Produce the Goods.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—The President and Manager of the Gull Lake Copper Co., Ltd., in a very interesting letter to your paper of recent date asked a question which can be answered only by the oblique way of asking another. Mr. Wells, who is the Manager of the above named Company wants to know "why Newfoundlanders act so modest and keep their mouths shut when they know that they possess a country teeming with wealth?" The inference to be logically drawn from this question runs so contrary to fact that one is tempted to ask Mr. Wells why he confines himself so studiously to foreign literature that he has so little knowledge of local mineralogical bibliography, and newspaper articles, etc., dealing with the same subject? The idea that Newfoundland is so "teeming with mineral wealth" has been so steadfastly dinned into our ears and burnt into our crabs from the printed page that it has become a fixed belief almost like an article of faith that it is sinful to ask proof before believing. I think that somehow, in some subconscious manner, Mr. Wells has received this same type of bland and childlike faith from the same sources as Newfoundlanders generally obtained theirs. Take up any book dealing with this country and you are sure to come across expressions similar to that used by Mr. Wells. Harvey, Prosser, McGrath, Modell and a host of others who have produced books on Newfoundland, not to speak of railway folders, special newspaper articles, lectures, etc., have all spoken in the same strain and just as unconsciously as Mr. Wells. Not one of those writers, lecturers, etc., has moved "the man from Missouri" and is the man you must convince if you want capital to interest itself in your "mine" (?) As well attempt to sell a house on the basis of a specimen brick, as by such unsupported, vague generalities as indulged in by Mr. Wells, et al expect to interest mining capital.

Additional Prizes.

In addition to those mentioned yesterday's issue the following members of St. Andrew's Young Men's League received prizes at the hands of their minister, Rev. R. J. Power, M.A., on Sunday last for attendance during the year: Bert McKee, absent one Sunday; Willie McLeod, Dan Hood, absent two Sundays and Robert McLeod, who only missed three Sundays' attendance.

The Dancers.

To Mrs. Louise Orr and Misses News and Withers.

We have heard the poets singing Of the sylvan and the faeries, That ramble in the moonlight, Thro' the fragrant forest ways; Of the halcyon and the tresses of Pan That throng the groves at even Long the woodland paths and mazes Where the singing brooklet strays.

But they could not well be grander, Those nymphs of old romance, Those elves that whirled and glided Thro' sylvan shades of yore— Than those who claim our plaudits now By their inspiring dances, Whose witchery entrances "Till we must cry 'enore!'"

Oh, the wealth of grace and motion Thrills our spirits with delight, And sets our hearts a-dreaming Of that fairer world and bright, Where in youth we thought the glory Of our rainbow dreams was true, That we'd found a world of rapture That no other mortals knew.

There is rhythm, there is laughter In your tinkling feet and nimble, And if the goddesses of old, But held such potent powers, Who graced the Grecian temples In days of song and story, Why wonder if the Greeks adored? To-day their fate is ours.

Wesley Epworth League.

Entertain Poor Asylum Inmates.

