

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Livingstone Married to an African Princess.

Two Men Lynched in Ohio.

New York, July 10.—A London letter says that Livingstone is married to an African princess, and does not care to return.

Baltimore, July 10.—The Democratic Committee on resolutions met to night, and the Cincinnati platform was adopted without any modification whatever. All the States for the platform excepting Delaware, Georgia, Mississippi and Oregon.

Cincinnati, July 10.—The mob who lynched the men at China yesterday numbered 3,000. On leaving the jail the men were placed in a wagon, and the mob moved off for Kemmer farm, in sight of where the poor girl had been murdered. Here they halted under a sappling, a rude gallows was erected, and the wretches were fitted about the necks of the prisoners. At this juncture Elias Sacon, brother of the murdered girl, pleaded for the life of Jacob Kemmer, aged 17, expressing his belief that he was innocent. This appeal was received with cheers, and young Kemmer was set free. The mob was much broken down, but McLeod maintained the same sterile indifference he had shown from the first. He stoutly denied that he had ever seen the girl, and accounted for the blood on his clothes by bleeding from the nose. He took the testimony kindly, and called upon God to attest his innocence. He implored them to have mercy on his poor mother and sisters, and asked God to forgive them all. The two were then hung till they were dead.

HORRIBLE CATASTROPHE.—The new coal mines, two miles north of Lima, in the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, took fire about three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. There were twenty men and one boy in the mine when the fire began. Eleven escaped. Nine men and the boy were smothered to death.
