A CURE FOR CONSTIPATION. Constipation comes from the refusal of the excretory organs to perform their duties regularly from contributing causes, usually disordered digestion. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, prepared on scientific principles, are so compounded that certain ingredients in them pass through the stomach and act upon the bowels, so as to remove their contents and arouse them to bear testimony to their power to bring action. Many thousands are in this respect.

The Canadian Woman's Press Club, who, under the direction of Mr. Geo. H. Hart, of Miss A. H. Newman, and through the kindness of the C. P. R. and the Wabash, visited the World's Fair in St. Louis. Yesterday the excursionists passed through this city on their way to Montreal. On the return one day was spent in Chicago, and another day in St. Louis. The Canadian press women who accompanied the excursion were: Miss Helen Andrews, the hostess at a very novel and most enjoyable affair in the form of a "Hey Rubie" party, on Wednesday night at her home, Richmond street south. The guests, some 60 in number, and who were attired in costumes appropriate to the occasion, met at the scene in a hay rack. The greater part of the evening was spent in dancing on the lawn, which was beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns. The music was furnished by Tony Vita's orchestra.

The closing recital of the vocal pupils of Miss Belle Brown was given in the Collegiate Institute assembly hall last evening. Interested, as it was, with the recital, numbers of the Misses Eleanor and Jeannette Mason, Hazel Smith and Wynnyfred Short, and piano numbers of Misses McKellar, pupil of Miss McLennan, and Al-bright, pupil of Miss Steele, it proved to be one of a very interesting nature.

Among those who also took part were Misses Annie E. McKellar (Lafleur), Edith Irvine (Lobley), Maude Bell, Lena Lowe, Amanda Murray (Lackwood), Marie Sims (Thamesford), Mai Willis, Bertha Trebilcock (The Grove), and Messrs. George Robinson and Thomas Nichol (Glennworth).

—At Woodland Cemetery yesterday afternoon a monument was unveiled by the Woodmen of the late Alexander Crawford, of Thorncliffe Camp. Fitzgerald, head clerk, and W. Saunders, of Capt. No. 1. A quartet consisting of Messrs. Charles Harrison and Mr. Thomas Lo-ward, Messrs. J. H. Marshall and Mr. Templeton, rendered vocal music. The members of the society who acted in the play were: C. C. J. W. Bourne; A. L. Henry Duffin; bank-er, Thomas Duffin; clerk, W. F. Guest; watchman, D. Monks; sentry, James Davis; orator, J. W. Saunders; Cracker, director of St. George's Church, Thorncliffe.

STIPENDS ARE NOT TO BE ADVANCED

Ministers at Anglican Mission Stations to Remain the Same as Before.

The mission fund debate which began at the Synod of Huron yesterday morning, occupied the attention of the synod at the afternoon session. It arose over a motion by Ven. Archdeacon Davis to raise the stipends of ministers at mission stations. The bishop had accepted the offer of the duty to give their individual services towards raising money, and the alternatives to consider were whether they should carry the amendment to refer the matter to the executive committee or pass the increase. The matter was debated by a large portion of the synod, and the vote was close on the amendment, which was lost. The motion for the first reading of the bill was then voted upon by orders. The clergy favored it, but the laity opposed it, and the bill was defeated. This means that stipends will remain unchanged.

The chief discussion in the evening was upon a proposed change in the hymnology. Rev. Canon Davis moved for the authorization by the synod of the "Hymns, Ancient and Modern." Dr. Shippl seconded the motion on the ground that the book was the best one available. It was decided, however, on the motion of Rev. W. Hinde, to memorialize the general synod to point at its next meeting a committee for the purpose of compiling a hymnal for use within its jurisdiction.

Archdeacon Davis moved the following resolution, the object of which was to save expenses of management, and was carried.

"That a committee be appointed to inquire into and report upon the advisability of placing diocesan missions under the control of either the general or diocesan synod, so as to form one department of home or domestic missions for all Canada. That such committee be authorized to arrange for bringing the subject before the other synods in the ecclesiastical province of Canada, and to correspond with any similar committees that may be appointed by other synods."

On motion of Archdeacon Young a canon was amended in committee of the whole and then carried in synod to read as follows: Any person collecting for the benefit of any parish or congregation in this diocese, or for any special object outside the objects regularly authorized by the synod of the diocese or the general synod, must first obtain the permission of the clergyman of the parish or mission in which he proposes to collect. But after three months' notice to the clergyman such permission shall not be necessary in the case of an agent acting in behalf of either the general or the diocesan synod, when duly authorized by the bishop of this diocese.

During the sitting of the synod yesterday the rules of order were suspended, and a short address given by Mr. W. G. Davis, representative of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, who announced that 500 laymen in the Diocese of Huron had joined the brotherhood.

The complete returns of the voting yesterday are as follows:

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends to this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by all druggists.