On New Year's Day the Wesley Epworth League gave its annual Xmas treat to the inmates of the Poor Asylum, under the most able direction of Mr. H. Fry and his loyal and energetic committee. Before opening the concert the Sup't. of the Asylum placed the hall of the institution at the disposal of the committee. Long before 4 p.m. there had gathered to the hall all who were not sick or in any other way indisposed. Mr. Mark Pike, President of the League, most efficiently presided. In his opening remarks Mr. Pike said on behalf of Wesley Epworth League that they were again only too willing and glad to be able to come here this year and by to brighten the lives of the dear souls in this asylum, and would always think it a part of their work to place themselves always at their services. The S.A. Band, No. 1 was in attendance and rendered very beautiful music. A word of appreciation must be said here for the bandmaster and his faithful company, who certainly worked overtime during the Xmas season and after, playing nearly constantly every night, gladly gave up this day (Monday) to help the Wesley League in their efforts to entertain the inmates. Special items were given by some of the inmates, who with the committee helped to make the time all that it proved to be. A vote of thanks was then moved by Mr. Chislett for the band seconded by Mr. H. Fry, convener of the committee, and carried. Bandmaster Horwood replied very fittingly in his genial way. A vote of thanks was also tendered Mr. Miller and his noble staff by Mr. L. M. Knight, seconded by Mr. A. W. Waterford, for without the help of these the affair could not certainly be run off. The most obliging way in which Miss McLoughlin and her helpers gave themselves went also to show the unity and love that exists between them all these Mr. Miller, the Superintendent, replied also and thanked the League for the good work that they were doing and he trusted the League would soon see their way clear to come again. With brief closing remarks from the President and Chairman, and the singing by the whole committee of Auld Lang Syne, another successful time at the Poor Asylum was brought to a close. —L.M.K.

The Passion Play at Oberammergau.

Oberammergau, (Associated Press).

The long list of characters for the Passion Play, which will be produced here a number of times in 1922, have been selected, and rehearsals have begun. The chief roles will be played again by veterans, some of whom have participated in the presentations for 40 years. Anton Lang will portray the character of Christ for the third time. Anton Lechner will be protagonist for the second time. Other characters will be: Peter, Andreas Lang; John, Melchior Breitsamer; Judas, Guido Mayr; Calaphas, Hugo Rutz; King Herod, Gregor Breitsamer; Annas, Sebastian Lang; Pilate, Hans Mayr; Mary, Martha Selts; Magdalene, Paula Rend. One of the last selections was Guido Diemer for choir leader. There has not been a performance of the play for 80 years that a Diemer was not leader of the choir or one of the important singers. In it, Guido Diemer took part in the war, first as an artist and later as an aviator. In 1919 he dedicated his life to the study of singing, and shortly afterward appeared with pronounced success in various church concerts. The Passion Play committee decided not to violate Oberammergau tradition by permitting pictures to be taken of the play. American moving picture representatives approached the committee with offers of millions of marks, but their proposals were promptly rejected.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

SAILORS FIGHT.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. Five American sailors were wounded in a clash yesterday between shore parties from American and Italian gunboats, the Navy Department was advised to-day. According to the report, Italians, armed with knives, attacked unarmed American sailors.

THEY WILL HAVE IT.
NEW YORK, Jan. 3. Total deaths from poisonous alcohol, since Christmas Day, now number seventeen. More than 100 patients have been taken to one hospital alone.

QUEBEC WANTS TITLES.
TORONTO, Jan. 3. A special to the Globe from Quebec says: "Quebec Liberals in the next Parliament will make a strong fight for the restoration of knight-hoods and other honors for Canadians. This was a statement made here to-day by prominent Liberals. It is likely, however, that the demand will be qualified by a suggestion that the giving of such titles be greatly restricted. It is understood the question will be introduced on the floor of the House, and unless the current of opposition from the west proves too strong, it is likely that Canadians will once more be the recipients of British honors and titles."

PRIMATE FAVORS RATIFICATION.
BELFAST, Jan. 3. Cardinal Logue, Primate of Ireland, addressing a congregation in Armagh Cathedral, asked it to pray "that it might please Almighty God to save them from such misfortunes" as the rejection of the Anglo-Irish treaty, which laid forth the only hope of peace and tranquility to Ireland. "The only alternative to ratification," declared Cardinal Logue, "was that the country would be thrown back into a state even more drastically oppressive than before." The treaty seemed to give substantially all that was necessary for the welfare and progress of the country, he told his hearers.

LEFT SCHOONER IN DISTRESS.
BOSTON, Jan. 4. The U.S. battleship North Dakota reported by wireless to-day that she had been in collision with the British schooner T. K. Bentley, off Cape Cod last night. The battleship turned back to the navy yard here for repairs. The schooner was said to be in need of immediate assistance and the naval tug Mohave has been sent out from here. No one was injured.

