Yesterday afternoon was Aylmer's first half-holiday and practically every business place in town was closed for the afternoon.

Last year regrets were heard from every side from people who did not purchase season tickets for the Chautauqua. They did not know just what a Chautauqua was and regretted having to pay 50 and 75 cents each time of entering the big tent. Everybody knows what a splendid education it is to Aylmer and district and no doubt the season tickets will not nearly go around. They are now on sale and our advise would be to get yours at once. Nearly every place of business in town has them. Ask for them.

Better get your tickets now for the Veterans' Gray-Dort Special? Tomato Plants—15 cents per dozen, or $1.00 per 100. South-end Green House.

Are you going to get the Gray-Dort Special car that the Veterans' are going to give away?
