PRICE TWO CENTS.

Murderer Makes Sensational Confession.

GIRL CHOKED AND DRUGGED

New York Police Believe Slaying of White Girl Missionary Due to Jealousy.

with prosecution and confused with obtain them from Mr. Beck and forrapid-fire questions, Chung Sin, one- ward them at the earliest possible time roommate of Leon Ling, told this under the terrific pressure of the TOT DROWNS IN A TUB "third degree" the little Chinaman admitted that he had seen the body in Leon Ling's room, that he had touched it while it was still warm, that he had smelled drugs and had watched Leo Ling's preparations for placing body in the trunk where it was decomposed, last Friday night. Chung Sin, in fact, described almost everything concerning the slaying of Major-General Franz Sigel's granddaughter except the actual commission of the crime. He denied any im- McDonough, the one-year-old daughplication in it and protested stoutly ter of Mr. David McDonough, met a that he was ignorant of the where- pitiful death yesterday afternoon. She abouts of Leon Ling, the supposed was playing in the back yard, when slayer. After the inquisition he was espying a stick floating in a tub of taken before Coroner Harburger and water. She climbed up the tub in an held in $10,000 bail in the house of detention, to await the inquest.

terday morning at West Galway, N. her in either direction, and the tot Y., a small hamlet near Amsterdam, was drowned miserably within a few and was brought to New York this feet of the backdoor and her mother. morning. Immediately after his arrest up-state and all during the trip by TELEGRAPH OPERATOR questions, bullied, persuaded and en-langled in a mass of significant questions. It was not until late today, however, that his spirit was sufficient-were offered, as the case may be, for him to cast aside his air of stolidness and tell of the death of the young missionary. Then, smoking eigarette after cigarette to quiet his nerves, the Chinaman told brokenly, but with brutal bluntness of the girl's death. He was surrounded at the time in him through a grilling. Mr. Ward and drew the story from Chung Sin's lips. store is at the present time. He was told that Leon Ling had been captured and had laid the blame on his (Chung Sin's) shoulders. This, together with the persistent hammer- throughout the country. ing at the prisoner, brought the confession. It was made partly in English and partly in Chinese, for there was an interpreter present, and

BANDITS IN ROCKIES GOT THE WRONG TRAIN

(Continued on Page Two.)

Were After a Bullion Special. But Halted Regular Express -Posse After Them.

Winnipeg, June 22.-Local officials of the C. P. R. Company were notified of a robbery this morning. Vancouver train No. 97, was held up by six masked men at Ducks, B. C., last night. They had mistaken it for No. 5, carrying ninety silver bars of seventy pounds each to the coast. Two men climbed over the tender at Notch Hill and compelled the engineer to stop at Ducks, where four men were waiting alongside a camp fire. All were armed with Winchesbreak open the express car, but found Dr. Rutledge, Rev. E. B. Lanceley and Brennan. nothing in it. Immediately afterwards the robbers got in a boat and started for the north side of Shuswap

Information here indicates after the robbers had gone through the express and baggage cars, the colonist and first-class cars, they apparently lost their nerve and fled for the boat. The sleeping cars were not Officers are after the

MEAT INSPECTION

Packers Want Compensation For Such Meat as Is Condemned.

[Special to The Advertiser.] meat inspection provision to local lins, Rev. Dr. Sage, Rev. W. H. meat business and compensation for Claris, Rev. Dr. Rutledge, Rev. J. G. animals condemned and seized, was urged before Sir Wilfred Laurier and Hon, Sydney Fisher this morning by a deputation which represented Blackwell & Flavelle, Toronto, Lating N. How Hong, Rev. Dr. Rutlenge, Rev. J. G. Inkster, Rev. W. M. Walker, Mr. E. R. Wilson, Rev. Thomas Mitchell, Rev. and M. Moffitt, Rev. D. S. Hamilton, Rev. W. Moffitt, Rev. W. J. Graham, Rev. G. Blackwell & Flavelle, Toronto, Laing N. Hazen, Rev. E. B Lanceley. & Co., of Montreal, Matthews, of Ottawa, Hatton, of Collingwood, Fear- The Late Mrs. C. B. Jenkins. man, of Hamilton, all big firms doing Mrs. Catherine Bell Jenkins, both inter-provincial and export business. The delegation declared that the provisions of the pure food act, to which they were subjected, should be of her life. The deceased who was an extended by provincial legislation to local butchers and packers who business in a single province only, considerable period at Yorks public school, South Dorchester, Elgin County, and at Dewer's public school, Yar-Mr. Fisher were urged to use their inluence with provincial legislatures to eve the request carried out.

