the word and connecting them with a lead pencil, one can easily get the joined word.
A professional stamper at an art needlework store will stamp the word for you if you do not care to go to the trouble of connecting the letters. Fold the little towel so that it will go in a large glove box and leave a square vacant space at one end.
Now take a pink or blue barred Turkish washcloth and fold it in the square. Tie about it crosswise, an inch-wide pink or blue ribbon, with a pretty little full bow upon the top.
Wrap the box up in white paper and tie it with a narrow ribbon the same shade as that used in the bow.
The veil is very important this season and it comes in many fascinating and becoming colors.
Some of the new crests are made very jaunty styles, ripping all the way from the shoulders.
