Quebec Pressing Settlement of Labrador Boundary.

REVOLUTION BY PROGRAMME.

Machine Guns Quell Riots in Cologne---Another Tribute to the Navy ---Complete Agreement Between Allies.

THE LABRADOR BOUNDARY.
MONTREAL, Dec. 5. A dispatch to the Gazette from Ottawa says the task of determining the boundary line between Ungava, now a part of the Province of Quebec, and the Province of Newfoundland, may be referred to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council early next week. Since Ungava was added to the Province in 1912 the Government of the Province has been anxious that the boundary should be determined. For some years past there have been intervals negotiations between the Dominion Government and the Government of the Province of Quebec on the one hand and the other looking to a reference to the case to the Privy Council. However, is now pressing for settlement of the dispute, and it is expected a reply is not received within reasonable time from Newfoundland will join with the Dominion of Canada in submitting the whole question to the Privy Council.

TERRORIST REVOLUTION.
PARIS, Dec. 5. A terrorist revolution under the leadership of Dr. Liebknecht, the Radical Socialist, will break out in Berlin tonight, according to advice received by the Zurich correspondent of the journal, Liebknecht, the report of which has 15,000 men well-armed. The revolution of Berlin, according to reports, is at the mercy of gangs of anarchists and there appears to be no chance of its success.

RIOTING IN COLOGNE.
COPENHAGEN, Dec. 5. Machine guns were used in suppressing riot in Cologne on Saturday, according to reports received. Several stores in different parts of the city were plundered and a number of casualties in the streets of the demonstrations, several killed. Other casualties occurred in conflicts between mobs and police throughout the night.

NAVY'S GREAT WORK.
LONDON, Dec. 5. The work of the British navy during the war was lauded by Sir Eric Geddes, First Lord of the Admiralty, in a speech opening the "sea-power" exhibition of pictures and relics in London. The sea-power of the British navy, he declared, held all the fleets of the world in a silent grip, crushed the will of the enemy countries and secured the freedom of the world. By the blockade of 1914 to 1917, Sir Eric declared, the tenth cruiser squadron kept under guard a stretch of sea 1,000 miles long, from the Orkneys to the Azores, and had intercepted 15,000 tons of supplies to enemy countries. Although this work had been done in the most part in the face of night or in bad weather, storms and blizzards, less than 1 per cent. of vessels succeeded in getting through the blockade of the British navy. British sea-power, he concluded, has been the pivot on which the fate not only of the war but of the world has turned.

NEGOTIATIONS re WILHELM.
COPENHAGEN, Dec. 5. A dispatch from the Berlin Socialist Workers' Council has arrived in the Hague, a Berlin despatch says. The message indicates that negotiations at the Netherlands capital are in progress concerning the Emperor William in progress. A German delegation in the Hague, of which is not stated.

DEATH OF GRAFTON DEAD.
LONDON, Dec. 5. The death of Grafton, head of the British army, and a retired General, is announced. He was 70 years of age.

EMPEROR'S CABINET.
MADRID, Dec. 5. The Emperor's cabinet, who has been chosen to form a new government, is announced. The Emperor's cabinet, who has been chosen to form a new government, is announced. The Emperor's cabinet, who has been chosen to form a new government, is announced.

McADOO'S SUCCESSOR.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. Representative Carter Glass, of Virginia, was nominated today by President Wilson to be Secretary of the Treasury.

ELECTION ECHOES.
LONDON, Dec. 5. (Via Reuter's QUAWA, AZORES.) Ex-Premier H. H. Asquith's renunciation of office was not placed in nomination yesterday. Mrs. Hope's papers were informal, and were rejected. Horatio Bottomley, editor of John Bull, who yesterday secured his discharge from bankruptcy was nominated. Among those elected by acclamation were T. P. O'Connor, Spencer Leigh Hughes and Kennedy Jones.

STILL IN THE DARK.
LONDON, Dec. 5. Winston Spencer Churchill's announcement regarding the nationalization of the railroads, has stirred up the greatest interest here. No details of the Government's policy have yet been made. "I am still in the dark; I know no more than the newspapers have published," a prominent railway official told the Associated Press. What form the nationalization will take is the subject of considerable conjecture.

HUN BRUTE EXPOSED.
LONDON, Dec. 5. (British Wireless Service.)—The Commandant of the notorious German prison camps of the Hanover command, who subjected British officers to gross indignation and brutal treatment, has been exposed in the latest reports of Sir Robert Younger, Judge of the High Court of Justice, and his committee, which has been dealing with the treatment by the enemy of British prisoners of war. The Committee's report says: "It is not in the least events involving at least one case of homicide and which will receive special attention on some other occasion, that the true significance of the German horrors is to be found, but in the petty tyranny constantly exercised, the punishment of men for so-called offenses, of needless restrictions and the overbearing conduct of the German administration."

LOED ROBERT CECIL AND LEAGUE OF NATIONS.
LONDON, Dec. 5. Lord Robert Cecil, former Assistant Secretary for Foreign Affairs, has been asked by the Government, to take charge of the British section at the Peace Congress which is to deal with the question of a League of Nations. Lord Robert Cecil made this announcement to-night in a speech at Letchworth. "I very cordially accepted the invitation," said Lord Robert Cecil. "There is nothing I would more readily do for my country than to get up the British case and state it at this conference in favor of the greatest political and social reform it is possible to achieve in the interests of mankind."