Chinese Roommate of the WATER EXTENSION PLANS SENT TO DR. HODGETTS

Department at Toronto Ask for Further Particulars From the City.

The plans for the proposed water extensions have been sent to Dr. Hodgetts, provincial health officer, and he wrote Mayor Stevely acknowledging the receipt of them. Further details are necessary, however, and he has written for the ca-pacity of each well for 24 hours, and the manner of distribution of the water. "We must supply the department New York, June 22. — Baited and intimidated by detectives, threatened with particulars asked for, nor do I know with process. that our engineer does, but we will

Little Hamilton Girl Meets a Tragic Fate While Playing in Back Yard.

Hamilton, June 23.-Loren Davis effort to get the piece of wood, toppled inwards, her face down, and her feet Chung Sin is 35 years old and a na- kicking the outside of the tub. Her tive of Canton. He was arrested yes- strength was not sufficient to propel or sufficient inducements E. H. Millington, of M. C. R., Was Well Known to Many

The late E. H. Millington, superintendent of telegraphs on the M. C. R., the office of Assistant District Attor- who died in St. Thomas yesterday, was ney Ward by detectives from police well known in London, having been an headquarters who previously had put operator in this city many years ago. At the time of the Victoria disaster District Attorney Jerome also were May 24, 1881, he was chief operator present, and from what can be learned, for the Dominion Telegraph Company, was Mr. Jerome himself who finally whose office stood where A. Tillmann's

He was on the keys at that time continuously for 24 hours, sending out accounts of the dreadful disaster Some of the old-timers here remember him well. "I do not recollect him at the time," said Mr. Furness, manager of the G. N. W. "I have a recollection that he was here, but I do not remember clearly. We were fearfully busy at the time, and it is quite difficult to recall all that happened." Some other operators were positive he was here, and remember him quite

A BANQUET FOR THREE LOCAL MINISTERS

Rev. Dr. Rutledge, E. B. Lanceley and D. S. Hamilton Honored by Association.

A complimentary banquet under the auspices of the combined societies of London Ministerial Association and the Lord's Day Alliance was tendered garet Flynn. to the three ministers who are about to leave the city to take up their They compelled the fireman to work elsewhere. These were Rev.

Rev. D. S. Hamilton. The banquet was given in the Smallman & Ingram tearoom, part of which was screened off and prettily decorated for the occasion.

Rev. Canon Hague, of the Ministerial Association, presided, assisted by Rev. J. G. Stewart, the president of the Lord's Day Alliance. Rev. Mr. Stewart moved a very hearty resolution of appreciation of the work that the three gentlemen had done while in the city and expressed the regret of the two societies that circumstances had compelled them to sever their connection with the work in the city of London.

Those present were: Rev. Canon Hague, Rev. J. G. Stuart, Rev. A. K. Ottawa, June 23.—Extension of the Birks, Rev. J. M. Baird, Rev. J. Raw-accomplished teacher, taught for a considerable period at Yorks public mouth Township. Besides her husband, she is survived by three children, Mary Catherine, Norman and bremen.

At Cape Race—Megantic, from Liverlar to the Dominion act. The minislar to the promised to use their influence to respectively. Much sympathy is felt lar to the request carried out.

Bremen.

At Cape Race—Megantic, from Liverpool.

At Montreal—Lake Manitoba, from Liverfor the bereaved family.

PRIZE BABY AT THE ENGLISH PICNIC. Helen Marguerite Cartledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cartledge, 518 Pall Mall street, who won the cup donated by Dr. Drake, for the prettiest baby at the English picnic.

