Charles McKinley, of Ayr, has been arrested at the instance of the Woodstock Wagon Company, whose agent he was, charged with forging notes and orders.

EVIDENCE AT INQUEST. Walter Widden's evidence will be heard at tonight's session of the Ninham inquest. Other witnesses may be heard. The jury will then be asked to find their verdict. LONDON PRESBYTERY.

At a meeting of the London Presbytery held at Ailsa Oraig Monday night, Rev. J. H. Bruce, B.A., was designated to the work in the mission field of Honan, China, and Rev. Mr. Gordon, of New York State, a Canadian by birth, was formally received as a minister in the Presbyterian Church in Canada. A committee consisting of Rev. Messrs. D. R. Drummond, convener, W. H. Rude, Jas. Little, W. J. Clark and Dr. Johnston was appointed to examine a draft copy of a book of family prayers, entitled Aids to Family Worship, prepared by a committee of the General Assembly, and to report to the September meeting.

COMBINED PICNIC. The Methodists, Baptists and Presbyterians of South London and the Maitland Street Baptists, picnicked at Port Stanley yesterday, the combined excursion numbering over a thousand people. Instead of providing the usual races, the Sunday schools paid the purailway fares and the children got all the fun they wanted at the beach. A couple of baseball matches and tugs-of-war were the only games indulged in. First the Methodists and Presbyterians engaged for the base-ball supremacy, the former winning on a score of 21 to 1. The Methodists and Baptists then played a game and the latter won handily. In the tugof-war contests the Presbyterians defeated all comers. A short open air meeting was held early in the afternoon. Rev. Messrs. Stuart and Howson spoke, referring to the gratifying evidence which the picnic afforded of the growing unity among denominations of the Christian church.
