

Cataract—A New Treatment.
Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern science has been attained by the Dixon treatment for cataract. Out of 200 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of the patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefited, while the majority never receive a cure at all. Starting with the cataract, many have been cured by the most scientific means that the science of the eye has to offer. The cataract is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissues, Mr. Dixon has once again discovered his cure for this extraordinary ailment. The permanency is unquestioned, as cures occur in this manner, and can be repeated at home, and the present season of the year is the most favorable for a speedy and permanent cure. The majority of cases being cured at once, and the cures are permanent. Sufferers should correspond with Messrs. A. H. DIXON, 205 King Street West, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their treatment on cataract.—Montreal Star, 28.

Your courtier is not only the dearest of mortals, but the most useful also. When the funny lawyer says everybody else into convulsions, the enter every one, "Silence in the court!" and everybody's chops fall in one time; and once motion. The creature can't say anything to laugh at, and he's bound that nobody else shall have a laugh at anything he can't see. Talk of your dog in the manger!

"Fools Hang In, Where Angels Fear to Tread."
—So impetuous you is often given to folly and indiscretions; and, as a result, nervous, mental and organic debility follow, memory is impaired, self confidence is lacking; at night bad dreams occur, premature old age seems setting in, ruin is in the track. In the long run, you can't stand around with Dr. R. V. Pierce's of Buffalo, N.Y., the author of a treatise for the benefit of that class of patients, and describe your symptoms and ailments. He will cure you at your home, and will send you full particulars by mail.

A native chief in Fiji presented himself for baptism. "How many wives have you?" said the missionary. "Seven," said the chief. "Oh, that you'd do as I do," said the missionary, "I have got rid of six of them." A month later the chief came again, saying, "All right now; you baptize me now. Only one wife now." "What have you done with the others?" said the missionary. "Oh," said the chief, "I've eaten 'em."

The fashionable fall flower is the banana. —One trial of Mother Graves' Worm Extirminator will convince you that it has no equal as a worm medicine. Buy a bottle and see if it does not please you.

—A field of corn.—Thomas Sablin of Ellington, says "I have used Holy Way's Corn Cure with the best results, having removed ten ears from my field. It is not a half way cure or reliver, but a complete extirminator, leaving the skin smooth and clear from the least appearance of the corn."

All a woman asks is to be loved. Give her love and she is contented. But that one simple little word may contain an amount of love, real life, and joy, and peace, and happiness, and a young man on his wedding day, a week to stop and thoughtfully search his soul as he stands on the brink of matrimony.

—A field of corn.—Thomas Sablin of Ellington, says "I have used Holy Way's Corn Cure with the best results, having removed ten ears from my field. It is not a half way cure or reliver, but a complete extirminator, leaving the skin smooth and clear from the least appearance of the corn."
