Mayor Beck Is Again the Conservative Candidate CANDIDATES FOR

Nominated at a Convention Held of more pay and greater advance. in the Conservative Club Rooms Last Night.

At a meeting of local Conservatives held in the Conservative Club last night, Mayor Beck was again nominated as the party's standard-hearer for the Provincial House.

Mr. William Gray, president of the club, occupied the chair, and with him on the platform were Major Beattie, ex-M, P., Dr. J. D. Wilson, Dr. Roome, ex-M. P., Dr. English, Ald. Greer, Ald. Judd, Messrs. J. R. Minhinnick, Edmund Meredith, K.C., and John Christie.

The mayor was the only person placed in nomination. He was proposed by Major Beattie, seconded by Dr. Wilson, Mr. Gray then introduced Mr. Beck speaking in the highest terms of his services to the party.

The mayor, after thanking the meeting for the honor conferred upon him (which he accepted), said that when he first sought parliamentary honors in this city, he was defeated by unfair means, but the next time he won. and his friends had fought honestly. 'Today you are a strong party,' said Mr. Beck. "There is no mushroom strength in the party; no honeycombing. You are upon a strong and solid foundation in municipal matters. and I am happy to say that we may all be proud of the men who sit at our governing boards.' Continuing he said Premier Ross has now come off his high horse and is ready to ask forgiveness of the electors for the charges of corruption preferred against him by the Conservatives. The Premier was now crying "Save me from my friends." What did it mean? That he realized he had of the temperance people who had been his friends from the time he had taken mayor admitted that he had What I have done at the city hall, he said, I have done with a view to the good of those concerned. The mayor also awarded himself great credit for the reduction of the number of school trustees. Referring to the new assessment act passed by the Ontario Government, he said he believed that the fact that there had been practically no appeals this year showed the wisdom of that act, and the honest work of the commissioner. His own realty assessment had been increased 40 per cent, but he had no objected. He was prepared to stand upon his record in regard to this act alone. They were not taking the money out of the pockets of the poor man under it, but out of those who were able to pay. "Ability to pay" should be the basis of taxation, he be lieved. This was the stand he took. Referring to Niagara power, the mayor said the Ontario Government was to blame for granting franchises to private corporations. There were four Annual Entertainment at St. George's, London Junction.

St. George's Church Sunday school London Junction, held their Christmas entertainment last evening. Despite able seat was occupied by the scholars, their parents and friends. The school, numbering 120 pupils, so far from the usual dependence of Sunday schools on the congregation, helps to swell the general revenue, after contributing generously to the schemes. Needless to say, the entertainment was a success in every particular, thanks mainly to he teachers' committee, Misses Angus, Little, Murdoch, Taylor and Isaac. Rev. Hector Mackay presided. Though the school stands first for high average attendance, he urged that for the coming year there is room for something better yet. At the close of the programme boxes of candy and fruit were distributed to all present.