KEEPING IT UP.
BELFAST, Jan. 4. Six deaths have resulted from the present series of disorders in Belfast. Fighting continued last night.

BITTER OPPOSITION.
DUBLIN, Jan. 4. When Dail Eireann reassembled this morning fifty nine of its members, nearly half, had expressed their views on the Irish Peace Treaty. Between private and public sittings Dail, has devoted nine days to the debate. Although the list of speakers is still far from exhausted, it is apparent that every argument for and against the treaty has been brought forward and it is believed that henceforth the speeches will be short. As debate nears its end, with a vote looked for to-morrow or next day, opposition is becoming increasingly bitter.

ANGLO-FRENCH CONFERENCE.
CANNES, FRANCE, Jan. 4. Premier Briand arrived here this morning. The French Premier and Lloyd George began to lay out a program for the Allied Supreme Council, which convenes here Friday. The British Premier intends that this shall be the last meeting of the Supreme Council, if there is any way of bringing pending questions to a point where they can hereafter be dealt with by Ambassadors of the Allied powers. Since his arrival Mr. Lloyd George has been preparing himself for a strenuous week, during which he is going to try to raise the discussion above all individual differences between members of the Entente and apply a remedy from which all Europe will derive benefit and profit.

A NEW VERSION.
DUBLIN, Jan. 4. On the reassembling of Dail to-day a new version of Eamonn De Valera's amendment was distributed to members. It proposed a treaty of amity and association between Ireland and the government of Great Britain and other states of the British Commonwealth.

BRIAND AMENABLE.
CANNES, FRANCE, Jan. 4. Premier Briand is understood to favor the adoption of a broad understanding as to what is needed to save the situation, and then to let the work proceed through the popular diplomatic channels.

A DENIAL.—We have been requested by Mr. Karl Trappell to deny the report that his Apache wig was made at the Broom Factory. It is a pre-prohibition cork-crow-curl patent, reversible, and with "Welcome" on the front can be used as a doormat when visitors call.

C. L. B. CADETS.

LECTURES FOR WINTER MONTHS.
Every second Thursday during the winter months the staff of the C.L.B. Cadets will be given a lecture on some subject which will not only be of interest but also of educational value. The arrangements for the lectures, which will be illustrated by coloured slides, are in the hands of Lieut. Col. R. F. Goodridge. The lectures start on the 19th inst., and the first will be "Glimpses of Oxford and the Continent" by the Adjutant, Major R. H. Tait, M.C., who spent three years at Oxford and captained the Oxford-Canadian hockey team in its various tours on the continent, and who is therefore well qualified to speak on this subject. The lectures will be held in the Gymnasium.

The annual meeting of the Officers' Mess will be held on Thursday week. The Secretary and paymaster will present reports and the election of a Mess President and Vice President will take place.

To-morrow night the officers' ping pong team will play the C.E.I. in the latter's rooms. An excellent contest is expected, although the Institute players have beaten the C.L.B. in all the tournaments played during the past few months.

ORGANIZING AT BURIN.
An attempt to organize a company of the C.L.B. is being made at Burin and excellent progress is reported. No further news has been received from Grand Falls where a company was also in course of formation. Lieut. Col. Goodridge telegraphed greetings to all the outpost companies last week, and replies have been received from the various commanding officers.

The Old Comrades have now added the old school room to their quarters and the additional space provided by the removal of the partition is of great value to them as they were outgrowing their old space. All the work was done by the members themselves. The Old Comrades are starting a debating club shortly and this will be a welcome innovation. The Brigade School now has its headquarters in the paymaster's room. The Brigade Library will be taken over by the Old Comrades.

On Tuesday next those officers who are entering for their proficiency certificate will be examined. The paper will be set by Major Tait. A letter was recently received by Major Williams conveying greetings to all the members of the Officers' Mess from Rev. E. H. Fletcher.

