SIXTEENTH YEAR

ROSEBERY
He Smarts Under the Attacks of Labouchere and Dilke.

HIS HEALTH IS ALSO BROKEN DOWN

Expected to Reach a Decision
To-Day.

Depressed by the Fact that He Has to Leave London Nightly to Obtain Sleep and Taking the Attacks of Labouchere and Dilke to Heart—Rosbery is Expected to Reach a Decision
To-Day.

New York, March 3.—Ballard Smith has been London to the World.
The speedy retirement of Mr. Gladstone from the post of Prime Minister is predicted to be 14 months ago, as well as the possibility of the latter event especially is noted at that time by every prominent English newspaper of both parties and by all the English correspondents of New York newspapers.

Now I can appreciate the very strong probability of the speedy resignation of Lord Rosebery, for personal reasons, even while the present majority in the House of Commons remains assured to him.

He is still suffering from a severe attack of influenza, but that would little concern to his friends and physicians if it were not complicated by neuritis. It has been high autumn for a year or more. The sleeplessness begun after an attack of scarletina, seven years ago, but it has been especially to such a degree that for several months he has found it impossible to sleep in London, going to two country seats near London, or to Brighton or to the residence of one of his daughters.

Intended to resign on Friday.
The depression which is the invariable consequence of the influenza has so affected Lord Rosebery's health that saying that only the influence of Lord Tweedmouth, a man of strong will, most courage and highly-trained political knowledge, has prevented the Prime Minister's resignation within the past two days. Both Lord Tweedmouth and other intimate friends fear that no influence can prevent it within the next 48 hours, unless Lord Rosebery's temper changes. The renewed bitter attacks of Mr. Labouchere and Sir Charles Dilke in the House of Commons the day, both being members of his own party, have, in his present condition, affected him.

On the other hand, it is well known that Lord Rosebery is intensely ambitious, has worked strenuously for membership since his entry into public life, and therefore would not throw it away lightly. Over 300 members of the House of Commons are dependent upon his physical condition.
Lord Rosebery passed a wretched night, and does not gain strength. His condition at noon was altogether unsatisfactory.

All London Devastated by Grip.
There is scarcely a warehouse or shop originally of London, which has not been invaded by the influenza. Private houses are infected over the Metropolitan police, representing a twelfth of the whole number, have been laid up. Over 300 members of the Stock Exchange and 300 postoffice clerks are ill.

Deaths of distinguished public men who are among the sufferers occupy a half column of the London papers. The death rate is not so high proportionately as on the occasion of previous visitations of the epidemic, but it is more persistent, such as bronchitis and pneumonia, the doctors are all called out.

THE GOLD WEDDING.

At Noon To-Day Anna Gould Becomes Countess Castellan.

New York, March 3.—The arrangements for the Gold-Castellan wedding have been completed, and Mr. George Gould will give out the official program. The marriage will take place at the residence of George J. Gould, Fifth-avenue and 67th-street, at 12 o'clock Monday. Archbishop Corrigan, assisted by two priests from the cathedral, will officiate. There will be no civil ceremony. There will be present the relatives of both parties, and intimate friends of the bride's family—less than 100 people in all. The invitations have been limited to that number, as no more can comfortably be accommodated in the house.

London Council Council.

London, March 3.—The County Council elections Saturday resulted in the choice of 52 Progressives and 48 Moderates. The Moderates gained 21 seats and the Progressives gained one seat, formerly held by the Moderates. In four districts the results will not be determined until Monday.

CONSERVATISM IN PEEL.

Mr. A. F. Campbell, Ex-M.L.A., Nominated to Carry the Standard at the Conservative Elections.

Brampton, Ont., March 2.—There were rumors on the streets of Brampton today that there would be a disunion at the Peel Conservative convention this afternoon and that six or seven candidates would be nominated for the nomination.

When the convention opened, however, things went evenly, and though a large number of gentlemen were nominated, they all unhesitatingly retired except A.
F. Campbell, ex-M.L.A. for Algoma, who was unanimously made the candidate.

Mr. Campbell is a native of Peel and has lived in Brampton for 20 years.
Eight years ago Mr. Campbell made a good run in the same constituency, in having Mr. Campbell to carry the Conservative banner.

The meeting was uneventful until Dr.
Newitt, in declining to stand made a short but ringing speech, calling on the Conservatives of Peel to stop fighting bickering among themselves and get down to business. He said it was wholly their own fault that they had not secured a Conservative majority at the last election. They must drop dissension and work.

After the nomination had been declared a public meeting was held, at which Hon. N. C. Wallace, Hon. J. F. Wood and Dr. Newitt delivered stirring speeches.

POSSIBLY A DELIVER.

With the Elections Between May 27 and June 1, a very busy day.

Poor Peary, March 3.—There was a good attendance at the annual Conservative convention held in the Town Hall Saturday, Mr. J. B. Dow of Whitby delivered the opening address, which was a patriotic sentiment, and urged upon the audience the necessity of a united Canadian front, with a policy concurred in by all the provinces, and British. He had very cordial support in the resolutions proposed. Mr. George Lodge, Conservative whip, and member for the riding of Peel, presided over an hour's duration, in which the principal questions before the people were discussed.

The Conservatives had the same city with a new leader, while the Reformers had the same city with a new leader.
He gave figures, showing the enormous amount of trade with the United States in the last year. The farmers would have plenty of time to consider the question of a tariff on the goods of the United States. Mr. W. J. Smith, M.P., gave a short address, in which he urged the farmers to carefully weigh the facts set forth by the speaker.

In conversation with Mr. Taylor, he indicated that he would be a candidate in the next election. He said that the position of the Conservative party in Ontario would in all probability place him in the front rank of the party. He possibly be another session before then.

TWO MEN FOR HAMILTON.

Messrs. McKay and Eryman Will Both Retire From the Field.

Hamilton, March 3.—Alexander McKay, who has worthily represented Hamilton for many years, has announced that he is determined to retire from Parliament, and will not run at the coming election. Mr. Eryman, who has also represented Hamilton for many years, has also announced that he is determined to retire from Parliament, and will not run at the coming election.

MINISTERS AT LORNAIR.

Messrs. Oulmet and Curran at the Prescott County Convention.

Montreal, March 3.—The Liberal-Conservative of Prescott County met in convention at L'Orignal on Saturday and Sunday. Messrs. Oulmet and Curran were the candidates for the county.
Messrs. Oulmet and Curran were present and were presented with an address, both gentlemen delivering eloquent speeches. Mr. Oulmet is a Liberal candidate, and Mr. Curran is a Conservative candidate. The meeting was a success, and the Liberal cause was well advanced. The meeting was held at the Hotel de la Couronne, and was well attended. The meeting was a success,

TORONTO'S THIRD GREAT FIRE

Another Three-Quarters of a Million Goes Up in Smoke.

The Four Corners of Yonge and Queen-streets Completely Destroyed—Robert Simpson's Mammoth Departmental Store a Total Loss—Philip Jamieson's Gents' Furnishing Establishment, Sutcliffe's Drygoods House, Bonner's Gents' Furnishing Store, Milne's House Furnishing and the Tremont House Badly Gutted—Two Millions Lost in the Three Great Fires of the Past 60 Days—Mystery As to Their Origin.

Toronto witnessed its third baptism of fire within eight weeks early Sunday morning. Grand and awful as the two previous conflagrations seemed to those who witnessed them, they paled and faded away in comparison with that of Sunday morning. The fire broke out in the basement of Simpson's mammoth new seven-story drygoods warehouse at Yonge and Queen-streets, and before it could be got under control these buildings were destroyed, most of them completely lost.