A DAY OF RECKONING.
LONDON, Dec. 5. Sir Auckland Geddes, President of the Local Government Board and Minister of National Service, in a public address said that the line of policy advocated by the Coalition Government was a peace which, so far as the powers were concerned, should be based on stern justice, and so far as those men who planned and started the war were concerned, should be founded on justice of the nature meted out in the highest courts of the land. Such men as the former German Emperor, Enver Pasha and the former rulers of Bulgaria and Austria would be placed on trial and if found guilty their lives would be forfeited. Men guilty of unspeakable atrocities upon our prisoners and upon the civilian inhabitants of the invaded lands, he continued, must stand trial, and if they are condemned must suffer death. It had to be proved how far the commanders of submarines acted under orders which they had to carry out under pain of death or how far they acted on their own volition. But if the atrocities at sea were committed on the violation of individual commanders, he declared, that they must suffer the extreme penalty. Today is the day of reckoning for our enemies, said the minister, and they will have to pay the utmost farthing what it is possible to bring out of them.

LOYD GEORGE RE-STATES POLICY.
LONDON, Dec. 5. Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister, to-night in the election campaign gave a re-statement of his policy. In it he declares that the men responsible for the war cannot escape because their heads were crowned, but that they must be tried by an international court. Mr. Lloyd George also declared himself in favor of the expulsion and exclusion of all enemy aliens.

NO MORE CONSCRIPTION.
DUNDEE, Dec. 5. The British representatives at the peace conference will demand general and absolute abolition of conscription throughout Europe. Winston Spencer Churchill made this announcement in a speech here to-night.

GOEBEN SETTLED AT LAST.
LONDON, Dec. 5. The entire Turkish fleet is now in the hands of the Allies, the Admiralty announced to-day. The warships, after surrendering, were interned in the Golden Horn at Constantinople. The former German cruiser Goeben was among the surrendered vessels.

Llewellyn Club.
A special program in celebration of the signing of the armistice, was carried out at last night's meeting of the Llewellyn Club, Rev. Dr. Jones presiding. This opened with an address by Hon. J. A. Clift, who spoke on the reasons for rejoicing that the struggle had been fought and won. A concert followed and was thoroughly enjoyed. Those taking part were Messrs. J. Fox, T. P. Halley, J. P. Crotty, A. Williams, C. Trappell, R. Somerville, Baldwin, P. F. Moore and W. B. Ayre. H. Lordship Bishop White then delivered a very interesting address, paying tribute to the army and navy, and to the genius of Marshal Foch. Concluding, he congratulated Rev. Dr. Jones on being made Rural Dean of Avalon in succession to the late Rev. Canon Colley. He also stated that before long he expected other honors to be bestowed on the rev. gentleman. Rev. Dr. Jones in reply expressed himself as pleased with the honor bestowed upon him, and spoke in fitting terms of the signing of the armistice. After all present went downstairs and partook of refreshments. Hon. Sir M. P. Cashin, Hon. Tasker Cook and others gave short addresses, and the evening closed with a vote of thanks to the ladies for their active assistance.

Wedding Bells.
O'LEARY-COOMBES.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday at the Parish Church, Trepassey, when Mr. John O'Leary led to the altar Miss Teresa Coombes. The bride who was charmingly attired in brown silk trimmed with white crepe de chene and hat to match, was attended by her sister Miss Agnes Coombes and Miss Susie O'Leary sister of the groom. The groom was ably supported by his brother Mr. F. O'Leary and Mr. Patrick Coombes, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to Portugal Cove their future home, where they were met with volleys of musketry by their friends. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents including a number of cheques. We wish Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary many years of happiness.

West Coast Notes
(Western Star.)
Several deaths have resulted from influenza in the west end of St. George's.
R. Moulton, Ltd., are closing out their business at Lark Harbor. The tern schooner Riscover II. was at Lark Harbor last week taking the balance of their fish and shop goods.
Joseph Guy has resigned his position as superintendent of the machine shops, Humbermouth, and left yesterday for Catalina, where he intends opening a machine shop in company with his brother.
Parties from Lark Harbor last week told us that the influenza epidemic at that place was practically over, there being only one serious case there then. In all there were eleven deaths at Lark Harbor, and four at Brooms Bottom. They spoke very highly of the services rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Dave and Mr. and Miss Gear. Though the former visited many of the houses where people were infected and tended, on the sick, he did not contract the disease. Only six houses throughout the settlement escaped the malady.

Parcel Post for Nfld. Expeditionary Forces!

The attention of the public is drawn to the very urgent necessity of strictly observing the regulations published by this Department from time to time concerning the despatch of parcels to members of the Regiment overseas and the following particulars should be strictly observed:

- (1) Parcels must not exceed eleven pounds.
- (2) Parcels should be addressed with the Regimental number, rank, name and surname of addressee, followed by the last known address of the Unit with which the individual was serving; for example:
No. 0978 Cpl. John J. Kent,
2nd Battalion
The Royal Newfoundland Regt.,
Hazeley Down Camp,
Winchester,
Hant's Camp,
England.
- (3) Parcels should bear the name and address of a second addressee to whom the parcel may be delivered or forwarded, if it should prove impossible to deliver to the first. The Original address should be written on the FRONT of the parcel where the postage stamps and customs declaration are affixed, and the second or alternative address should be written on the BACK of the parcel.
- (4) If second address is not furnished at the time of posting and delivery cannot be effected, the contents of the parcel, unless of exceptional value or of a personal nature, will be turned over to the Military Authorities for distribution.
- (5) Parcels containing articles of personal nature or of special value will be returned if request for their return, in case of non-delivery, is made by the sender, such request to be written on the cover of the parcel at the time of posting.
- (6) The procedure outlined in (4) and (5) is adopted at the suggestion of the British Post Office, to prevent the waste of a large quantity of perishable food stuffs which form the contents of 90 per cent. of parcels sent to soldiers.
- (7) Parcels should be packed securely.
- (8) Attention is drawn to the Notice concerning Christmas parcels recently published by the Postmaster General. All Christmas mail for B. E. F. should be posted in time to arrive at the Pay and Record Office, London, not later than the end of November.