At Rest.

Yesterday morning in the Convent Chapel of the Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square, Solemn Requiem Mass was sung by Rt. Rev. Mgr. McDermott, V.G., Rev. Fr. McGrath, Deacon; Rev. Fr. Leamy, Sub-deacon; His Grace the Archbishop presided at the throne assisted by Rev. J. Rawlin, P.P. Kilbride, and Rev. J. Pippy, P.P. St. Joseph's. The Priests within the Sanctuary were Rev. Dr. Murphy, P.P. Brigus; Rev. M. Enright, Arkansas, U.S.A.; Rev. Fr. Dinn, H. Grace; Rev. Dr. Kitchin, St. Patrick's; Rev. P. Sheehan, St. Patrick's; Rev. Dr. Greene, Cathedral; Rev. Dr. Carter, Cathedral; Rev. R. St. John, St. Patrick's; and Rev. Fr. Flynn, Cathedral. After Mass His Grace proceeded to the catafalque and intoned the "Non Intres." Libera and De Profundis being sung by the Priests, His Grace after asperges and incensing sang the last prayers. The singing throughout the ceremony was solemn and devotional. It was touching and impressive as the long procession—headed by cross bearer, acolytes, Rev. Mother General, Sisters, Novices and Postulants—carrying candles, Misses and De Profundis—wended its way under the softly falling rain to the Convent Cemetery where all that was mortal of Rev. Mother Aloysius was laid to rest. The funeral was largely attended, among those present were the Rev. Mother and Sisters of the Presentation Convent, St. Patrick's; the Rev. Mother General and Sisters of Mercy; the Superior of the College, Rev. Bro. Ryan and Rev. Bro. Strapp, Rev. Bro. Ryan, the members of the Children of Mary Sodality, ex-pupils and many of the school children who came to pay a last tribute of respect and veneration to a devoted Presentation Nun. The prayers at the grave side were sung by the Rt. Rev. Mgr. McDermott. —Requester in Face.

Nfld. Lady Weds in California.

BAIRD-McCOURBRY.

The marriage took place on Saturday afternoon, December 3, at the home of the bride at Glendale, California, at halfpast two o'clock Miss Viola McCoubrey, daughter of Mrs. J. O'Neill Farrell, of Glendale, Cal., formerly of Montreal, Lieut. Stephen Baird, Father James S. O'Neill of the Holy Family Catholic church officiated, the ceremony taking place beneath a floral bell in front of the big fireplace in the living room. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mildred McCoubrey, and wore a gown of navy blue canton crepe, her bridesmaid wearing a gown of lighter blue crepe de chine embroidered in bronze gold beads. Mrs. Farrell was attired in a ray and rose canton crepe gown. Attending the bridegroom as best man was the brother of the bride, Albert McCoubrey, and J. O'Neill Farrell, gave his stepdaughter in marriage. The wedding group also included the younger sisters of the bride, Miss Florence and Vera McCoubrey, who were navy and black beaded tulle. After a reception held after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Baird left for a honeymoon trip to the mountains. On their return they will reside in an apartment at 1629 South Flower Street, Los Angeles.—Montreal Star.

The Mrs. McCoubrey referred to above is a daughter of the late Harry McCoubrey, organizer of the Standard Manufacturing Co., Ltd.

THREE LEADERS.

JOHN P. HAND & Co.

Ministers as Dancing Masters.

Moscow.—This capital boasts of more dancing academies than any other. The reason is that, as everyone must have some sort of a stamped paper showing an occupation, in case they are stopped by the police or are traveling, many thousands have either opened or joined dancing academies. Among these are any number cabinet ministers and former generals.

Personal.

The many friends of Miss Helena Carow, of Dicks & Co., Ltd., will be sorry to learn that she has entered the General Hospital to undergo an operation.