DID NOTORIOUS BILL MINER PASS THROUGH LONDON? the breakdown. In the early

Passenger Who Resembled the Famous Outlaw Was Aboard No it was carried out to a successful issue and a very fine lot of prizes were 6 on the G. T. R. When It Pulled in From the West-Advertiser Reporter Had Peep at Him.

Did Bill Miner pass through the city this morning on No. 6 on the This morning a grey-haired, grizzled looking man, the regular double of Bill Miner passed through on that calmly repose in a car passing through train going east. An Advertiser reporter was notified of the fact that a man suspiciously watched him from Sarnia to London

He hurried over-just in time to get wanted. a good look at the suspect, but there with the traveller.

PRIZE WINNERS

duration during which he was heading The face certainly resembled that for the east would have tired him, and of the western outlaw, and from all on reaching London he would be con-arpearance it might have been the vinced that pursuit was impossible, notorious hold-up man of the Rockies. and enjoyed a well-earned rest.

VERY LARGE CROWD AT SACRED HEART WENT TO DETROIT

-Souvenirs Presented to the Ladies.

It took fifteen of the C. P. R.'s largest

It pulled out of London at 7:20 and ar-

The accommodation in every detail was Souvenir for Ladies.

Every lady was presented with a handsome souvenir package of bonbons by the McCormick and Perrin firms, and a dainty

A Blg Crowd.

The railroad authorities state that between 1,200 and 1,500 people were on the

FIRST FOR MEADOWBROOK.

ing nine goals to five for the English

TOMORROW-FAIR AND WARM.

FORECASTS.
Toronto, June 23—8 a.m.
Today and Thursday—Moderate to fresh

Today and Thursday—Moderate to fresh south and west winds; mostly fair and decidedly warm, but showers and thunderstorms in many localities.

TEMPERATURES.

Today.

Stations.

Stations.

Stations.

Today.

Stations.

Today.

Stations.

Today.

Stations.

Today.

Stations.

Today.

Toda

algary

London, June 23. - The Meadowtroit until tomorrow evening.

There was one thing, however, that tion of the stranger, and that was the pseudo-Bill was asleep.

"jibe," in the hasty examina-

Names of Those Who Disting- Fifteen Coach Loads Went Via London; Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. This is the same request made to the the C. P. R. on Grocers' uished Themselves During Picnic.

the Year. THE LIST OF HONORS MOST ENJOYABLE TIME

Many Handsome Prizes Donated by Spent by All in the City of the Straits Priests and People of This City.

The annual distribution of prizes took place yesterday at the Sacred Heart Academy, many of the clergy and several prominent citizens being present. The following is the list of prize-winners:

Honorary Distinctions. The first medallion and ribbon of Miss Mary Hoffman. The third ribbon of merit to Miss rived in Detroit shortly before 11. Venita Dudgeon. The fifth ribbon to Miss Elizabeth first class, and those who went spent a most enjoyable time.

The sixth ribbon to Miss Reina Brodhead. The seventh ribbon to Miss Marie Wilson. Ribbon in day school to Miss Mar-

The first green ribbon to Miss Genevieve Price. The second ribbon to Miss Irene

The third ribbon to Miss Mary Hal

The pink ribbons to: Miss Marie Sullivan. Miss Eleanor McPhillips. Miss Lena Short. Miss Agnes Harrison.

Miss Helen Cook. Miss Marion Coles. Miss Margaret Scatcherd, Miss Kathleen Coles. Miss Constance Givens, Miss Eleanor Dwyer. Miss Marie Amvot. Miss Gussle Wilson. Miss Barbara Wilson. Miss Louise Duffield. Miss Agnes Duffield.

Miss Frances Stevely.

Miss Gertrude Manley. Literary Honors. The highest literary honors of the nstitution are conferred in order merit upon: Miss Reina Brodhead. Miss Mary Hoffman.

Prize for exemplary conduct—Miss Continued on Page Ten, STEAMERS ARRIVED.

June 22.—At Glasgow-Grampian, from Montreal. At Liverpool-Lake Erie, from Mon-At Dover-Kroonland, from New York, At Copenhagen-United States, from New York.
At Hamburg-President Lincoln, from New York.
At Genca-Virginia. from New York; Batavia, from New York.
At New York—Kalser Wilhelm II. From

Halifax WEATHER NOTES. WEATHER NOTES.

