UNEXPECTED WIN

Reported to have Federal Forces in Mulato--Different from Federal Source

NAVARRO'S ARMY EXPECTED AT

Situation of Opposition in Neighborhood City--Observations Axiators

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Advice received here today the Mexican federal troops feared severe defeat in Mulato, reported to have been routed for 24 hours. According to this message force lost but two men, several horses are described as and many of the dead are left lying on the field. 300 numbered the rebels. They are familiar with that see the federals were caught and hemmed in by the ene accounts the Mexican troops retreating rapidly.

Frederico, Texas, is the Mexican town to Mulato, were received by way of. The dispatches are vague believed they refer to a of the fight reported on. The federals are said to have ed 300, and the rebels 200.

Federal Report Diff MEXICO CITY, Feb. 11. t oel Dlorio from El Pa shows of an encounter between of General Llanos, Mexico under Toribio Ortega Salgado, in Cerro Mulato, the date of the occurrence eight federals were killed, losses were unknown. They were said to have been 325 the rebels 200. The rebels entrenched in irrigation ditch Rio Grande. The rebels were according to the dispatch, instigating resistance.

Situation at Juarez EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 11. politico, or mayor, of Juarez day that he expected General to enter the town across the morning. He issued orders parations be made for a monstration. Aside from statement, there is nothing the report. Navarro is held in barracks to be proceeded. They blew up a bridge on Central eight miles south last night. If Orozco intended the road, which is being improbable, the fight probably occur near the wrecked bridge.

Members of the junta a pared today to state that in a position to fight. Provisional Secretary of and as asserted that Orozco actly 387 men with him to that during the last week mitted a hundred armed men offered themselves, for they brought no rifles. He expressed that without affirming it, that rival of the ammunition was Blanco.

The usual reports of he with Navarro were cur without a shadow of ceas with every reason to claim.

Aeroplane Observat Rene Simon, the French scouting flight into Mexico day to locate Pasquill Orozco surrecto leader and his ar Simon, in his Bleriot. flew over the scene of last engagement and then st out over the foothills, ma circle, taking in a radius of or more, flying at a con low altitude.
