NINE MEN ESCAPED THROUGH A WINDOW GIRL IS ARRESTED

Mary Tidy, Young and Pretty, Comes Into Court as a Vagrant.

CAME HERE FROM WINDSOR

Police Observed Number of Visitors and Made Raid on House.

Found in a King street residence, aleged to have been in the company of nine young men, all of whom escaped through rear window when the police approached the place, a pretty young girl, giving her name at police headquarters as Mar Tidy, was arrested Sunday.

The police had been watching the house during the afternoon, and had their suspicions confirmed when they saw men entering and leaving the house at different Before Magistrate J. C. Judd this morn ing, the girl was arraigned as a vagrant. According to officers at the police station, she had been in the city since May During that time, it is said that she had had no visible means of support, and has lawyer at the next meeting of court of been staying at various places. She is scarcely out of her teens.

When asked by the court where her home was she stated that she had come to London from Windsor, where relatives

"You're getting in wrong here," said the magistrate gravely. "You should not be in London. I'm going to make inquiries regarding your relatives and find able tax, but they do intend to make out whether your home is in Windsor." The girl was remanded till her story is without any notification. One city raced down. without any notification. One city church is assessed for $206, and antraced down.

It is said on good authority that police are watching similar cases in London. In many instances girls from small country towns have come to the city to obtain employment and have fallen into lax ways. Every effort is being made by police to down cases of this nature, as they are said to be increasing with alarm-

IN POLICE COURT.

Yalcho Midechoff and Mike Jokoadinna, two Russians, charged with trespassing on the M. C. R., were fined $2 and costs each, when they appeared before Magistrate J. C. Judd this morning. They explained in broken English that they had come from Toronto, but had arrived in London when the town was closed up. There was nothing else to do but sleep in a box car, they said. The court seemed to think that there was at least one al-

The action started as an arbitration between Robert Davies and the James Bay Railway to determine the amount that the railway should pay for land taken or a right-of-way through the property of the brick works, and the amount of damages that should be paid for shale and property, the development of which was prevented by reason of railway's occupation. Before proceedings were under-taken the railway first offered $3,000 and later $15,000 as payment in full. The majority of the arbitrators made an award of $232,000 for all damages and property railway act. Strawberries Practically Over for the Season-Prices of Today's Market.

Only a few wholesale buyers were on the market this morning; the only offering was hay, which sold slowly at $13 and $14 a ton. About sixteen loads of varying quality were on sale. Strawberries, in the opinion of farmers, are practically over for this year. A few crates in scattered small lots were on the square Saturday, selling mostly at about 15 and 16 cents a box. Cherries will be for sale in this market in larger quantities this week than they have been yet. The crop s plentiful, according to the farmers, but they say it is doubtful if the price will go lower than 7 cents a box. Saturday prices were 71/2 and 8 cents a

POLICE BELIEVE WOMAN MURDERED MRS. BAILEY

Investigation Into the Freeport Mystery Has Narrowed to Early Arrest.

[Canadian Press.]

Freeport, N.Y., July 6.-Despite assertions of Dr. Edward Carman that several shots were fired at him last night by a man on a bicycle, near Rockville Centre, while returning to his home here after visiting a patient at Roseville, Lewis Smith, district attorney, and Sheriff Pettit today declared they were still firm in the belief that it was a woman who shot and killed Mrs. Louise Bailey in Dr. Carman's office last Tuesday night. Sheriff Pettit today admitted that the investigation had narrowed down to three points, each of which leads to the same person or persons and from information now in his hands he was led to believe that an arrest may Ontario & Western. 24

The quest today was not expected to develop any startling facts not already known. Only the obvious points in the murder of Mrs. Bailey were expected to be gone over by the witnesses today. One witness is Mrs. Platt Conklin. mother of Dr. Carman's wife. Mrs. Conklin was taken ill on the second day after the murder. Her testimony may be taken at the Carman home. George Golder, a teamster, identified

Mrs. Carman as the woman he saw on the porch that night as he entered Dr. Carman's office. Mrs. Conklin, it is believed, will testify that Mrs. Powell, her daughter, sat with her on the porch for a brief time. Among the other witnesses to testify today are Wm. T. Bailey husband of the slain woman; his daughter, Miss Madelaine Bailey, and Mrs. Bailey's aged mother. Mrs. Jennie Duryea. Another witness is Cecilia Coleman a negress employed as a cook in the Carman household, Mrs. Carman's father and Mrs. Eliabeth Variance, the latter being named as the nurse whose face was slapped in Dr. Carman's office by Mrs. Carman, the incident which led to the installation by his wife of a telephonic