The pressure is comparatively low over the northern portion of the continent and high over the South Atlantic and North Pacific States.

from the 'lake region to the Maritime Provinces, attended by a few scattered thunderstorms, while in the Western Provinces it is still more or less showery and cool

ENGLISH PICNIC BIG SUCCESS

Large Crowd Had a Most Enjoyable Day at Port Stanley Yesterday.

MANY BABIES IN THE SHOW

-Weather Not so Bad, After All.

The English picnic yesterday was a great success. In spite of the rain and the unsatisfactory train service, there was a fine crowd present, and all enjoyed themselves to the limit. It is estimated that 3.000 people were on the grounds. The programme was rich in unique features, and all proved pleasing in the extreme.

The early trains did not bring down the numbers anticipated owing to the be as easy." rainstorm that broke over the city beore the train left. The breakdown of the engine on the Pere Marquette at noon prevented a large number from going to Port, but MAYOR IS OFF TO those who did go had plenty of fun.

Some Rain. The Seventh Regiment Band went down on the early train with the officers in charge of the picnic. The Twenty-sixth Band was to have gone down on the 1:20 train, but they did not arrive until 5 o'clock owing to

In the early afternoon the gramme of sports was run off. rain interfered with it somewhat, but distributed among the victors. The crowd adjourned to the Heights in the afternoon for the rest of the on arrival. programme. Here the unique features interesting. The Baby Show.

Chief among them was the baby show. This created great enthusiasm, and it seldom happens that the competition is so keen at one of these

It is not likely that William would Thirty-one "kiddles" were lined up a large city with a reward on his before the judges, Dr. F. P. Drake, C. However, several trainmen who B. Hunt and J. I. A. Hunt. The task was no easy one, and it is suspected are quite convinced that he is the man that the judges on more than one occasion were anxious to escape the re-They explain the fact that he slept sponsibility. They were a very fine lot of voungsters and there was little to choose among them.

After considerable deliberation the first prize was allotted to Mrs. Cartledge, 518 Pall Mall street, and she was presented with Dr Drake's prize for the best baby of the show.

Other Prizes. There were prizes in abundance for this event. Twelve cups were presented in addition to the prizes donated by Dr. Drake, and were awarded Mrs. Cartledge, Mrs. J. Smith, West Gramlich, Mrs. Rockford, Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Metcalfe, Mrs. J. Lawrence, jun., Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. W. Amor. Orders for brooches were presented to the following mo- effect. thers: Mesdames Hallim, Wilson, Rogers, Percy Wakeling, Bannerman, Gibbs, Baldwin, Wood, Bates, Clarke, Ball. Goatcher, Sandercott, Wilkins, Widdicombe, Marley, Williams and

The Largest Family. Not the least interesting was the contest for the prize for the largest family. The honors in this event went easily to Mr. and Mrs. David Rogers, coaches and a baggage car to accommo-Highland Park, South London. They date the crowd that went to Detroit this presented eleven children to the morning, and will picnic with the Retail judges, as follows: Daniel, jun., Flor-Grocers. The train, which is one of the ence, Fred, Henry, Albert, Maud, Emlongest single excursion trains that ever ma, Ethel, Bert, Irene and Alice, the left London, was drawn by the big C. P. baby. Mr. Rogers created great merit have been given by the votes of the pupils ratified by the religious to liam Kerr.

R. mogul 2614, in charge of Engineer Wil-amusement, when asked the baby's name, but after consultation with his name, but after consultation with his wife, he discovered it. Mr. Rogers is 40 years of age and his wife 41. children are dead. (Continued on Page Ten.)

JOHN LAWTON DIED

lunch was served to everybody in the train.

The grocers picnicked at one of the parks in Detroit, and this afternoon took in the ball game. They will stay in De-His Barn in Appin.

