

CO-PARTNERSHIP NOTICE.

THOS. W. SMITH & SON, for the carrying on of the business.

MERCHANT TAILORS

GENERAL OUTFITTERS,

At the old stand heretofore occupied by THOMAS W. SMITH, on Queen Street.

THOS. W. SMITH, H. LEBARON SMITH.

GARD.

To our Customers and the Public generally—

MR. F. W. SMITH, aided by his son, has succeeded in establishing a firm basis, by first attention to quality, low prices, and careful consideration of the requirements of his customers.

OUTFITTING ESTABLISHMENTS

and has been induced from his growing trade and the increasing demands of the public, to enlarge his business so as to supply every article required for the covering of man.

SHOEMAKING ESTABLISHMENT

to his former lines; and has also largely increased his premises and work-rooms.

T. W. Smith & Son

are now, therefore, prepared to furnish any gentleman with a Complete Outfit from Head to Foot, and at the lowest prices possible; and hope to procure from the citizens of Fredericton, and the country generally, that patronage which first class work and attendance, low prices, and courteous and prompt attention to business must entitle them.

THOMAS W. SMITH & SON

Fredericton, July 7

ALBION HOUSE.

1882 SPRING OPENING. 1882

New Staple and Fancy Dry Goods

ARRIVING DAILY AT F. B. EDGECOMBE'S,

BRANCH STORE: St. MARY'S FERRY, Fredericton, N. B.

Maritime Farmer.

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 23, 1882.

The Vote on Tuesday Night.

If the resolution moved by Mr. Hutchinson, and debated on Tuesday, advising the government not to fill up the vacant seats in the Legislative Council until after the general election was brought up to test the strength of parties, the Opposition must be satisfied that the government is as strong in the House as they ever have been.

Card.

We are surprised at the effect that our remark about the Conservative Candidates at the general election has produced, and how our sensitive contemporary the Reporter, or rather our Mr. Fisher, as he thought proper to take the remark to himself, will not disclaim his inference.

The Temperance Fund.

The discussions in the private Bill Committee in Parliament over the bills regarding the "Temperance Fund" have been spirited and attracted much attention.

The Boom in the North West.

The immigration in the North West set in, in earnest, at the beginning of this month, and too early by nearly two months.

The Budget Debate.

Hon. Mr. Fraser's reply to Mr. Blair. Hon. Attorney General, in resuming the Budget debate, said that he did not propose in dealing with the matter to occupy the attention of the House for a longer period than is necessary to answer a few of the points which Mr. Blair raised.

The Bridge Question.

Mr. Blair, in his speech during the budget debate, made the following reference to a bridge across the river at Fredericton—

Weather Report.

Under the title of "Old Probabilities" one of the United States Government is most widely known. It is a book which was written by Prof. J. H. Poy, the meteorologist of the Mississippi Valley, whose contributions to his favorite study have given him an almost national reputation.

Notes and Comments.

Labor strikes are on the increase in the United States. Winnipeg's assessment is expected to reach $25,000,000 this year.

Notes and Comments.

The Massachusetts House has passed a prohibitory liquor law by a large majority.

Notes and Comments.

A new Ministry has been formed in Greece, with Mr. Theodoris as President of the Council and Mr. Theodoris as Minister of Affairs.

Notes and Comments.

Count von Moltke, Chief Marshal of the German Empire, will shortly go on a tour to Switzerland. This is considered an important sign that there are no fears of peace being broken.

Bismarck on the North-West.

The Imperial German Government have been seeking information regarding the extent, resources, and capacity for settlement of the "fertile belt," the soil, cereals, and temperature of the North-West, the prospects of stock raising as a distinct branch of agricultural enterprise in the Dominion, and the products of the soil, such as wheat, etc.

The Budget Debate.

Hon. Mr. Fraser's reply to Mr. Blair. Hon. Attorney General, in resuming the Budget debate, said that he did not propose in dealing with the matter to occupy the attention of the House for a longer period than is necessary to answer a few of the points which Mr. Blair raised.

Notes and Comments.

The latest craze among ladies of wealth and fashion in England is for molokai coats, which, from the minute size of the animals and the difficulty of unfastening them from their subterranean abodes, are likely to become as costly as the skins of the Russian sable.

Notes and Comments.

The fishermen on the American side of the lakes have addressed a memorial to Canadian legislators for protection against the depredations of the American fishermen, in possession of privileges which themselves do not enjoy, and are thus enabled to cut them out in the American markets.

Notes and Comments.

Says the Boston Transcript—Chief Justice Wilson, of Ontario, has decided that shaving is "not a work of necessity or mercy." His Honour is correct. There is certainly no mercy to be expected from the hands of the barber, who, no matter how great the pressure of his work—no matter how cold the weather—will not cut a man's hair without a good reason.

Notes and Comments.

When in Washington Oscar Wilde, in response to an invitation to dance at the Becheler's German, which he attended escorted by Mrs. Robeson, said—"I have died and don't dance; those who dance don't die." And now this speech is repeated, with all manner of jests and jokes, on all occasions.

Notes and Comments.

The act just assented to abolishing the requirement of stamps on promissory notes, drafts, and bills of exchange provides that unused stamps shall, until 30th June next, be received at their face value in payment of any money due to the Treasury, or in exchange for postage stamps of like value. The public should search its pocketbooks and get rid of the stamps at once.

Notes and Comments.

"Old Matthew" in Wordsworth's beautiful ballad says— "Many a love has, but by none Am I loved below."

THE BUDGET DEBATE.

Hon. Mr. Fraser's reply to Mr. Blair.

Hon. Attorney General, in resuming the Budget debate, said that he did not propose in dealing with the matter to occupy the attention of the House for a longer period than is necessary to answer a few of the points which Mr. Blair raised.
