A very interesting meeting of the Good Templars was held on Tuesday evening. Since the lodge was organized early in January, the membership has steadily increased. A good program has been prepared for the winter months, and anyone wishing to become a member of visiting members from other lodges will receive a cordial welcome. The regular meetings are held every ev ening in the Co-Operative hall.

Mr., Mrs. and Miss Jarrett desire to express their sincerest thanks to the many friends who have manifested so much kindness and sympathy to their son and brother in his long illness and to themselves at his de cease in their sad bereavement. We could not mention any individially as all sustained us so much by their kindly expressions, friendly calls and, we believe, Christian pray ers. To the A.O.F., the fraternal so ciety to which the deceased belonged we extend our best thanks for their splendid fulfillment of the attention due a sick and deceased brother.

FATHER, MOTHEIR, SISTER.

The remains of the late S. A. Jarrett were borne from his home, 412 Thirteenth avenue east, at two p.m. Monday, Jan. 28th inst. A service was held at the home conducted by Rev. G. W. Kerby of the Methodist church, of which church deceased was a member since 10 years of age, having been converted during the services held at that time by the evanists, Crossley and Hunter, and luring these 14 years has evidenced at home and abroad, but especially in his triumphant death, the genuineness of his conversion and love for Christ. The service of the A. O. F. followed, both at the home and at the grave, conducted by Bros. Bow-den and W. T. M. Little. The following were the pall-bearers: W. T. M. Little, E. Carson, D. C.