Nearly all the stores were open last night until 10 o'clock, so that citizens might be accommodated, and all are closed today.

brook (Long Island) polo team won the first match played at Hurlingham today for the American polo cup, scorpiece of the skull about two inches long and nearly an inch wide had been noof. Mr. Lawton never recovered consciousness. The remains were taken to his home in Appin last night, and the funeral will be held from there probably on Thursday. THE REV. DR. M'CRAE MADE GRAND CHIEFTAIN

Toronto, June 23 .- At a meeting of Grand Camp, Sons of Scotland, this morning, the following officers were elected: Dr. W. C. Gilchrist, grand chief; Rev. Dr. McCrae, London, grand chieftain; Lieut.-Col. D. M. Robertson, grand secretary; Alex. Hay, grand Spelling and Composition Papers Appeared Easy for the Little Ones-But Breakers Are Ahead and Will Be Met With in Shape of Arithmetic Paper.

There were 423 children who appeared at the Collegiate Institute this be easy," remarked another, who had evidently made eareful calculations morning for the opening session of the entrance examination. "About the same number as last year," said School Inspector Erwards, year," said School Inspector Edwards, pupils trying the examination. This morning was, as one of the teachers expressed it, "a breather." The examinations, spelling and composition, seemed to have been satis-

the children as they filed out. "There wasn't a hard word in it," said one little girl of the spelling paper. "I only hope geography will "Composition was easy, too,"

factory , to judge from the contented,

factory, to judge from the contented,

Will Be Made If Beck Scheme Is Installed

Mayor Stevely left for Toronto at noon today over the C. P. R., to interview the underwriters regarding the

"When the interview was arranged rush. were displayed, and they proved most for I expected to be in Toronto in connection with the difficulties over the septic tank matter," said his worship. "That meeting was postponed until some time later, possibly next week. However, we will be able to get the don & Southeastern Railway Board.

INTERSWITCHING LINE

city council some time ago. The board has no objection to the proposal, and a communication will be forwarded to the commission to that Col. J. W. Little presided at the

TRUSTEE STRONG IS

Colborne Street School Could Not Be Made Respectable for Less Than Small

Førtune. Not a dollar of the $7,000 debentures been made known, a thorough investia new building. Mr. Nutter states that the school is in a very bad condition. The walls many, while others assert that a are not sound, and the sanitary condition of the building is also bad. Throwing Money Away.

"I certainly would not vote to spend a dollar on that school after Mr. John Lawton, of Appin, died in St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday afternoon as a result of being kicked in the head in his stable some weeks ago by a horse. Just how the accident happened will never probably be known, as Mr. Lawton was found by "I certainly would not vote to spend a dollar on that school after listening to Mr. Nutter's report," said Trustee Strong today. "The building is virtually condemned from every standpoint, and it would be unwise to spend a single dollar on it at the property of th known, as Mr. Lawton was found by present time. I am sure the members members of his family lying in a pool of the board were not aware of the of blood on the stable floor. He was exact conditions when the request was hurried to St. Joseph's Hospital and made for $7,000 dependings, but now made for $7,000 debentures, but now operated on, and it was found that a that they do know, there is no possibility of expending a single dollar on the old building. It will be left over cut out cleanly by the horses sharp until another year, and then a new school will be erected. The present one has done service now for many years, and it is time an up-to-date building took its place. There is no danger of spending money on improveopinion that it would be unwise to spend anything on repairs. Next year debentures will be asked

Mr. Blanchard Explains. Mr. Thos. Blanchard, who was sum

Health Officer Hutchinson in connection with the sewer in front of his market, denies that he ever refused to allow the city officials to clean the sewer. "I deny absolutely having tried For the first time this morning a to prevent any city official from cleanhandsome new dining car was put on ing the sewer," he said today. "On Grand Trunk express No. 1, and will Friday last Market Clerk Maker came be attached to the train every Mon- to me and asked to have men clean day Wednesday and Saturday. The it. I requested him to wait until the is one of the largest and most afternoon as I was extremely busy.

perhaps from the bitter experience of former Waterloo. A New Definition.

ike it anyway.' The danger time for the children competing is not yet. Experience teaches that arithmetic is the rock thead for the girls, and grammar for the boys.

Presiding at the examinations this morning were Inspector Edwards, Principal McCutcheon, Inspector Sullivan and Mr. Geo. R. Theobald. The examinations will be over on

OTTAWAY AVENUE MAN SEE INSURANCE MEN HURT IN A CISTERN

Will Ascertain What Reduction Was Lowering It Into Ground

underwriters' view of the situation, and think that will be something worth

Solicitor Makes Request of Lon-Stripped of Decorations by Relic-

At the meeting of the Southeastern Railway Company, held yesterday af-ternoon, the annual report was presented and passed. Mr. W. Kingsmill, of St. Thomas, appeared before the board and asked their crime London; Mrs. John Lamey, 500 Otta- switching line with the Grand Trunk.

meeting.

AGAINST THE REPAIRS

issued for the purpose will be spent ing in the church, but no fire has on the Colborne street school. Since the opposition of the residents of King street and vicinity has gation into the conditions of the chase this stove at a high figure, school has been made by City Architect but the congregation refused Nutter, and he reports that it will cost part with it, saying that when it RESULT OF INJURIES so much to make the school habitable was taken out to be destroyed. so much to make the school habitable was taken out of the church it was held in this church is predicted by minister will be appointed at the Detroit Conference to be held in for a new school to cost about $25,000.

moned to the police court by Medical

"I didn't know what franchises neant," remarked . a. versatile young ady, "so I put in friendship; it sounds

When It Pulled Him in

Mr. William Land, of 364 Ottaway his home this morning while helping Commissioner Darch is in Toronto to put in a cistern. on business and will meet his worship been dug and when the big cistern was being let down it went with a Mr. Land was holding on to one side and was pulled with the cistern and went into it head first. He fell heavily on his head and was rendered unconscious. Dr. Wishart attended Mr. Land and found him suffering greatly from the shock and from the effects of the fall.

As far as can be learned no bones were broken, but Mr. Land will be laid up for some time MICHIGAN CENTRAL WANTS CRIME-STAINED CHURCH CRUMBLING TO RUIN

> Hunters Seeking Souvenirs of Carmichael Tragedy.

Port Huron, Mich., June 23.—The Rattle Run Methodist Episcopal Church, located in Columbus Township, and the scene of the terrible of Jan. 8 last, when Rev. censent to apply to the Dominion rail- J. H. Carmichael murdered Gideon way commission to put in an inter- Browning and then burned his body in the church stove, is fast falling to decay. Many of the stained glass windows have been broken and are now boarded up, while in the interior seats are upturned, and the place is completely stripped of its former neat decorations. Relic gatherers are responsible for this, and there are many of these people visiting the church They have broken the windows and carry d away pieces of the glass for souvenirs, those who were successful in gaining admission into the church slipped articles from there into their pockets to be carried away. The only thing that has been changed in the church since the crime was committed is the floor, It has been scrubbed and the bloodstains, where the insane pastor chopped his victim up previous to placing him in the stove, have been removed. The stove in which the body of Browning was burned is still standthe victim were removed. Many relic hunters and vaudeville companies have tried to pur-That services will never again

LOCAL POLICE ON WATCH FOR CHINESE MURDERER

Chief Williams, However, Does Not Believe He Is Likely to Come This Way.

The local police and detectives are keeping the closest kind of a watch for Leon Ling, the Chinaman who is supposed to have murdered Elsie Sigel in New York a few days ago. Several other trustees were spoken An officer meets every train that goes to regarding this, and they were of the through and every Chinaman is closely scrutinized. A great many Celestials go through on the various trains, but so far none of them correspond to the description of Leon Ling. "I hardly think he is likely to come through here," Chief Williams told The Advertiser, this afternoon. "Still you can never tell. I think he will be caught all right. Of course sometimes it takes a little while, but I think the police will run him down sooner The murder is the cause of a great deal of talk throughout the city.

Late George Donnelly.

The funeral of George Donnelly was held this morning from the residence corr plete dining cars in the service, and is beautifully fitted up. It was well filled with patrons even before the train pulled out this morning.

alternoon as I was extremely busy. Then they refused to clean it at all. I of his brother, James Donnelly, 308 of his brother, James